(c) This act does not apply to a digital asset of an employer used by an employee in the ordinary course of the employer’s business.

SECTION 3. DIRECTION FOR DISCLOSURE OF DIGITAL ASSETS.

(a) A user may use an online tool to direct the custodian to disclose to a designated recipient or not to disclose some or all of the user’s digital assets, including the content of electronic communications. If the online tool allows the user to modify or delete a direction at all times, a direction regarding disclosure using an online tool overrides a contrary direction by the user in a will or other record made prior to the date of the direction made by the user using an online tool.

89 (b) The user may allow or prohibit in a will or other record, disclosure to a fiduciary of 90 some or all of the user's digital assets, including the content of electronic communications sent
91 or received by the user, and the provisions of such will or other record shall override a contrary
92 direction by the user using an online tool that was made prior to the date of such will or other
93 record.

94 (c) A user's direction under subsection (a) or (b) overrides (i) a contrary provision in a
95 terms-of-service agreement that does not require the user to act affirmatively and distinctly from 96 the user's assent to the terms of service and (ii) a contrary affirmative action from the user (as 97 described in the preceding clause (i)) that predates the user's direction under subsection (a) or 98 (b).

99 (d) If the online tool has not been utilized by the user or if the custodian has not
100 provided an online tool and, in either case, if no direction regarding some or all of the digital
101 assets is provided to the fiduciary in a will or other record, the fiduciary may petition a court for
102 access to some or all of the user's digital assets. The court shall grant such access unless it finds
103 that the fiduciary is not acting in good faith or that such access is prohibited by applicable federal 104 law.

105 SECTION 4. TERMS-OF-SERVICE AGREEMENT.

106 (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 3, this act does not change or impair a right
107 of a custodian or a user under a terms-of-service agreement to access and use digital assets of the 108 user.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in Section 3, this act does not give a fiduciary or designated recipient any new or expanded rights other than those held by the user for whom, or for whose estate, the fiduciary or designated recipient acts or represents.

(c) A fiduciary's or designated recipient's access to digital assets may be modified or eliminated by a user, or by federal law, or, subject to Section 3(c), by a terms-of-service agreement if the user has not provided a subsequent direction under Section 3(a) or Section 3(b) or by a court order issued under Section 3(d).

SECTION 5. PROCEDURE FOR DISCLOSING DIGITAL ASSETS.

(a) When disclosing digital assets of a user under this act, the custodian shall, in accordance with the direction provided under Section 3(a) or Section 3(b) or a court order issued under Section 3(d):

(1) if requested by the fiduciary or designated recipient, grant a fiduciary or designated recipient full access to the user's account;

(2) subject to Section 5(a)(3)(d), grant a fiduciary or designated recipient partial access to the user's account to the extent that such partial access is requested by a fiduciary or designated recipient; or

(3) at the option of the custodian, provide a fiduciary or designated recipient a copy in a record of any digital asset that, on the date the custodian received the request for disclosure, the user could have accessed if the user were alive and had full capacity and access to the account.

(b) A custodian may assess a reasonable administrative charge for the cost of disclosing digital assets under this act.

130 (c) A custodian need not disclose under this act a digital asset deleted by a user.

131 (d) If a user directs or a fiduciary requests a custodian to disclose under this act some, but
132 not all, of the user's digital assets, the custodian need not disclose the assets if segregation of the 133 assets would impose an undue burden on the custodian. If the custodian believes the direction or 134 request imposes an undue burden, the custodian or fiduciary may seek an order from the court to 135 disclose:

136 (1) a subset limited by date of the user's digital assets;

137 (2) all of the user's digital assets to the fiduciary or designated recipient;

138 (3) none of the user's digital assets; or

139 (4) all of the user's digital assets to the court for review in camera.

140 SECTION 6. DISCLOSURE OF CONTENT OF ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS
141 OF DECEASED USER.

142 If a deceased user consented or a court directs disclosure of the contents of electronic 143 communications of the user, the custodian shall disclose to the personal representative of the 144 estate of the user the content of an electronic communication sent or received by the user if the 145 personal representative gives the custodian:

147 (2) a certified copy of the death certificate of the user;

148 (3) a certified copy of the letter of appointment of the personal representative or a small
149 estate affidavit or court order;

(4) unless the user provided direction using an online tool, (i) a copy of the user's will, trust, power of attorney, or other record evidencing the user's consent to disclosure of the content of electronic communications, (ii) a court order acknowledging that user consented to the disclosure of the content of electronic communications to the personal representative under the user's will, trust, power of attorney or other record or (iii) a court order issued under Section 3(d); and

(5) if requested by the custodian:

(A) a number, username, address, or other unique subscriber or account identifier assigned by the custodian to identify the user's account; or

(B) evidence linking the account to the user.

SECTION 7. DISCLOSURE OF OTHER DIGITAL ASSETS OF DECEASED USER.

Unless the user prohibited disclosure of digital assets or the court directs otherwise, a custodian shall disclose to the personal representative of the estate of a deceased user a catalogue of electronic communications sent or received by the user and digital assets, other than the content of electronic communications, of the user, if the representative gives the custodian:

(1) a written request for disclosure in physical or electronic form;

(2) a certified copy of the death certificate of the user;

(3) a certified copy of the letter of appointment of the representative or a small estate affidavit or court order; and

(4) if requested by the custodian:

170 (A) a number, username, address, or other unique subscriber or account identifier
171 assigned by the custodian to identify the user's account;

172 (B) evidence linking the account to the user;

173 (C) an affidavit stating that disclosure of the user's digital assets is reasonably necessary
174 for administration of the estate; or

175 (D) a finding by the court that:

176 (i) the user had a specific account with the custodian, identifiable by the 177 information specified in subparagraph (A); or

178 (ii) disclosure of the user's digital assets is reasonably necessary for 179 administration of the estate.

180 SECTION 8. FIDUCIARY DUTY AND AUTHORITY.

181 (a) The user's rights in digital assets, including the content of electronic communications,
182 constitute property of the estate of the user to be managed consistent with the legal duties
183 imposed on a fiduciary charged with managing tangible property, including:

184 (1) the duty of care;

185 (2) the duty of loyalty; and

186 (3) the duty of confidentiality.

187 (b) A fiduciary's or designated recipient's authority with respect to a digital asset of a
188 user:

190 service;

191 (2) is subject to other applicable law, including copyright law;

192 (3) in the case of a fiduciary, is limited by the scope of the fiduciary's duties; and

193 (4) may not be used to impersonate the user.

194 (c) A fiduciary with authority over the property of a decedent has the right to access any
195 digital asset in which the decedent had a right or interest and that is not held by a custodian or 196 subject to a terms-of-service agreement.

197 (d) A fiduciary acting within the scope of the fiduciary's duties is an authorized user of
198 the property of the decedent for the purpose of applicable computer fraud and unauthorized
199 computer access laws, including section 120F of chapter 266 of the General Laws.

202 (2) is an authorized user for the purpose of computer fraud and unauthorized
203 computer access laws, including section 120F of chapter 266 of the General Laws.

204 (f) A custodian may disclose information in an account to a fiduciary of the user when the 205 information is required to terminate an account used to access digital assets licensed to the user.

206 (g) A fiduciary of a user may request a custodian to terminate the user's account. A
207 request for termination must be in writing, in either physical or electronic form, and 208 accompanied by:

- 209 (1) a certified copy of the death certificate of the user;
- 210 (2) a certified copy of the letter of appointment of the representative or a small
- 211 estate affidavit or court order, giving the fiduciary authority over the account; and
- 212 (3) if requested by the custodian:
- 213 (A) a number, username, address, or other unique subscriber or account identifier
- 214 assigned by the custodian to identify the user's account;
- 215 (B) evidence linking the account to the user; or
- 216 (C) a finding by the court that the user had a specific account with the
- 217 custodian, identifiable by the information specified in subparagraph (A).

219 (a) Not later than 60 days after receipt of the information required under Sections 6

220 through 8, a custodian shall comply with a request under this act from a fiduciary or designated

221 recipient to disclose digital assets or terminate an account. If the custodian fails to comply, the 222 fiduciary or designated recipient may apply to the court for an order directing compliance.

223 (b) A custodian may notify the user that a request for disclosure or to terminate an

224 account was made under this act.

225 (c) A custodian may deny a request under this act from a fiduciary or designated recipient

226 for disclosure of digital assets or to terminate an account if the custodian is aware of any lawful

227 access to the account following the receipt of the fiduciary's request.

228 (d) A custodian and its officers, employees, and agents are immune from liability for an 229 act or omission done in good faith in compliance with this act.
