An Act relative to statutes of repose.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Section 2B of chapter 260 of the Massachusetts General Laws is hereby 2 amended:-

3           In the first paragraph, in the phrase, “no more than six years after the earlier date”, the 4 number ten shall replace six:

5           “Action of tort for damages arising out of any deficiency or neglect in the design, 6 planning, construction or general administration of an improvement to real property, other than 7 that of a public agency as defined in section thirty-nine A of chapter seven shall be commenced
8 only within three years next after the cause of action accrues; provided, however, that in no event 9 shall such actions be commenced more than six years after the earlier of the dates of: (1) the 10 opening of the improvement to use; or (2) substantial completion of the improvement and the 11 taking of possession for occupancy by the owner.”

12           In the second paragraph, in the phrase, “more than six years”, the number six shall be 13 replaced with the number ten:

14           “Actions of tort for damages arising out of any deficiency or neglect in the design,
15 planning, construction, or general administration of an improvement to real property of a public
16 agency, as defined in said section thirty-nine A shall be commenced only within three years next 17 after the cause of action accrues; provided, however, that in no event shall actions be 18 commenced more than six years after the earlier of the dates of: (1) official acceptance of the 19 project by the public agency; (2) the opening of the real property to public use; (3) the 20 acceptance by the contractor of a final estimate prepared by the public agency pursuant to 21 chapter thirty, section thirty-nine G; or (4) substantial completion of the work and the taking 22 possession for occupancy by the awarding authority.”

23           SECTION 2. Chapter 114 is hereby amended to add after section 92:-

24           SECTION 92A. Any extension of a statute of repose or limitations related to filing claims 25 pursuant to a state or local building code shall enlarge the opportunity for any person either to 26 raise a timely claim based upon a violation of that code in court or to file a timely complaint
27 against any contractor who performed the act or omission which is the subject of said building 28 code or both.
