The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act relative to the Group Insurance Commission and Medicare migration.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 18 of chapter 32A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2018
2 Official Edition, is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following sentences:-

3 Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, all retirees, their spouses and 4 dependents, who are insured or eligible to be insured under sections five, ten B and twelve, age
5 65 or over and not eligible for coverage under medicare part A at no cost to the retiree, spouse,
6 or dependent, shall be transferred by the commission to medicare part A and part B; provided,
7 that the commission shall pay the medicare part A premium and any medicare part A or part B 8 premium penalty assessed by the federal government on said retirees, spouses and dependents as 9 result of transfer into medicare. Each retiree, to be transferred, shall: (a) provide the commission, 10 in such form as the commission shall prescribe, such information as is necessary to transfer to 11 medicare Part A and Part B, and (b) enroll in a medicare health benefits supplement plan offered
12 by the commission under section ten C or section fourteen; provided, that benefits under said

13 plan and medicare part A and part B together shall be of comparable actuarial value to those 14 under the retiree's existing coverage.

15 SECTION 2. The commission shall transfer retirees, their spouses and dependents, in 16 accordance with section 1 of this act, on or before July 1, 2022.
