An Act relative to violent crimes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Section 52 of Chapter 119 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2016
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended in line 14 by inserting after the word “committed,” the 3 following words:- “while under the age of eighteen, murder in violation of section one of chapter 4 two hundred sixty-five; or”

5           SECTION 2. Section 54 of Chapter 119, as so appearing, is hereby amended in line 16
6 by inserting after the second paragraph the following new paragraph:-

7           “The commonwealth may proceed by complaint in juvenile court or in a juvenile session 8 of a district court, as the case may be, or by indictment as provided by chapter two hundred and 9 seventy-seven, if a person while under the age of eighteen is alleged to have committed an 10 offense in violation of section one of chapter two hundred and sixty-five.”

11 SECTION 3. Section 72B of Chapter 119, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 12 inserting at the beginning thereof the following:-

13 “If a person is found guilty or adjudicated delinquent by reason of murder in the first 14 degree committed before his fourteenth birthday under the provisions of section one of chapter
15 two hundred and sixty-five, the person shall be sentenced to 20 years with possibility of parole
16 after 15 years; or if found guilty or adjudicated delinquent by reason of murder in the second 17 degree, the person shall be sentenced to 15 years with possibility of parole after 10 years in 18 accordance with section fifty-eight of chapter one hundred nineteen.”

19 SECTION 4. Chapter 279 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 20 striking out Section 24 and inserting in its place the following:-

21 Section 24. If a convict is sentenced to the state prison, except as a habitual criminal, the 22 court shall not fix the term of imprisonment, but shall fix a maximum and a minimum term for 23 which he may be imprisoned. The maximum term shall not be longer than the longest term fixed 24 by law for the punishment of the crime of which he has been convicted, and the minimum term 25 shall be a term set by the court, except that, where an alternative sentence to a house of 26 correction is permitted for the offense, a minimum state prison term may not be less than one
27 year. In the case of a sentence to life imprisonment, except in the case of a sentence for murder 28 in the first degree, and in the case of multiple life sentences arising out of separate and distinct 29 incidents that occurred at different times, where the second offense occurred subsequent to the 30 first conviction, the court shall fix a minimum term which shall not be less than 15 years nor 31 more than 25 years. In the case of a sentence for murder in the first degree imposed upon a 32 person who has been designated pursuant to subsection (b) of section two of chapter two hundred

33 and sixty-five as eligible for parole, the court shall fix a minimum term which shall not be less 34 than 35 years.
