An Act relative to the protection of essential businesses.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to provide liability protections for essential businesses during the COVID-19 pandemic, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. As used in this act, the following terms shall, unless the context clearly

20 coronavirus on the premises of such essential business or due to the operations of such essential
21 business; provided, however, that the essential business is providing its services in good faith.

22 (b) The immunity provided in subsection (a) shall not:

23 (i) apply if damages were caused by an act or omission constituting gross negligence or
24 recklessness or conduct with an intent to harm or to discriminate based on race, ethnicity,
25 national origin, religion, disability, sexual orientation or gender identity by the essential
26 business;

27 (ii) modify or prohibit any claims brought forward under applicable workers'
28 compensation statutes and regulations, healthcare agreements, employment agreements or
