The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act to protect victims of rape and children conceived during the commission of said offense.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 209 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 2 adding the following section:-

3 Section 39. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 38, a married woman may file a 4 petition with the court to terminate her husband’s parental rights pursuant to this section.

5 Grounds for the termination of parental rights shall be established if the court determines by 6 clear and convincing evidence that a child of the marriage was conceived as a result of an act of 7 rape made unlawful pursuant to sections 22 or 22A of chapter 265, or pursuant to a similar law 8 of another state, territory, possession, or Native American tribe where the offense occurred. It is 9 presumed that termination of parental rights is in the best interest of the child if the child was

10 conceived as a result of the unlawful sexual battery. A petition for termination of parental rights

11 under this paragraph may be filed at any time. The court shall accept a guilty plea or conviction 12 of unlawful sexual battery pursuant to said sections 22 or 22A of chapter 265 as conclusive proof 13 that the child was conceived by a violation of criminal law as set forth in this section.

14 SECTION 2. Chapter 209C of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2016 Official 15 Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after section 1 the following subsection:-

16 Section 1A. Notwithstanding section 10, the mother of a child who was born as a result of 17 an act of rape as set forth in this section may file a petition with the court to terminate the 18 perpetrator's parental rights. Grounds for the termination of parental rights shall be established if 19 the court determines by clear and convincing evidence that the child was conceived as a result of 20 an act of rape made unlawful pursuant to sections 22 or 22A of chapter 265, or pursuant to a
21 similar law of another state, territory, possession, or Native American tribe where the offense 22 occurred. It is presumed that termination of parental rights is in the best interest of the child if the 23 child was conceived as a result of the unlawful sexual battery. A petition for termination of 24 parental rights under this paragraph may be filed at any time. The court shall accept a guilty plea 25 or conviction of unlawful sexual battery pursuant to said sections 22 or 22A of chapter 265 as 26 conclusive proof that the child was conceived by a violation of criminal law as set forth in this 27 section.
