The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act eliminating standard conditions and creating maximum caps on probation supervision terms.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 5 of Chapter 27 of the General Laws is hereby amended by 2 inserting at the end thereof the following paragraph:-

3 All parole shall be presumed administrative and no condition of parole shall be ordered 4 unless that condition specifically addresses the particular characteristics of the person and the 5 crime for which they are being paroled. The parole board must consider whether any condition
6 ordered would have a rehabilitative effect or serve a legitimate public safety goal based on 7 current criminal recidivism and rehabilitation research with clear and convincing evidence.

8 SECTION 2. Section 87A of Chapter 276 of the General Laws is hereby amended by 9 inserting after the first paragraph the following paragraph:-

10 All probation shall be presumed administrative and no condition of probation, shall be 11 ordered unless that condition specifically addresses the particular characteristics of the person

12 and the crime for which probation is ordered. The judge must consider whether any condition 13 ordered would have a rehabilitative effect or serve a legitimate public safety goal based on 14 current criminal recidivism and rehabilitation research with clear and convincing evidence.

15 SECTION 3. Chapter 276 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 16 section 87B the following section:-

17 Section 87BB. (a) The period of probation or suspension of sentence under section 87 of 18 Chapter 276 shall be fixed by the court subject to the provisions of this section. Any probation or 19 suspension of sentence may be terminated by the court at any time and upon such termination or 20 upon termination by expiration of the term, an order to this effect shall be entered by the court.

21 (b) The maximum length of any period of probation or suspension of sentence shall be 22 limited to:

23 (1) Two years, for any felony;

24 (2) One year, for any misdemeanor.

25 (c) Any offender who is serving more than 1 sentence of probation or suspension of 26 sentence imposed following convictions in more than 1 case shall not serve a consecutive period
27 of probation or suspension of sentence that is in excess of the limitations imposed by subsection
28 (b) of this section. Any sentence of probation or suspension of sentence (or any portion thereof) 29 which, if served consecutively to another such sentence, would result in an aggregate sentence of 30 probation or suspension of sentence in excess of the limitations imposed by subsection (b) of this 31 section shall be deemed to be concurrent to such other sentence. The provisions of this 32 subsection shall not apply to a sentence imposed for a conviction involving an offense committed

33 while the offender was serving a period of probation or suspension of sentence. Periods of 34 committed time shall not count toward the aggregate time limit on probation or suspension of 35 sentence supervision.

36 (d) The limitations set forth in subsections (b) and (c) of this section shall not apply:

37 (1) To any sentence imposed for a conviction of any sex offense under G.L. c. 6 178C if 38 the sentencing court determines on the record that a longer period of probation or suspension of 39 sentence will reduce the likelihood that the offender will commit a sex offense or other violent 40 offense in the future; and best meets public safety and individual rehabilitative needs.

41 (2) To any sentence imposed for any offense if the sentencing court determines on the 42 record that a longer period of probation or suspension of sentence is necessary to ensure the 43 collection of any restitution ordered, except that any period of probation ordered pursuant to this 44 paragraph that is in excess of the limitations set forth in subsections (b) and (c) of this section 45 shall be administrative only.

46 (e) The limitations set forth in subsection (b) and (c) of this section may be exceeded by 47 up to 90 days by the sentencing court if it determines that the defendant has not yet completed a 48 substance use treatment program ordered by the court, provided, that each extension of sentence 49 ordered pursuant to this subsection shall be preceded by a hearing, and by a finding on the 50 record, that such extension of sentence is necessary to facilitate the completion of the substance
51 abuse treatment program. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a court from terminating 52 probation without completion of a substance use treatment program.

53 (f) Except as provided by subsection (g) of this section, in no event shall the total period 54 of probation or suspension of sentence exceed the maximum term of commitment provided by 55 law.
