HOUSE No. 1927

By Ms. Whipps of Athol, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 1927) of Susannah M. Whipps and Natalie M. Blais relative to management and operation of registries of probate. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act relative to the efficient management and operation of the registries of probate.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION ____ . Chapter 217 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out 2 section 2 and inserting in place thereof the following new section:

3 Section 2. There shall be six judges of probate in the county of Middlesex, four judges of 4 probate in the counties of Norfolk, Bristol, Suffolk, Worcester and Plymouth, three judges of 5 probate in each of the counties of Essex and Hampden, and two judges of probate in the county
6 of Barnstable. The chief justice of the probate and family court department shall designate one 7 justice to be the first justice of a particular court; provided, that appropriate consideration shall 8 be given to seniority, length of service in that particular court and managerial ability. Said first
9 justice shall have the powers enumerated in section ten A of chapter two hundred and eleven B
10 and shall be the administrative head of that particular court; provided, however, that the register
11 shall have responsibility for the internal administration of his office, including the selection, 12 appointment, and management of personnel, staff services and recordkeeping.

13 Each first justice so appointed shall serve as first justice of that court for a five-year term
14 and shall be eligible to serve additional five-year terms in that particular court. Any first justice
15 may be removed from his position as first justice by the chief justice of the probate and family
16 court department; provided, however, that any such removal is not for arbitrary or capricious
17 reasons. Any first justice who is removed from his position as first justice by the chief justice of 18 the probate and family court department may appeal the removal to the chief justice of the trial
19 court. The probate court and the court of insolvency for said counties may be held by one or both 20 of the judges, and, when so held, shall have and exercise all the powers and jurisdiction
21 committed to the respective courts. The judges shall so arrange the performance of their duties as 22 to insure a prompt and punctual discharge thereof. The judges may perform each other's duties
23 when necessary or convenient. Simultaneous sessions of the courts in said counties may be held 24 if public convenience requires. Citations, orders of notice and all other processes issued by the 25 register of probate and insolvency, in this chapter called the register, for any of said counties, 26 shall bear teste of the first judge of said court. Deposits or investments made in the name of the 27 judge of probate shall be in the name of the first judge of the court, and shall be subject to the 28 order of the court.

29 SECTION _____. Said chapter 217 of the General Laws is hereby further amended by 30 striking out section 15 and inserting in place thereof the following new sections:

31 Section 15. The register shall be the administrative head of their office and shall have 32 responsibility for the internal administration of their office, including the selection, appointment,
33 and management of personnel, staff services and recordkeeping. The register shall have the care 34 and custody of all books, documents and papers pertaining to their court, or deposited with the 35 records of insolvency or filed in the registry of probate, and shall carefully preserve them and

36 deliver them to his successor. He or she may, at the expense of the commonwealth cause copies 37 of the indexes, or new indexes, to the records which are in his custody, to be printed and sold at a 38 price not less than the cost of paper, printing and binding. He or she shall perform all other 39 duties, pertaining to his office, required by law. He or she may attest the records by the volume, 40 and the attestation shall be sufficient when the volume containing the same bears the attest, with 41 the written signature of the register or other person lawfully authorized.

42 Section 15 ½ . In order to ensure the efficient administration and operation of each 43 registry, the register shall have responsibility for the selection, appointment, and management of 44 personnel, including, but not limited to, first assistant registers appointed pursuant to section 23,
45 assistant registers appointed pursuant to section 23A, administrative deputy assistants appointed 46 pursuant to section 23B, judicial case managers appointed pursuant to section 23C, assistant 47 judicial case managers appointed pursuant to section 23D, deputy assistant registers appointed 48 pursuant to sections 28 – 29L, and any other position title allocated to the register’s office. In 49 administering their office, the register shall comply with personnel standards promulgated 50 pursuant to section 8 of chapter 211B. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to impair the 51 collective bargaining rights of any employee over whom the register has authority.

52 SECTION ____ . Said chapter 217 is hereby further amended by striking out sections 23, 53 23A, 23B, and 23C and inserting in place thereof the following new sections:

54 Section 23. The register of the respective courts of the probate and family court 55 department may appoint for a term of 3 years and may remove a first assistant register of 56 probate. Before entering upon the performance of his duties, a first assistant register shall take 57 the oath prescribed by the constitution. The appointments shall be as follows:

58 Essex, 1 first assistant register Middlesex, 1 first assistant register Norfolk, 1 first 59 assistant register Suffolk, 1 first assistant register Worcester, 1 first assistant register.

60 Those persons serving as first assistant registers may, subject to the designation of the 61 register, become judicial case managers for a term of 3 years pursuant to section 23C in their 62 respective courts.

63 Section 23A. In addition to the first assistant registers of probate provided for in section 64 23, the registers of the respective courts of the probate and family court department for the 65 following counties may appoint for terms of 3 years and may remove assistant registers with the 66 same powers and duties. The appointments shall be as follows:

67 Barnstable, 1 assistant register Berkshire, 1 assistant register Bristol, 1 assistant register
68 Franklin, 1 assistant register Hampden, 1 assistant register Hampshire, 1 assistant register
69 Middlesex, 1 assistant register Plymouth, 1 assistant register Suffolk, 1 assistant register.

70 Those persons serving as assistant registers may, subject to the designation of the 71 register, become assistant judicial case managers pursuant to section 23D in their respective 72 court.

73 Section 23B. The registers of probate of the respective courts of the probate and family 74 court department for the following counties may appoint 1 or more administrative deputy 75 assistants; provided, however, that administrative deputy assistants may be removed at the 76 pleasure of the registers of probate. The administrative deputy assistants shall meet the definition 77 of both confidential and managerial employees as those terms appear in chapter 150E and shall 78 perform no official judicial duties. The appointments shall be as follows:

79 Barnstable, 1 administrative deputy assistant Essex, 1 administrative deputy assistant 80 Middlesex, 4 administrative deputy assistants Norfolk, 1 administrative deputy assistant
81 Plymouth, 1 administrative deputy assistant Suffolk, 2 administrative deputy assistants
82 Worcester, 2 administrative deputy assistants.

83 SECTION 23C. The register appoint for terms of 3 years and may remove a judicial case
84 manager. Before entering upon the performance of his duties, a judicial case manager shall take 85 the oath prescribed by the constitution. The appointments shall be as follows:

86 Barnstable, 1 judicial case manager Berkshire, 1 judicial case manager Bristol, 1 judicial 87 case manager Essex, 1 judicial case manager Franklin, 1 judicial case manager Hampden, 1
88 judicial case manager Hampshire, 1 judicial case manager Middlesex, 1 judicial case manager
89 Norfolk, 1 judicial case manager Plymouth, 1 judicial case manager Suffolk, 1 judicial case
90 manager Worcester, 1 judicial case manager.

91 Section 23D. In addition to the judicial case managers of the probate and family court
92 provided for in section 23C, the register may appoint and may remove assistant judicial case
93 managers with the same powers and duties. The appointments shall be as follows:

94 Barnstable, 3 assistant judicial case managers Bristol, 7 assistant judicial case managers
95 Essex, 5 assistant judicial case managers Franklin, 1 assistant judicial case manager Hampden, 3
96 assistant judicial case managers Hampshire, 1 assistant judicial case manager Middlesex, 8
