The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act regarding treble damages.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to revise employee claims and awards for damages, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1	SECTION 1. Section 27 of chapter 149 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012
2	Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out the last paragraph and inserting in place
3	thereof the following paragraph:-
4	Any employee claiming to be aggrieved by a violation of this section may, at the
5	expiration of 90 days after the filing of a complaint with the attorney general, or sooner if the
6	attorney general assents in writing, and within 3 years after the violation, institute and prosecute
7	in the employee's own name and on the employee's own behalf, or for the employee and for

8 others similarly situated, a civil action for injunctive relief, for any damages incurred, and for 9 any lost wages and other benefits. Any employee so aggrieved who prevails in such an action 10 shall, if the violation is willful, be awarded treble damages, as liquidated damages, for any lost 11 wages and other benefits and shall also be awarded the costs of the litigation and reasonable 12 attorneys' fees; provided, however, that any employee so aggrieved who prevails in such an 13 action shall, if the violation is not willful, be awarded damages as determined by the court for 14 any lost wages and other benefits and may also be awarded the costs of the litigation and 15 reasonable attorneys' fees.

SECTION 2. Section 27F of said chapter 149, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out the last paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-

18 Any employee claiming to be aggrieved by a violation of this section may, at the 19 expiration of 90 days after the filing of a complaint with the attorney general, or sooner if the 20 attorney general assents in writing, and within 3 years after the violation, institute and prosecute 21 in the employee's own name and on the employee's own behalf, or for the employee and for 22 others similarly situated, a civil action for injunctive relief, for any damages incurred, and for 23 any loss of wages and other benefits. Any employee so aggrieved who prevails in such an action 24 shall, if the violation is willful, be awarded treble damages, as liquidated damages, for any lost 25 wages and other benefits and shall also be awarded the costs of the litigation and reasonable 26 attorneys' fees; provided, however, that any employee so aggrieved who prevails in such an 27 action shall, if the violation is not willful, be awarded damages as determined by the court for 28 any lost wages and other benefits and may also be awarded the costs of the litigation and 29 reasonable attorneys' fees.

30 SECTION 3. Section 27G of said chapter 149, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 31 striking out the last paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-

32 Any employee claiming to be aggrieved by a violation of this section may, at the 33 expiration of 90 days after the filing of a complaint with the attorney general, or sooner if the 34 attorney general assents in writing, and within 3 years after the violation, institute and prosecute 35 in the employee's own name and on the employee's own behalf, or for the employee and for 36 others similarly situated, a civil action for injunctive relief, for any damages incurred, and for 37 any loss of wages and other benefits. Any employee so aggrieved who prevails in such an action 38 shall, if the violation is willful, be awarded treble damages, as liquidated damages, for any lost 39 wages and other benefits and shall also be awarded the costs of the litigation and reasonable 40 attorneys' fees; provided, however, that any employee so aggrieved who prevails in such an 41 action shall, if the violation is not willful, be awarded damages as determined by the court for 42 any lost wages and other benefits and may also be awarded the costs of the litigation and 43 reasonable attorneys' fees.

44 SECTION 4. Section 27H of said chapter 149, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 45 striking out the last paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-

Any employee claiming to be aggrieved by a violation of this section may, at the expiration of 90 days after the filing of a complaint with the attorney general, or sooner if the attorney general assents in writing, and within 3 years after the violation, institute and prosecute in the employee's own name and on the employee's own behalf, or for the employee and for others similarly situated, a civil action for injunctive relief, for any damages incurred, and for any loss of wages and other benefits. Any employee so aggrieved who prevails in such an action shall, if the violation is willful, be awarded treble damages, as liquidated damages, for any lost wages and other benefits and shall also be awarded the costs of the litigation and reasonable attorneys' fees; provided, however, that any employee so aggrieved who prevails in such an action shall, if the violation is not willful, be awarded damages as determined by the court for any lost wages and other benefits and may also be awarded the costs of the litigation and reasonable attorneys' fees.

58 SECTION 5. Section 150 of said chapter 149, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 59 striking out the last paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-

60 Any employee claiming to be aggrieved by a violation of sections 33E, 148, 148A, 148B, 61 150C, 152, 152A or 159C or section 19 of chapter 151 may, at the expiration of 90 days after the 62 filing of a complaint with the attorney general, or sooner if the attorney general assents in 63 writing, and within 3 years after the violation, institute and prosecute in the employee's own 64 name and on the employee's own behalf, or for the employee and for others similarly situated, a 65 civil action for injunctive relief, for any damages incurred, and for any loss of wages and other 66 benefits. Any employee so aggrieved who prevails in such an action shall, if the violation is 67 willful, be awarded treble damages, as liquidated damages, for any lost wages and other benefits 68 and shall also be awarded the costs of the litigation and reasonable attorneys' fees; provided, 69 however, that any employee so aggrieved who prevails in such an action shall, if the violation is 70 not willful, be awarded damages as determined by the court for any lost wages and other benefits 71 and may also be awarded the costs of the litigation and reasonable attorneys' fees.
