4	employee of an agency, executive office, department, board, commission, bureau, division or

6	established by the general court to serve a public purpose, in the custody of the governmental
7	entity which maintains records identifying persons as falling within those categories shall not be 8	public; provided, that the information may be disclosed only to an employee organization whose
9	written aims and objectives on file with the department of labor relations are to represent public
10	employees in collective bargaining under chapter 150E or under chapter 150A for employees of

11 a public authority subject to chapter 150A by chapter 760 of the acts of 1982, a nonprofit 12 organization for retired public employees under chapter 180, a criminal justice agency as defined 13 in section 167 of chapter 6 or as otherwise required by law. The home address, personal email 14 address and home or mobile telephone number of a family member of an employee, contained in 15 a record in the custody of a government agency which maintains records identifying employees 16 of an agency, executive office, department, board, commission, bureau, division or authority of 17 the commonwealth, or of a political subdivision thereof, or of an authority established by the 18 general court to serve a public purpose shall not be public; provided, that the information may be 19 disclosed as required by law.

SECTION 2. Section 5 of chapter 150E of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting after the first paragraph the following 3 paragraphs: -

22 Provided, however, that notwithstanding this or any other general or special law to the 23 contrary, the exclusive representative may require a non-member to pay for the reasonable costs 24 and fees, including arbitrator fees and related attorney fees for grieving or arbitrating a matter 25 that arises under an agreement negotiated pursuant to this section and is brought at the non-26 member's request. Employee organizations may require non-members to pay any anticipated 27 proportional costs and fees prior to a grievance or arbitration hearing. Failure to pay costs and 28 fees shall relieve the exclusive representative of further responsibility to the non-member 29 regarding the matter.

30 Notwithstanding this or any other general or special law to the contrary, an exclusive 31 representative's duty of fair representation to a public employee who is in the bargaining unit 32 shall be limited to the negotiation and enforcement of the terms of agreements with the public employer. The laws of the commonwealth shall not be construed to prohibit an employee organization from providing only to its members legal, economic or job-related services or benefits outside of the collective bargaining agreement.

SECTION 3. Chapter 150E of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 5 the following section: Section 5A. (a) Public employers shall provide to an employee organization access to members of the bargaining unit that the employee organization exclusively represents. Access shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

41 (i) the right to meet with individual employees on the premises of the public employer 42 during the work day to investigate and discuss grievances, workplace-related complaints and 43 other workplace issues;

(ii) the right to conduct worksite meetings during lunch and other non-work breaks, and before and after the workday, on the employer's premises to discuss workplace issues, collective bargaining negotiations, the administration of collective bargaining agreements, other matters related to the duties of an exclusive representative and internal union matters involving the governance or business of the employee organization; and

49 (iii) the right to meet with newly hired employees, without charge to the pay or leave 50 time of the employees, for a minimum of 30 minutes, not later than 10 calendar days after the 51 date of hire, during new employee orientations or, if the employer does not conduct new 52 employee orientations, at individual or group meetings. In the case of school employees, the 53 employer shall notify the exclusive representative of a hiring decision not later than 10 calendar 54 days after the date a prospective employee accepts an offer of employment, and shall provide to 55 the exclusive representative the employee contact information identified in subsection (b).

56 (b) Not later than 10 calendar days after the date a prospective school employee accepts 57 an offer of employment or after the date of hire for all other public bargaining unit employees, 58 public employers shall provide the following contact information to an exclusive representative 59 employee organization in spreadsheet file format or other format agreed to by the exclusive 60 representative employee organization: name, job, title, worksite location, home address, work 61 telephone numbers, home and personal cellular telephone numbers on file with the public 62 employer, date of hire, work email address and personal email address on file with the public 63 employer.

64 (c) Home addresses, phone numbers, email addresses, dates of birth, bargaining units and 65 groupings of employees and emails or other communications between employee organizations 66 and their members are not public records and are prohibited from disclosure except as provided 67 in clauses Twenty-sixth(o) and (p) of section 7 of chapter 4.

(d) The exclusive representative shall have the right to use the email system of a public employer to communicate with bargaining unit members regarding official union-related matters including, but not limited to, elections, results of elections, meetings and social activities; provided, that the use does not create an unreasonable burden on network capability or system administration.

(e) The exclusive representative shall have the right to use government buildings and other facilities that are owned or leased by government entities to conduct meetings with unit members regarding bargaining negotiations, the administration of collective bargaining

76 agreements, the investigation of grievances, other workplace-related complaints and issues and 77 internal union matters involving the governance or business of the union; provided, that the use 78 does not interfere with governmental operations. Meetings conducted in government buildings 79 pursuant to this section shall not be for a purpose prohibited by section 13 and section 14 of 80 chapter 55. An exclusive representative conducting a meeting in a government building or other 81 government facility pursuant to this section may be charged for maintenance, security and other 82 costs related to the use of the government building or facility that would not otherwise be 83 incurred by the government entity. 84 (f) Nothing in in this section shall be construed to diminish the obligations of an 85 employer to comply with a collective bargaining agreement that provides greater access and 86 orientation rights than the rights established by this law.

87 (g) A public employer's failure to comply with subsections (a) to (e), inclusive, shall 88 constitute a violation of section 10(a)(5).

(h) For the purposes of this section, "exclusive representative" means an employee organization which has been designated as the exclusive representative of employees in a collective bargaining unit as defined in section 3 of chapter 150E.
