HOUSE . . . . . No. 2264

By Ms. Decker of Cambridge, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 2264) of Marjorie C. Decker and others for legislation to further regulate access to emergency contraception. Public Health.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act to improve access to emergency contraception.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 19A of chapter 94C of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2018
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended in subsection (a), after the word “intercourse”, by inserting 3 the following words:--“, whether provided over-the-counter or by prescription”.

4 SECTION 2. Said Section 19A of said chapter 94C is further amended by striking out 5 subsections (b) and (c) inserting in place thereof the following 2 subsections:-

6 (b) The department shall ensure that a statewide standing order is issued to authorize the 7 dispensing of emergency contraception in the commonwealth by any licensed pharmacist. The 8 statewide standing order shall include, but not be limited to, written, standardized procedures or 9 protocols for the dispensing of emergency contraception by a licensed pharmacist.

10 Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the commissioner, or a physician
11 who is designated by the commissioner and is registered to distribute or dispense a controlled 12 substance in the course of professional practice under section 7, shall issue a statewide standing

13 order that may be used for a licensed pharmacist to dispense emergency contraception under this 14 section. Except for an act of gross negligence or willful misconduct, the commissioner or a 15 physician who issues said statewide standing order shall not be subject to any criminal or civil 16 liability or any professional disciplinary action related to said order.

17 (c) Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, a licensed pharmacist may 18 dispense emergency contraception in accordance with the statewide standing order issued under 19 subsection (b). Except for an act of gross negligence or willful misconduct, a pharmacist who, 20 acting in good faith, dispenses emergency contraception in accordance with said order shall not 21 be subject to any criminal or civil liability or any professional disciplinary action by the board of 22 registration in pharmacy related to the use or administration of emergency contraception.

23 SECTION 3. Subsection (d) of said section 19A of said chapter 94C, as so appearing in 24 the 2018 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out the first sentence and inserting in 25 place thereof the following sentence:-

26 A pharmacist who dispenses emergency contraception shall annually report to the 27 department the number of emergency contraception doses dispensed, and the department shall 28 publish an annual report that includes aggregate information about the dispensing of emergency 29 contraception in the commonwealth.

30 SECTION 4. Section 21A of Chapter 272 of the General Laws is hereby amended by 31 inserting after the words “provided further, that”, the following word:- prescription.

32 SECTION 5. Section 21A of Chapter 272 of the General laws is hereby further amended 33 by striking out the fourth sentence and inserting in place thereof the following sentence:- This

34 section shall not be construed to permit the sale or dispensing of prescription drugs or devices for 35 the prevention of pregnancy or conception by a vending machine or similar device.
