The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act creating a commission to consider the Commonwealth's involvement in licensure compacts.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, there shall be a 2 special commission established to examine the advisability of the commonwealth joining the 3 Nurse Licensure Compact and or the Interstate Medical Licensure Compact. The commission’s 4 examination shall include, but not be limited to, the advantages and disadvantages of interstate 5 licensure compacts on access to health services; their impact, if any, on the healthcare workforce
6 and the advancement of telemedicine services; and the subsequent effects, if any, on current 7 administrative, licensing, and regulatory processes.

8           The commission shall consist of 8 members: the secretary of health and human services, 9 or a designee; the speaker of the house of representatives, or a designee; the senate president, or 10 a designee; the minority leader of the house of representatives, or a designee; the minority leader
11 of the senate, or a designee; the chair of the Massachusetts Board of Registration in Medicine, or

12 a designee; and two members to be appointed by the governor, one of whom must be a health 13 policy expert, and one of whom must be an expert on health insurance.

14 The commission shall submit its report and findings, along with any draft of legislation,
15 to the house and senate committees on ways and means, the joint committee on health care 16 financing, and the clerks of the house of representatives and the senate within 180 days of the 17 passage of this act.
