HOUSE No. 242

By Mr. LeBoeuf of Worcester, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 242) of David Henry Argosky LeBoeuf, Vanna Howard and Elizabeth A. Malia for legislation to establish a special commission to study the current refugee resettlement infrastructure and ensure the successful integration of refugees in Massachusetts. Children, Families and Persons with Disabilities.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act creating a special commission to study the current refugee resettlement infrastructure and ensure the successful integration of refugees in Massachusetts.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, there is hereby 2 established a special commission to study and make recommendations concerning the 3 infrastructure of refugee resettlement agencies in the Commonwealth, their breadth of services, 4 where services are lacking, and how the Commonwealth can best work in conjunction with the 5 federal government to rebuild and support an infrastructure of refugee resettlement agencies that 6 promotes sustainable long-term integration.

7 SECTION 2. The commission shall consist of no less than 18 members: the Executive 8 Director of the Office for Refugees and Immigrants or their designee, the Secretary of the 9 Executive Office of Health and Human Services or their designee, the Commissioner of the 10 Department of Transitional Assistance or their designee, the Undersecretary of the Department 11 of Housing and Community Development or their designee, the Commissioner of the 12 Department of Children and Families or their designee; 1 representative of the International 13 Institute of New England; 1 representative of Ascentria Care Alliance; 1 representative of Jewish 14 Family Service Metrowest; 2 additional representatives of refugee resettlement agencies within 15 the Commonwealth; 1 individual of the Massachusetts Immigrant and Refugee Advocacy 16 Coalition, 3 individuals with lived experience as refugees; 1 representative of an employer or 17 labor union that directly employs refugees; 1 representative of a job training program that works 18 directly with refugees; and 2 individuals with expertise in one or more of the following areas:

19 public and affordable housing, federal immigration law and regulation, emergency management, 20 the needs of forcibly displaced individuals.

21 SECTION 3. The commission shall, at a minimum, investigate, collect data and make 22 recommendations on the following topics:

23 The state of the existing reception and placement (R&P) structure in Massachusetts, 24 including but not limited to:

25 Current efforts to resettle refugees, including efforts to assist refugees in obtaining 26 adequate housing, healthcare, education, transfer of professional licensure and workforce 27 development training;

28 Any failures or gaps in resources that exist in the current system of services for refugees 29 and recently resettled individuals, and where funds should be allocated to strengthen current 30 systems or address gaps in services;

31 Any failures or gaps that exist due to the systematic dismantling of the federal refugee 32 program over the previous 5 years; and how the Commonwealth can support the rebuilding of a 33 strong refugee resettlement structure.

34 The state of the current integration system in place for refugees in the Commonwealth, 35 including but not limited to:

36 A study of the current integration pipeline, and the systems in place to assist refugees 37 from time of arrival through end of services;

38 Identification of gaps that exist in the current system, including a study of any potential 39 “cliff effect” that exists in the structure as it stands currently;

40 Public policy and funding structures that the Commonwealth should support to ensure the 41 successful long-term integration of refugees into our society and workforce.

42 SECTION 4. The commission may create committees and working groups to inform the 43 commission’s investigation of the topics referenced in SECTION 3. The commission, its 44 committees and its working groups may procure services, including consulting services, and 45 otherwise involve experts, stakeholders, and members of the public. The commission shall be 46 supported by staff from the Massachusetts Office for Refugees and Immigrants.

47 SECTION 5. Members of the commission shall be named and the commission shall 48 commence its work within 60 days of the effective date of this act. The commission shall report 49 to the general court and governor the results of its study, together with any draft legislation, 50 regulations or administrative procedure necessary to better serve refugees resettling in the 51 Commonwealth by filing the same with the clerks of the senate and the house of representatives 52 and the director of the office of refugees and immigrants not more than 1 year after the effective 53 date of this act.
