Telecommunications, Utilities and Energy.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act relative to consumer protection and private utility lines and poles.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 11E of chapter 12 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2018
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following subsection: –

3 (d) The department of public utilities shall, upon the request of a residential ratepayer,
4 initiate administrative or judicial previous proceedings to require the delivery of electricity by a 5 generation company or supplier through a supplier’s service line or distribution system to a 6 residential ratepayer who uses a private line, wire, pole, post, structure, attachment or other 7 appliance to receive electricity by the replacement of such private line, wire, pole, post, structure, 8 attachment or other appliance with the generation company or supplier’s primary and secondary 9 electric lines, poles and appliances to deliver power from the substation of the generation 10 company or supplier to the residential ratepayer.

11 SECTION 2. Section 1D of chapter 164 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2018
12 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the first paragraph the following 13 paragraph:-

14 All electric bills sent to a retail customer shall contain a notice that the retail customer 15 uses a private line, wire, pole, post, structure, attachment or other appliance to receive electricity.
16 Each and every failure to provide such notice shall be deemed to be a violation of law under this 17 chapter and upon notification to the department of a violation, the department shall give written 18 notice of a violation to the company or supplier and to the attorney general pursuant to section 19 78.

20 SECTION 3. Section 1F of said chapter 164, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 21 inserting, in line 158, after the word “charged” the following words:- ; provided that such rate to 22 be charged shall exclude the pro rata share of a maintenance fee for delivery of service by the 23 generation company or supplier’s service line and distribution system less the maintenance fee 24 for a residential customer who owns and maintains a private line, pole, post, wire fixture or other 25 appliance delivering power from the supplier’s service line and distribution system to the 26 residential customer; provided, further that such pro rata share shall be calculated by the 27 department in consultation with the office of ratepayer advocacy of the attorney general and such 28 residential customer.
