The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act regulating alternative healing therapies.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 98 of chapter 13 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2016
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out subsection (a) and inserting in place thereof 3 the following subsection:-

4 (a) There shall be within the division of professional licensure a board of registration of 5 massage therapy and alternative healing therapies. The board shall consist of 7 members who 6 shall be appointed by the governor for terms of 3 years, 3 of whom shall be licensed massage 7 therapists who have been actively engaged in the practice of massage therapy in the 8 commonwealth for not less than 5 years immediately before their appointments, 2 of whom shall 9 be a licensed alternative healing therapist represented within the advisory council established 10 pursuant to section 99 and who has been actively engaged in the practice of an alternative

11 healing therapy in the commonwealth for not less than 5 years immediately before their 12 appointments; 1 of whom shall be a law enforcement representative whose area of focus is 13 human trafficking and 1 of whom shall be a consumer who is familiar with the massage therapy 14 or alternative healing therapy fields. The members shall be residents of the commonwealth and 15 shall be subject to chapter 268A.

16 SECTION 2. Said chapter 13 is hereby further amended by striking out section 99, as so 17 appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

18 Section 99. (a) The board shall: (i) administer and enforce sections 227 to 235, inclusive, 19 of chapter 112; (ii) adopt rules and regulations governing the licensure of massage therapists, the 20 practice of massage therapy, and the approval and operation of massage schools and to promote 21 public health, welfare and safety; (iii) adopt rules and regulations, in consultation with the 22 advisory council set forth in this section, governing the licensure of alternative healing therapists, 23 the various and distinct practices of alternative healing therapies, and the approval and operation 24 of alternative therapy training and certification programs; (iv) establish standards of professional 25 and ethical conduct for massage therapy; (v) establish standards of professional and ethical 26 conduct for alternative healing therapies that reflecting national, state, or other recognized 27 professional organization or certification standards of each discipline; (vi) establish standards for 28 continuing education reflecting acceptable national, state, or other recognized professional 29 organization or certification standards of each discipline; and (vi) investigate complaints, 30 conduct inspections, review billing and treatment records and set and administer penalties as 31 defined in sections 61 to 65E, inclusive, and sections 232 to 235, inclusive, of said chapter 112 32 for fraudulent, deceptive or professionally incompetent and unsafe practices and for violations of 33 rules and regulations promulgated by the board.

34 (b) The board shall make available to the public a list of licensed massage therapists and 35 alternative healing therapists, as well as a list of each licensed facility under its jurisdiction.

36 (c) The board shall adopt rules and regulations to define and differentiate among varying 37 scopes of practice within alternative healing therapies, as defined by section 227 of chapter 112, 38 unless otherwise defined by section 227 of chapter 112; provided, that the board shall adopt 39 appropriate licensure restrictions to ensure that an alternative healing therapist operates within 40 the authorized scope of practice for which the alternative healing therapist has demonstrated 41 satisfactory competency to the board; provided further, that the board shall consult with the 42 advisory council set forth in this section to ensure appropriate standards and scopes of practice 43 for alternative healing therapies identified by said council..

44 (d) To inform the standards set forth above, there shall be a Massachusetts alternative 45 healing therapies advisory council to study and make recommendations to the board on the 46 regulation of alternative healing therapies. The council shall consist of licensed alternative 47 healing therapists, as defined in section 227 of chapter 112, who have been actively engaged in 48 the practice of their respective disciplines for not less than 3 years immediately before their 49 memberships. The commissioner shall appoint one licensed practitioner of each discipline that 50 expresses an interest to the commissioner in participating on the council which may include but 51 not be limited to Asian bodywork therapy, reflexology, structural integration, the Feldenkrais 52 Method; the Trager Approach; Ayurvedic Therapies; Polarity or Polarity Therapy; Qi Gong; 53 Body/Mind Centering; and Reiki, levels II and above.

54 The commissioner shall, from time to time, designate one of the members as chair of the 55 council. The chair shall serve for no more than 1 year and the position shall rotate among 56 practitioners of each discipline.

57 Members shall serve on the council for terms of 3 years. Members whose appointments 58 have expired may continue to serve until a replacement is appointed. Members of the council 59 shall not be state employees under chapter 268A by virtue of their service on the council and 60 shall serve without compensation.

61 (e) The council shall: (i) inform the board on the scope of practice of each discipline and 62 current standards adopted by each discipline’s respective national, state or otherwise recognized 63 professional organization or certification process; (ii) advise on the preparation of regulations 64 under this chapter; (iii) consider all matters submitted to it by the board; (iv) on its own initiative, 65 recommend to the board guidelines, rules and regulations and any changes to guidelines, rules 66 and regulations that the council considers important or necessary for the board’s review and 67 consideration; and (v) advise and make recommendations to the board regarding new and 68 emerging alternative healing therapies that may fall under the scope of the boards’ authority.

69 SECTION 3. Section 227 of chapter 112 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 70 amended by inserting after the word “therapy”, in line 4, the following words:- and alternative 71 healing therapies.

72 SECTION 4. Said section 227 of said chapter 112, as so appearing, is hereby further 73 amended by inserting before the definition of “Board”, the following 2 definitions:-

74 “Alternative healing therapist”, a person licensed by the board who instructs or 75 administers an alternative healing therapy or therapies for compensation.

76 “Alternative healing therapy” or “alternative healing therapies”, a series of separate and 77 distinct complementary health practices that include Asian bodywork therapy, bodywork, 78 reflexology, structural integration or Rolfing, and energy and somatic healing practices as 79 identified by the advisory council established pursuant to section 99 of chapter 13; 80 provided further, that alternative healing therapy shall not include diagnoses, the prescribing of 81 drugs or medicines, spinal or other joint manipulations or any services or procedures for which a 82 license to practice medicine, acupuncture, chiropractic, massage therapy, naturopathy, 83 occupational therapy, physical therapy or podiatry is required by law.

84 “Asian bodywork therapy”, “bodywork” or “bodywork therapy”, the practice of a person 85 who treats the human body/mind/spirit, including the electromagnetic or energetic field, which 86 surrounds, infuses and brings that body to life, by pressure and/or manipulation. Asian 87 Bodywork Therapy is based upon traditional Chinese medicine principles for assessing and 88 evaluating the body’s system of energy (Qi or Ki). Asian Bodywork Therapy uses traditional 89 Asian techniques and treatment strategies primarily to affect and balance the energetic system for 90 the promotion, maintenance and restoration of health. Asian Bodywork Therapy is one of the 91 three professional branches of Chinese Medicine nationally recognized by the National 92 Certification Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine (NCCAOM). ABT Qi 93 assessment and treatment may include, but is not limited to: touching, stretching, pressing or 94 holding meridians (channels of Qi) and/or acu-points, primarily with the hands. Appropriately 95 trained practitioners may also use external application of medicinal plants, heat or cold; dietary 96 and exercise suggestions; cupping; gua sha; moxibustion and other Asian-based techniques or 97 practices;

98 provided further, that “Asian bodywork therapy”, “bodywork”, or “bodywork therapy” 99 shall not include diagnoses, the prescribing of drugs or medicines, spinal or other joint 100 manipulations or any services or procedures for which a license to practice medicine, 101 acupuncture, chiropractic, massage therapy, naturopathy, occupational therapy, physical therapy 102 or podiatry is required by law.

103 “Energy and somatic healing practices”, a series of separate and distinct alternative 104 healing practices identified by the advisory council established pursuant to section 99 of chapter 105 13 and defined by the board under said section that may include but not be limited to the 106 Feldenkrais Method; the Trager Approach; Ayurvedic Therapies; Polarity or Polarity Therapy; 107 Qi Gong; Body/Mind Centering; and Reiki, levels II and above.

108 SECTION 5. Said section 227 of said chapter 112, as so appearing, is hereby further 109 amended by striking out the definitions of “Licensed massage school” and “Licensed massage 110 therapy salon” and inserting in place thereof the following 2 definitions:-

111 “Licensed massage school” or “licensed alternative healing therapy program”, a facility 112 or program that is licensed by the office of private occupational school education pursuant to 113 section 263 or any other state or federal agency or department after meeting minimum standards 114 for training, facilities, instructors and curriculum as determined by the board in accordance with 115 sections 228 to 235, inclusive.

116 “Licensed massage therapy facility” or “licensed alternative healing therapy facility”, a 117 place, office, clinic or establishment licensed by the board to offer massage or alternative healing 118 therapy services.

119 SECTION 6. Said section 227 of said chapter 112, as so appearing, is hereby further 120 amended by inserting after the definition of “Massage therapist”, the following 2 definitions:-

121 “Reflexology”, the use of alternating pressure applied to the reflexes within the reflex 122 maps of the body located on the feet, hands, and outer ears; provided, that “reflexology” shall not 123 include diagnoses, the prescribing of drugs or medicines, spinal or other joint manipulations or 124 any services or procedures for which a license to practice medicine, acupuncture, 125 chiropractic, naturopathy, occupational therapy, physical therapy, massage therapy or podiatry is 126 required by law.

127 “Structural integration” or “Rolfing”, the restoration of postural balance and functional 128 ease by systematically aligning and integrating the human body in gravity; provided, that 129 structural integration may use manipulation of the connective tissue matrix, enhancement of 130 awareness, and education techniques; provided further, that “structural integration” shall not 131 include diagnoses, the prescribing of drugs or medicines, spinal or other joint manipulations or 132 any services or procedures for which a license to practice medicine, acupuncture, chiropractic, 133 naturopathy, occupational therapy, physical therapy, massage therapy or podiatry is required by 134 law.

135 SECTION 7. Said chapter 112, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by inserting 136 after section 227 the following new section:-

137 Section 227A. A city or town may adopt ordinances or by-laws relative to health and 138 safety of the practice of alternative healing therapies not inconsistent with sections 227 to 235, 139 inclusive; provided, however, that local ordinances pertaining to alternative healing therapies in 140 effect prior to the effective date of this Act and that are consistent with and that may exceed the 141 requirements of said sections 227 to 235, inclusive, may remain in effect.

142 SECTION 8. Said chapter 112 is hereby further amended by striking out section 228, as 143 so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

144 Section 228. (a) A person shall not hold the person's self out to others as a massage 145 therapist or alternative healing therapist or practice massage, massage therapy, or any alternative 146 healing therapy unless the person holds a valid license issued in accordance with this chapter. A 147 person licensed to practice massage or massage therapy or an alternative healing therapy shall 148 not perform: (i) diagnosis of illness or disease; (ii) high velocity, low-amplitude thrust 149 applied to a joint; (iii) electrical stimulation; (iv) application of ultrasound; (v) exercise and 150 prescription of medicines.

151 (b) The following practitioners shall be exempt from the licensure requirements of this 152 section:

153 (i) a person who: (A) is otherwise licensed, certified or registered under the General 154 Laws; (B) is performing services within the person's authorized scope of practice; and (C) does 155 not hold the person's self out to be a massage therapist, or alternative healing therapist;

156 (ii) a person who is duly licensed, registered or certified in another state, territory, the 157 District of Columbia or a foreign country when temporarily called into the commonwealth to 158 teach a course related to massage therapy or an alternative healing therapy or to consult with a 159 person licensed as a massage therapist or alternative healing therapist or under this chapter;

160 (iii) a student of massage therapy or an alternative healing therapy who is enrolled in a 161 licensed massage school or alternative healing therapy program for massage or an alternative 162 healing therapy and is performing work as a required component of his course of study at such 163 school or program; provided, however, that the student shall not hold the student's self out as a 164 licensed therapist under this chapter and shall not receive compensation for the work;

165 (iv) a person giving massage or alternative healing therapy to a member of that person's 166 immediate family for which the person received no compensation;

167 (v) a person, duly licensed, registered or certified in another state, territory, the District of 168 Columbia or a foreign country who is incidentally in the commonwealth to provide service as 169 part of an emergency response team working in conjunction with disaster relief officials; and

170 (vi) a person giving massage or alternative healing therapy in a sporting, health or other 171 event, whether on a single day or on consecutive days, that is non-compensatory and under the 172 supervision of a licensed therapist.

173 SECTION 9. Said chapter 112 is hereby further amended by striking out section 229, as
174 most recently amended by section 74 of chapter 6 of the acts of 2017, and inserting in place 175 thereof the following section:-

176 Section 229. (a) A person who desires to engage in the practice of massage therapy shall 177 apply on a form furnished by the board that shall be signed and sworn to by the applicant. Each 178 application shall be accompanied by payment of the fee prescribed by the executive office for 179 administration and finance pursuant to section 3B of chapter 7. Upon submission of a completed 180 application to the board and the payment of the required fee, the board may issue a license to 181 practice as a massage therapist to an applicant who: (i) has obtained a high school diploma or its

182 equivalent; (ii) is 18 years of age or older; (iii) has submitted 2 professional letters of reference, 183 with at least 1 being from an employer or professional in the massage therapy or medical field; 184 (iv) is of good moral character, as determined by the discretion of the board; (v) has successfully 185 completed a course of study consisting of not less than 500 classroom hours or an equivalent 186 number of credit hours of supervised instruction at a licensed massage school; (vi) has not been 187 convicted in any jurisdiction of sexually-related crime or a crime involving moral turpitude for 188 the 10 years immediately before the date of application; (vii) provides proof of professional 189 liability coverage; and (viii) demonstrates the professional competence that may be required by 190 the board's regulations.

191 (b) A person who desires to engage in the practice of one or more alternative healing 192 therapies shall apply on a form

193 applicant. Each application shall be accompanied by payment of the fee prescribed by the 194 executive office for administration and finance pursuant to section 3B of chapter 7. Upon 195 submission of a completed application to the board and the payment of the required fee, the 196 board may issue a license to practice as an alternative healing therapist to an applicant who: (i) 197 has obtained a high school diploma or its equivalent; (ii) is 18 years of age or older; (iii) has 198 submitted 2 professional letters of reference, with at least 1 being from an employer or 199 professional in the alternative healing therapy or medical field; (iv) is of good moral character, as 200 determined by the discretion of the board; (v) has successfully completed a course of study, 201 supervised instruction, or certification process reflecting a national, state, or other recognized 202 professional organization standard at a licensed alternative health therapy program that has been 203 determined appropriate by the board; (vi) has not been convicted in any jurisdiction of sexually-204 related crime or a crime involving moral turpitude for the 10 years immediately before the date

205 of application; (vii) provides proof of professional liability coverage; and (viii) demonstrates the 206 professional competence that may be required by the board's regulations. The board shall require 207 no more than one application for any applicant seeking to practice multiple disciplines under its 208 jurisdiction; provided, that said applicant can demonstrate competency in each discipline as 209 determined by the board; provided further, that the board shall collect one fee per application.

210 (c) The commissioner of the division of professional licensure shall determine the 211 renewal cycle and renewal period for massage therapy and alternative health therapy licenses.
212 Each person licensed in accordance with these sections shall apply to the board for renewal of 213 the person's license not later than the expiration date, as determined by the director, unless the 214 license was revoked, suspended or canceled earlier by the board as a result of a disciplinary 215 proceeding instituted pursuant to this chapter. Applications for renewal shall be made on forms 216 approved by the board and accompanied by payment of a renewal fee, as prescribed by the 217 executive office for administration and finance pursuant to section 3B of chapter 7; 218 provided, however, that the fee shall not be less than $100.

219 (d) As a condition of license renewal, a licensed massage therapist or licensed alternative 220 health therapist shall furnish the board with satisfactory proof that the licensee: (i) has not been 221 convicted in any jurisdiction of a sexually-related crime or a crime involving moral turpitude 222 since the original application for licensure; (ii) has professional liability coverage; and (iii) has 223 completed the continuing education requirements that reflect acceptable national, state, or other 224 recognized professional organization or certification standards of each pertinent discipline and 225 have been reviewed and approved by the board.

226 Upon satisfactory compliance with the licensing requirements for massage therapists or 227 alternative health therapists and successful completion of the continuing education requirements, 228 the board shall issue a renewal license showing that the holder is entitled to be licensed for the 229 renewal period. The board may provide for the late renewal of a license that has lapsed and may 230 require payment of a late fee. All licensing and application fees and administrative fines 231 collected pursuant to sections 227 to 235, inclusive, shall be deposited into the Division of 232 Professional Licensure Trust Fund established in section 35V of chapter 10.

233 SECTION 10. Section 230 of said chapter 112, as appearing in the 2016 Official Edition, 234 is hereby amended by inserting after the word “therapists”, in line 2, the following words:- , or 235 alternative healing therapists.

236 SECTION 11. Said chapter 112 is hereby further amended by striking out section 231, as 237 so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

238 Section 231. The board may grant a license to an applicant for an alternative healing 239 therapist license who: (i) (A) provides documentation, acceptable to the board, that demonstrates 240 that the applicant has provided an appropriate number of hours of an alternative healing therapy, 241 as determined by the board, to members of the public for compensation; (B) has been authorized 242 to practice an alternative healing therapy by the municipal board of health within the 243 commonwealth; provided, however, that the authorization shall be valid not more than 2 years 244 after the date of application; or (C) provides proof of the successful passage or compliance with a 245 training or certification process reflecting a national, state, or other recognized professional 246 organization standard acceptable to the board; (ii) submits a completed application and pays the 247 necessary fee prescribed by the executive office for administration and finance pursuant to

248 section 3B of chapter 7; (iii) is of good moral character, as determined by the discretion of the 249 board; and (iv) provides proof of professional liability coverage.

250 SECTION 12. Said chapter 112 is hereby further amended by striking out section 232, as 251 so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

252 Section 232. (a) The board shall conduct inspections and investigate all complaints filed 253 that relate to the proper practice of massage therapy or alternative healing therapy, the operation 254 of a massage therapy or alternative healing therapy facility and any violation of sections 227 to 255 235, inclusive, or a rule or regulation of the board. Such a complaint may be brought by any 256 person or the board may, on its own, initiate a complaint.

257 (b) The board shall be under the supervision of the division of professional licensure and 258 shall have all the authority conferred under sections 61 to 65E, inclusive. For the purposes of this 259 section and sections 61 to 65E, inclusive, conduct that places into question the holder's 260 competence to practice massage therapy or an alternative healing therapy or operate a massage or

261 alternative healing therapy facility shall include, but not be limited to: (i) committing 262 fraud or misrepresentation in obtaining a license; (ii) criminal conduct that the board determines 263 to be of such a nature as to render the person unfit to practice as a licensed massage therapist or 264 alternative healing therapist or to operate a licensed massage therapy or alternative healing 265 therapy facility, as evidenced by criminal proceedings that resulted in a conviction, guilty plea or 266 plea of nolo contendere or an admission of sufficient facts; (iii) violating any rule or regulation 267 of the board; (iv) failing to cooperate with the board or its agents in the conduct of an inspection 268 or investigation; (v) failing to fulfill any continuing education requirements set out by the board; 269 (vi) violating an ethical standard that the board determines to be of such a nature as to render the 270 person unfit to practice as a massage therapist or alternative healing therapist or to operate a 271 licensed massage therapy or alternative healing therapy facility, including, but not limited to: (A)

272 inappropriate conduct or touching in the practice of massage therapy or bodywork therapy; (B) 273 offering medical opinion or diagnosis; or (C) negligence in the course of professional practice.

274 The board may issue an order to a licensee directing the licensee to cease and desist from 275 unethical or unprofessional conduct if the board finds, after the opportunity for a hearing, that the 276 licensee has engaged in such conduct.

277 (c) A massage therapist or alternative healing therapist whose license to practice is 278 suspended for more than 1 year for professional misconduct with regard to insurance claims shall 279 not own, operate, practice in or be employed by another massage therapist, alternative healing 280 therapist or a physical therapist or chiropractor, in any capacity, until the license is reinstated by 281 the board. A massage therapist or alternative healing therapist whose license is suspended for a 282 second offense with regard to insurance claims shall have the license permanently revoked and 283 may not own, operate, practice in or be employed by a business that provides massage therapy, 284 alternative healing therapy, physical therapy or chiropractic care.

285 (d) Nothing in this section shall limit the board's authority to impose sanctions by consent 286 agreements that are considered reasonable and appropriate by the board. A person aggrieved by a 287 disciplinary action taken by the board pursuant to this section or section 235 may, pursuant to 288 section 64, file a petition for judicial review.

289 SECTION 13. Said chapter 112 is hereby further amended by striking out section 233, as 290 most recently amended by section 75 of chapter 6 of the acts of 2017, and inserting in place
291 thereof the following section:-

292 Section 233. The board shall establish standards to be met by the massage therapy 293 schools as well as alternative healing therapy programs. The board shall approve massage 294 therapy school and alternative healing therapy program curriculum, training, facilities and 295 instructors. A school or program shall not teach massage therapy or alternative healing therapies 296 without prior approval by the board unless licensed by the division of professional licensure 297 pursuant section 263 or other state or federal agency or department.

298 SECTION 14. Section 234 of said chapter 112, as appearing in the 2016 Official Edition, 299 is hereby amended by inserting after the words “massage therapy”, in line 2, the following 300 words:- and alternative healing therapies.

301 SECTION 15. Section 235 of said chapter 112, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 302 inserting after the word “means”, in line 25, the following words:- or through online advertising 303 means or forums.

304 SECTION 16. Said section 235 of said chapter 112, as so appearing, is hereby further 305 amended by striking out subsection (b) and inserting in place thereof the following 2 306 subsections:-

307 (b) Only a person duly licensed under this chapter shall be designated as an “alternative 308 healing therapist” and entitled to use the terms “alternative healing therapist”, “alternative 309 healing therapy”, or any term reflecting one of the separate and distinct complementary health 310 practices defined as alternative healing therapy under section 227” when advertising or printing 311 promotional material. A person who uses such a term in the person’s professional title without 312 being authorized to do so shall be subject to discipline by the board. A person who: (i) 313 knowingly aids and abets another to use such a term when the person is not authorized to do so;

314 or (ii) knowingly employs a person not authorized to use such a term in the course of the 315 employment, shall be subject to a disciplinary proceeding before the board. Nothing in this 316 section shall prohibit a licensed alternative healing therapist from using terms reflecting a 317 specific discipline for which they are authorized by the board to practice when advertising or 318 printing promotional material; provided further, that such terms shall include, but not be limited 319 to, Feldenkrais, reflexology, Asian Bodywork Therapy, Acupressure, Amma, Tuina, and Shiatsu, 320 Trager, Ayurvedic therapy, Rolf structural integration, polarity, acupressure, and reiki.

321 It shall be a violation of this chapter for a person to advertise: (i) as an alternative healing 322 therapy facility, as defined by section 227, unless the person has an employee who holds a valid 323 license under this chapter; (ii) by combining advertising for a licensed alternative healing therapy 324 service with escort or dating services; (iii) as performing alternative healing therapy in a form in 325 which the person has not received training or of a type that is not licensed or otherwise 326 recognized by law or administrative rule;

327 As used in this section, the term “advertise” shall include, but not be limited to: (i) the 328 issuance of a card, sign or device to another; (ii) the causing, permitting or allowing of a sign or 329 marking on or in a building, vehicle or structure; (iii) advertising in a newspaper or magazine, on 330 television or through electronic means or online advertising means or forums; (iv) a listing or 331 advertising in a directory under a classification or heading that includes the word 332 “alternative healing therapy”, “bodyworker”, “bodywork therapy”, or “alternative healing 333 therapist”; or (v) a commercial broadcast by airwave transmission.

334 (c) A person who: (i) is otherwise licensed, certified or registered under the law; (ii) is 335 performing services within the person’s authorized scope of practice; and (iii) does not hold the 336 person's self out to be a massage therapist or alternative healing therapist, shall be exempt from 337 this section.

338 SECTION 17. Section 51 of chapter 140 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 339 amended by inserting after the word "therapy", in lines 1 and 8, each time it appears, the 340 following words:- or any alternative health therapy.

341 SECTION 18. Subsection (a) of said section 51 of said chapter 140 is hereby amended by 342 striking out the last sentence and inserting in place thereof the following:-

343 Any premises used to offer massage therapy or any alternative health therapy under said 344 section 227 to 236, inclusive, of said chapter 112 shall be subject to inspection by local boards of 345 health, and their respective agents, in addition to the department of professional licensure and 346 board of registration of massage therapy and alternative healing therapies. Nothing in section 347 shall require a license from a municipal authority in addition to the license required pursuant to
