

HOUSE No. 5122

Section 132 contained in the engrossed Bill making appropriations for the fiscal year 2023 (see House, No. 5050), which had been returned by His Excellency the Governor with recommendation of amendment (for message, see Attachment Q of House, No. 5132). July 28, 2022.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act relative to reviving and continuing the special legislative commission established to study and examine the civil service law.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to revive and continue the special legislative commission established to study and examine the civil service law, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The special legislative commission established in section 107 of chapter
2 253 of the acts of 2020 to study and examine the civil service law, is hereby revived and
3 continued to May 31, 2024. Upon the start of a new legislative session, the appointed members
4 of the commission shall be reappointed by their appointing authorities. The commission shall
5 submit a report of its study and any recommendations, together with any draft legislation
6 necessary to carry those recommendations into effect, by filing the same with the governor, the
7 speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate and the clerks of the house
8 of representatives and the senate not later than May 31, 2024.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect on July 1, 2022.
