77 A. Mayor – Vacancies in the office of Mayor.

78 If a vacancy occurs in the office of mayor by death, removal or resignation during the 79 first to 36 months, inclusive, of the term ending on December 31 for which the mayor was 80 elected, the city clerk shall forthwith order an election to fill such vacancy for the remainder of 81 the unexpired term. Such election may be held at the time of the regular municipal election so 82 long as the vacancy does not occur more than six months prior to the regular municipal election.
83 The city council shall hold a meeting to elect, by majority vote, one of its members as acting
84 mayor until a candidate for mayor is elected and the election results are certified. If the city 85 council fails to elect a member at said meeting or within 30 days thereafter, the president of the 86 city council shall become acting mayor, shall exercise all the rights and powers of mayor and 87 shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of the mayor's duties. The candidate for mayor elected at 88 such election shall take office immediately upon the certification of the results of the election.
89 Unless a councillor serving as acting mayor under this section formally resigns, the councillor 90 shall, upon the election and qualification of a successor mayor, resume their service as a 91 councillor in the capacity to which they were elected and shall serve for the remainder of the 92 unexpired term.

93 If a vacancy occurs during the thirty-seventh month beginning January 1 through the end
94 of the term for which the mayor was elected, a meeting shall be held by the city council to elect, 95 by majority vote, one of its members as acting mayor for the remainder of the unexpired term. If 96 the city council fails to elect a member at said meeting or within 30 days thereafter, the president
97 of the city council shall become acting mayor, shall exercise all the rights and powers of mayor
98 and shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of the mayor's duties. Provided, however, that a

99 councillor serving as mayor under this section shall be considered an incumbent councillor for 100 election-related purposes.

101 B. Councillor – Vacancy arising in the office of City Councillor.

102 If a vacancy occurs at any time in the office of a councillor elected by and from the 103 qualified voters of the city, such vacancy shall be filled forthwith by a majority vote of all the 104 remaining members of the city council for the remainder of the unexpired term.

105 If a vacancy occurs, before the last six months of the term, in the office of a councillor 106 elected by and from the voters of a ward, the city council shall forthwith order an election to fill 107 such vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term.

108 A councillor selected to fill an unexpired term under the provisions of this section shall 109 not be considered an elected incumbent for election-related purposes.

110 When a councillor is serving as acting mayor under subsection A of this section, so as to 111 facilitate the continued orderly administration and operations of the city, the required quantum of 112 vote for council action shall be calculated based upon a ten-member body.

113 SECTION 14. This act shall take effect upon its passage.
