- 86 (d) one member who represents the community of persons with disabilities; and
- 87 (e) one member who represents tenants and renters.

88 Section 3. Census outreach programs

89 (a) The commission shall develop and implement census outreach programs to (a)
90 increase awareness of the census, focusing efforts in undercounted communities, (b) educate 91 residents of the commonwealth about the importance of an accurate census count, (c) alleviate 92 concerns about perceived repercussions for participating in the census count, and (d) engage 93 undercounted communities in the census counting process.

94 (b) The census outreach programs shall take into account barriers to proper counting
95 of all residents of the commonwealth.

96 (c) The census outreach programs shall include communications to residents of the 97 commonwealth through school-based programs, partnerships with non-profit and community-
98 based programs, and a multi-lingual, multi-media, multi-platform campaign.

99 (d) For purposes of implementing the census outreach programs, the commission:

100 (1) may create and appoint working groups as it deems appropriate; and

101 (2) shall solicit participation from relevant experts and practitioners as necessary to 102 achieve the goals set forth in subsection (a) of this section.

103 Section 4. Administrative support

104 The commission shall be coordinated through the office of the secretary of state which 105 shall provide administrative support to the commission and coordinate with state agencies and 106 constitutional officers, as well as units of local government, to identify effective methods of 107 outreach and to provide resources to ensure that outreach programs are successful and all
108 residents are counted.

109 Section 5. Commission service; staff

110 (a) Members of the commission shall serve four-year terms, provided that no term
111 shall terminate within the 24-month period prior to a census day or the 6-month period
112 subsequent to a census day.

113 (b) Members of the commission shall receive no compensation for their services but 114 may be reimbursed for expenses incurred in the course of their service on the commission.

115 (c) The commission may employ a director and assistant director upon a simple
116 majority vote of the full membership of the commission. The director and assistant director may 117 be compensated from moneys appropriated or available for that purpose.

118 Section 6. Vacancies

119 Vacancies the commission shall be filled in like manner as the original appointment.

120 Section 7. Commission meetings

121 (a) During the 24-month period prior to a census day, the commission shall meet at 122 least monthly, or more frequently at the call of the chair or by majority vote of the members.

(b) At all times other than the period set forth in subsection (a) of this section, the commission shall meet at least quarterly, or more frequently at the call of the chair or by majority vote of the members.

(c) To the extent practicable, the commission shall rotate meeting locations throughout every region of the commonwealth.

Section 8. Expenditures

The secretary of the commonwealth shall use all reasonable efforts to secure federal funding for implementation of the census outreach programs. At least forty percent of the funds spent implementing the census outreach programs must be spent on undercounted communities.

Section 9. Reports

(a) By June 1 in the odd-numbered year immediately preceding a census day, the commission shall file with the governor, the secretary of the commonwealth, the attorney general, and the general court joint committees on election laws and redistricting, an interim report containing: (1) its proposed census outreach programs to encourage full participation and avoid an undercount in the upcoming decennial census; and (2) any recommendations for regulatory or legislative action necessary to ensure an accurate count of all Massachusetts residents in the upcoming decennial census.

(b) The general court joint committees on election laws and redistricting may, separately or collectively, issue to the commission suggestions for improvements to the proposed census outreach programs contained in the interim report. The committees may, separately or collectively, hold public hearings in advance of preparing and issuing said suggestions. Any

144 suggestions must be issued to the commission by November 1 in the odd-numbered year
145 immediately preceding a census day.

146 (c) By December 10 in the odd-numbered year immediately preceding a census day,
147 the committee shall file with the governor, the secretary of the commonwealth, the attorney
148 general, and the general court joint committees on election laws and redistricting, a final report
149 containing the census outreach programs to be implemented throughout the commonwealth.

150 (d) By February 1 in the odd-numbered year immediately subsequent to a census day,
151 the committee shall file with the governor, the secretary of the commonwealth, the attorney
152 general, and the general court joint committees on election laws and redistricting, a post-
153 implementation report containing: (1) a detailed accounting of the census outreach programs
154 implemented for the immediately prior decennial census; (2) an assessment of the perceived 155 levels of success of the components of the census outreach programs; (3) recommendations for 156 improvements in the next census outreach programs, including in the commission's discretion 157 appropriate recommended legislative or regulatory action; and (4) other notable outcomes of the 158 commission's work.

159 (e) The commission may update its post-implementation report as appropriate, in its 160 discretion, until December 31 in the second odd-numbered year subsequent to a census day.
