The number of applications made for electronic surveillance warrants during 2020 totaled Thirty-Four (34). The names of the applicant on each of these applications were District Attorney Anthony D. The Massachusetts Superior Court issued Nineteen (19) wiretap warrants for separate target lines in 2020. The effective period for these warrants (which includes renewal warrants) during 2020 were:

- November 20, 2020 – December 9, 2020 (narcotics)

The number of designated offenses pertaining to these wiretap applications totaled One (1). These designated offenses are defined in G.L. c. 272, §99(B)(7) as the possession or sale of any narcotic or harmful drug and conspiracy thereof.

There were Fifteen (15) renewals for a warrant pertaining to the narcotics designated offenses in 2020.

The total number of interceptions made during the 2020 calendar year in connection with narcotics designated offenses totaled Fifty Five Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty (55,840).

All indictments resulting from wiretap investigations in 2020 are still pending at this time.

There were no criminal trials in 2020 utilizing wiretap interceptions or evidence derived therefrom.
