The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act to provide criminal justice reform protections to all prisoners in segregated confinement.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 1 of chapter 127 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2018
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the definition of “Victim” the following 6 3 definitions:-

4 “Segregated confinement”, a housing placement where a prisoner is separated from the 5 general population. The department shall only utilize the following types of segregated 6 confinement: (1) restrictive housing; (2) disciplinary restrictive housing; (3) secure adjustment 7 units; (4) secure treatment units; (5) mental health watch; (6) accountability program unit; and 8 (7) security watch.

9 “Secure adjustment unit”, a housing placement designed to provide access to cognitive 10 behavioral treatment, education, programs, structured recreation, leisure time activities and 11 mental health services for prisoners diverted from or released from restrictive housing.

12 “Health services unit”, a general population housing placement designed to deliver 13 healthcare services to prisoners.

14 “Mental health watch”, a housing placement intended to protect a prisoner from serious 15 self-harm.

16 “Security watch”, any 24-hour observation initiated through security threats or suspicion 17 of ingesting substances including drugs.

18 “General population”, any housing placement where a prisoner is not held in segregated 19 confinement. In no event shall any general population unit have conditions that are similar to or 20 more restrictive than segregated confinement. These conditions shall include a prisoner's access 21 to: out of cell time; the yard, gym and other recreational spaces; the law library; religious 22 services; canteen; personal property; visitation, including both the total available visitation time 23 and the opportunity for contact visits; telephones and video visits; opportunities to earn a wage 24 and opportunities to earn good time. All such access shall be maximized as much as possible.

25 SECTION 2. Said section 1 of said chapter 127, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 26 striking out, in lines 27 and 30, the words “restrictive housing” and inserting in place thereof the 27 following words:- segregated confinement

28 SECTION 3. Said section 1 of said chapter 127, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 29 striking out, in lines 31 and 32, the words “clause (iv) or (v) of”

30 SECTION 4. Said section 1 of said chapter 127, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 31 striking out the definition of “secure treatment unit” and inserting in place thereof the following 32 definition:-

33 “Secure treatment unit”, a housing placement of any security level that is designed to 34 provide an alternative to restrictive housing for prisoners diagnosed with serious mental illness 35 and which provides clinically appropriate mental health treatment, programming, out of cell 36 time, educational opportunities, programming and other services in accordance with clinical 37 standards adopted by the department of correction in consultation with the department of mental 38 health.

39 SECTION 5. Section 39 of said chapter 127, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 40 striking out, in line 10, the words “restrictive housing units” and inserting in place thereof the 41 following words:- segregated confinement units other than mental health watch

42 SECTION 6. Said section 39 of said chapter 127, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 43 inserting after the word “authorized” in line 14 the following words: commensurate with the 44 rights of general population prisoners

45 SECTION 7. Said section 39 of said chapter 127, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 46 striking numeral (v), in lines 19 and 20, and replacing it with the following words “(v) access to 47 a tablet and a radio or television, in accordance with the prisoner’s preference, if the confinement 48 exceeds 48 hours.”

49 SECTION 8. Said section 39 of said chapter 127, is hereby amended by striking numeral 50 (x) in subsection (b) and inserting the following two numerals in its place: (x) access to personal

51 property unless contraindicated by qualified clinical mental health providers; (xi) other rights and 52 privileges as may be established or recognized by the commissioner.

53 SECTION 9. Said section 39 of said chapter 127, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 54 inserting at the end of subsection (d) the following sentences: Mental health treatment provided 55 in segregated confinement shall be confidential and utilize best practices by professional 56 standards. Medication alone, without therapy, does not constitute sufficient treatment; provided, 57 however, that a prisoner may decline therapy without medication disruption if the prisoner does 58 not want to participate in therapy. A minimum of 50 minutes of therapy per week shall be 59 offered to every prisoner in segregated confinement by qualified clinical mental health providers.

60 SECTION 10. Said section 39 of said chapter 127, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 61 inserting after subsection (e) the following subsection:- (f) Prisoners in segregated confinement 62 shall be offered time out of cell indoors or outdoors, in accordance with the prisoner's preference, 63 at least once a day unless contraindicated by qualified clinical mental health providers.

64 SECTION 11. Subsection (b) of said section 39 of said chapter 127, as so appearing, is 65 hereby amended by inserting after the first sentence the following two sentences:- If canteen 66 privileges or disability accommodations are deemed inconsistent with the security of the unit, 67 such determination must be reviewed by the placement review examiners at each placement 68 review, at which time the placement review examiners must override the determination if there is 69 not substantial evidence to support it. The placement review examiners shall provide written 70 explanation of their determination and all evidence relied upon, and all such determinations are 71 final agency decisions.

72 SECTION 12. Said section 39 of said chapter 127, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 73 striking out, in lines 34 and 41, the words “restrictive housing” and inserting in place thereof the
74 following words:- segregated confinement

75 SECTION 13. Said section 39 of said chapter 127, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 76 striking out, in lines 36, 37, 38 and 39, the words “or restrictive housing is otherwise clinically 77 contraindicated based on clinical standards adopted by the department of correction and the 78 qualified mental health professional’s clinical judgment” and inserting in place thereof the 79 following words:- “. A prisoner with a serious mental illness or who is otherwise clinically 80 contraindicated for restrictive housing, disciplinary restrictive housing or secure adjustment 81 units, based on clinical standards adopted by the department of correction and the qualified 82 mental health professional’s clinical judgment, shall only be placed in secure treatment units, 83 mental health watch or general population units. Secure treatment units may be any level of 84 security deemed appropriate for the population. They shall meet minimum standards for mental 85 health treatment, programming and education, as established by the department’s director of 86 behavioral health in consultation with the department of mental health. They shall have 87 minimum out of cell time of no less than 5 hours daily. All secure treatment units must be co-88 directed by one correctional staff person and 1 clinical staff person, with equal authority in the 89 unit. All clinical treatment and supervision of prisoners placed in secure treatment units shall be 90 provided by qualified clinical mental health providers. The mental health providers will make 91 the determination regarding readiness for the prisoner to be moved to a less restrictive unit.”

137 by striking out, in lines 22 and 23, the words "the evidence relied on and the reasons for the 138 placement decision" and inserting in place thereof the following words:- "(1) any negative 139 effects of segregated confinement on the prisoner and the extent to which such effects may be 140 impacting the prisoner's behavior and perceived level of risk, (2) whether a reasonable 141 probability of safety for the prisoner and third parties could be achieved if the prisoner were 142 confined to general population or a less restrictive form of segregated confinement than the 143 prisoner has been assigned to, (3) the factual basis or bases for the placement decision, (4) a 144 written description of any statements made by the prisoner during the hearing and (5) attaching 145 all supporting records and all records submitted by the prisoner"

146 SECTION 28. Said section 39B of said chapter 127, as so appearing, is hereby amended 147 by striking out subsection (d).

148 SECTION 29. Said section 39B of said chapter 127, as so appearing, is hereby amended
149 by inserting after subsection (e) the following two subsections:- (f) There shall be a presumption 150 in favor of release to the general population at every placement review, and a prisoner may only 151 be retained in segregated confinement if there is clear and convincing evidence that the prisoner 152 poses an unacceptable risk in the general population as provided in subsection (a) of section 39, 153 documented in writing. If a prisoner is being held in segregated confinement awaiting a 154 disciplinary hearing or on any other awaiting action or investigation status, the prisoner shall be 155 reviewed every 3 days by clinical staff and they shall be returned to the general population once

156 clinical staff determine the prisoner no longer poses a threat of harm to themselves or others, in 157 no event greater than 15 days. Any time on any awaiting action status shall be credited towards 158 any subsequent disciplinary offense, and no disciplinary sanction shall be extended as the result 159 of such credit. (g) If a placement review causes a prisoner to be held in segregated confinement 160 for more than 90 days over a one-year period, the placement review shall constitute a final 161 agency decision. The prisoner may file a complaint challenging the prisoner's placement in 162 segregated confinement in the superior court for the county in which the inmate is incarcerated 163 or otherwise being held or in Suffolk county in accordance with section 14 of chapter 30A. The 164 superior court shall determine if there is substantial evidence to support the determination of the 165 placement review. If there is substantial evidence to support the determination of the placement 166 review then the court shall: (1) uphold the placement in segregated confinement or (2) make 167 other orders the court deems consistent with justice. If there is not substantial evidence to support 168 the determination of the placement review then the court shall: (1) order that the prisoner shall be 169 housed in the general population; (2) order that the prisoner shall be housed in a less restrictive 170 form of segregated confinement than the prisoner is currently confined to; (3) order that the 171 prisoner shall be housed in the type of segregated confinement that the department assigned the 172 prisoner to; or (4) make other orders the court deems consistent with justice. The availability of 173 review under this section shall not be construed to limit any judicial remedies otherwise 174 available.
