The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act relative to sick leave buyback.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 31A of said chapter 29, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 2 adding the following 2 subsections:-

3 (e) No employee of the commonwealth shall accrue more than 1,000 hours of unused sick 4 leave credits.

5 (f) No employee of a public institution of higher education listed in section 5 of chapter 6 15A shall accrue more than 1,000 hours of unused sick leave credits.

7 SECTION 2. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, section 26 shall 8 take effect for any employee of the commonwealth and any employee at public institutions of 9 higher education listed in section 5 of chapter 15A of the General Laws who has accrued not 10 more than 1,000 hours of unused sick leave credits, on the effective date of this act. Any such

11 employee who has accrued more than 1,000 hours of unused sick leave credits as of the effective 12 date of this act shall not accrue credits in excess of those credits, but may accrue credits to 13 replenish any sick time that is used after the effective date of this act, up to the maximum of 14 1,000 hours set forth above.

15 SECTION 3. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the personnel 16 administrator shall promulgate revised rules under the second paragraph of section 28 of chapter 17 7 of the General Laws to incorporate the changes enacted in subsection (e) of section 31A of 18 chapter 29 of the General Laws and section 61 of this act, which revisions shall take effect as 19 soon as practicable after the effective date of this act.

20 SECTION 4. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the department 21 of higher education and the University of Massachusetts shall revise the necessary rules and 22 policies in order to incorporate the changes enacted in subsection (f) of section 31A of chapter 29
23 of the General Laws and section 61 of this act, which revisions shall take effect as soon as 24 practicable after the effective date of this act.

25 SECTION 5. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, no employee of 26 the commonwealth shall receive any payout of sick leave or pension until any investigation by 27 the commonwealth or its subdivision has been completed.
