“Meat”, the part of the muscle of any cattle, sheep, swine, or goats, which is skeletal or which is found in the tongue, in the diaphragm, in the heart, or in the esophagus, with or without the accompanying and overlying fat, and the portions of bone, skin, sinew, nerve, and blood vessels which normally accompany the muscle tissue and which are not separated from it in the process of dressing; provided, however, that “meat” shall not include the muscle found in the lips, snout or ears.

“Multi-tiered aviary”, a cage-free housing system in which hens have unfettered access to multiple elevated platforms that provide hens with usable floor space both on top of and underneath the platforms.

“Partially-slatted system”, a cage-free housing system in which hens have unfettered access to elevated flat platforms under which manure drops through the flooring to a pit or litter removal belt below.

“Person”, any individual, firm, partnership, joint venture, limited liability corporation, estate, trust, receiver, syndicate, association or other legal entity.

“Pork meat”, meat of a pig of the porcine species intended for use as human food.

“Sale”, a commercial sale by a business that sells any item covered by section 3; provided, however, that “sale” shall not include any sale undertaken at an establishment at which inspection is provided under the Federal Meat Inspection Act or any sale undertaken at an official plant at which mandatory inspection is maintained under the federal Egg Products Inspection Act; provided further, that for purposes of this section, a “sale” shall be deemed to occur at the location where the buyer takes physical possession of an item covered by said section 3.

“Shell egg”, a whole egg of an egg-laying hen in its shell form and intended for use as human food.

“Single-level all litter floor system”, a cage-free housing system bedded with litter and in which hens have limited or no access to elevated flat platforms.

“Turning around freely”, turning in a complete circle without any impediment, including a tether, and without touching the side of an enclosure or another animal.

“Uncooked”, requiring cooking prior to human consumption.

“Usable floor space”, the total square footage of floor space provided to each egg-laying hen, as calculated by dividing the total square footage of floor space provided to the hens in an enclosure by the number of hens in that enclosure; provided, however, that “usable floor space” shall include both ground space and elevated level or nearly level flat platforms upon which hens can roost; provided further, that “usable floor space” shall not include perches or ramps.

“Veal meat”, meat of a calf raised for veal and intended for use as human food.

94 “Whole pork meat”, any uncooked cut of pork, including bacon, ham, chop, ribs, riblet,
95 loin, shank, leg, roast, brisket, steak, sirloin or cutlet, that is comprised entirely of pork meat,
96 except for seasoning, curing agents, coloring, flavoring, preservatives and similar meat additives;
97 provided, however, that “whole pork meat” shall not include combination food products,
98 including soups, sandwiches, pizzas, hot dogs or similar processed or prepared food products,
99 that are comprised of more than pork meat, seasoning, curing agents, coloring, flavoring,
100 preservatives and similar meat additives.

101 “Whole veal meat”, any uncooked cut of veal, including chop, ribs, riblet, loin, shank,
102 leg, roast, brisket, steak, sirloin or cutlet, that is comprised entirely of veal meat, except for
103 seasoning, curing agents, coloring, flavoring, preservatives and similar meat additives; provided,
104 however, that “whole veal meat” shall not include combination food products, including soups,
105 sandwiches, pizzas, hot dogs or similar processed or prepared food products, that are comprised 106 of more than veal meat, seasoning, curing agents, coloring, flavoring, preservatives and similar 107 meat additives.

108 SECTION 4. Said chapter 333 is hereby further amended by striking out section 7 and
109 inserting in place thereof the following section:-

110 Section 7. It shall be a defense to any action to enforce this act that a business owner or 111 operator relied in good faith upon a written certification or guarantee by the supplier that the 112 shell egg, egg products, whole pork meat or whole veal meat at issue was not derived from a
113 covered animal that was confined in a cruel manner or from the immediate offspring of a female
114 pig that was confined in a cruel manner.

115           SECTION 5. Said chapter 333 is hereby further amended by striking out section 10 and
116 inserting in place thereof the following section:-

117           Section 10. The department of agricultural resources shall, with the advice and consent of 118 the attorney general, promulgate rules and regulations for the implementation of this act
119 concerning the respective authority of the department and attorney general not more than 6
120 months after the effective date of this act or December 1, 2021, whichever is sooner. Any 121 authorized use of third-party validators in such rules or regulations to assist with compliance
122 under this act shall be jointly approved by the secretary of energy and environmental affairs and 123 the attorney general.

124           SECTION 6. Sections 2 to 5, inclusive, shall take effect on January 1, 2022.
