SENATE, June 9, 2022.

The committee on Public Health, to whom was referred the petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 1437) of Barry R. Finegold for legislation to establish a special commission to study the youth sports industry, reports the accompanying bill (Senate, No. 2892).

For the committee,
Joanne M. Comerford

SENATE No. 2892

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act establishing a special commission to study the youth sports industry.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 (a) Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, there shall be a special 2 commission established to study the growing youth sports industry in the Commonwealth of 3 Massachusetts.

4 (b) The commission shall consist of 9 members, as follows: one person appointed by the 5 Senate President; one person appointed by the House Speaker; one person appointed by the 6 Governor; one representative from the Massachusetts Interscholastic Athletic Association; one 7 representative from the National Collegiate Athletic Association; one representative from the 8 National Council of Youth Sports; and three industry representatives who operate youth sports 9 organizations or venues in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and who shall be selected by the 10 other 6 members of the commission. The Senate President’s and House Speaker’s appointees 11 shall serve as co-chairs of the commission.

12 (c) The commission shall investigate and make recommendations about: (i) best practices 13 of youth sports organizations; ii) the potential need for stronger oversight and accountability in 14 the youth sports industry; iii) the financial strains that youth sports organizations have faced 15 because of the COVID-19 pandemic; (iv) ways to ensure that children and families actually 16 benefit from private youth sports programs; and (v) the financial cost of participating in private 17 youth sports programs.

18 (d) Not later than 1 year after the effective date of this act, the commission shall file a 19 report of its findings and recommendations to the Governor and the Clerks of the House of 20 Representatives and Senate.
