(2021-2022)

An Act relative to archaic laws.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Chapter 3 of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the following 2 section:-

3           Section 76. (a) There shall be a permanent law revision commission to consist of: the 4 house and senate chairs of the joint committee on the judiciary, who shall serve as co-chairs; the 5 attorney general or a designee; the chief justice of the supreme judicial court or a designee; the 6 chief justice of the appeals court or a designee; 4 attorneys admitted to practice law in the 7 commonwealth, 1 of whom shall be appointed by the senate president, 1 of whom shall be 8 appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, 1 of whom shall be appointed by the 9 senate minority leader and 1 of whom shall be appointed by the house minority leader; 1 person 10 appointed by the Massachusetts District Attorneys Association; 1 person appointed by the 11 committee for public counsel services; and 6 persons appointed by the governor, 4 of whom shall 12 be faculty members of accredited law schools in the commonwealth and 2 of whom shall be 13 admitted to practice law in the commonwealth.

14 (b) The counsel to the senate and the counsel to the house of representatives shall jointly 15 provide personnel necessary to coordinate the activities of the commission and assist the 16 commission in drafting legislative proposals, as requested.

17 (c) The appointed members of the commission shall serve staggered 4-year terms.
18 Vacancies in the membership of the commission shall be filled by the original appointing 19 authority for the balance of the unexpired term.

20 (d) The commission shall: (i) examine the common law and statutes of the 21 commonwealth and judicial decisions for the purpose of identifying defects and anachronisms in 22 the law and recommending needed reforms; (ii) receive and consider proposed changes in the 23 law recommended by the American Law Institute, the National Conference of Commissioners on 24 Uniform State Laws, any bar association and any other learned body; (iii) receive and consider 25 suggestions as to defects and anachronisms in the law from judges, justices, public officials, 26 lawyers and the public; (iv) recommend changes in the law that the commission considers 27 necessary to modify or eliminate antiquated and inequitable rules of law and to bring the law into 28 harmony with modern conditions; (v) recommend the express repeal of statutes repealed by 29 implication or held unconstitutional by a state or federal court; (vi) evaluate and make 30 recommendations on the consolidation of session laws into the general laws; and (vii) make 31 recommendations to improve the openness and accessibility of state laws, including the use of 32 open-source software tools.

33 (e) The commission shall meet not less than 4 times annually. At the close of each regular 34 session of the general court, the commission shall submit a report of its findings and 35 recommendations, including drafts of any proposed legislation, to the clerks of the house of 36 representatives and senate and the joint committee on the judiciary. The commission may also
