The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act relative to assisting elders and people with disabilities in the Commonwealth.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 1 of chapter 117A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2016
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following paragraph:-Any person 3 experiencing homelessness, (i) who has no established place of abode, or who lives in a 4 temporary emergency shelter, and (ii) who is otherwise eligible under the provisions of this 5 chapter, shall receive the same payment rate as recipients who incur shelter costs including, but 6 not limited to rent or a mortgage. The department shall promulgate or revise any such rules and 7 regulations necessary to implement the provisions of this section.

8 SECTION 2. Chapter 117A of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 9 section 10 the following new sections:- Section 11. Effective July first of every year the 10 department shall increase the total budget of each eligible recipient, before taking into

11 consideration any available income and resources, by a percentage amount equal to the 12 percentage rise in the United States Consumer Price Index for January first of that year over the 13 level of said index for January first of the previous year plus such additional percentage amount 14 as is recommended annually by the department and appropriated by the general court. The 15 department shall promulgate such rules and regulations to implement the provisions of this 16 section.

17 Section 12. The combined countable assets of an assistance unit may not exceed $2,500 18 for assistance units consisting of one person and $5,000 for assistance units consisting of two or 19 more people. In determining countable assets, the department shall exclude the fair market value 20 of one vehicle.

21 Section 13. The department shall set the maximum benefit for the program in this chapter 22 at the same level as the program in chapter 118 of the General Laws. The department shall 23 promulgate such rules and regulations necessary to implement the provisions of this section.
