31 Section 3. LIMITATION ON SCOPE.

32 (a) This chapter does not provide a basis for:

33 (1) invalidating a plea, conviction, or sentence;

34 (2) a cause of action for money damages; or

35 (3) a claim for relief from or defense to the application of a collateral consequence 36 based on a failure to comply with sections 4, 5, or 6 of this chapter.

37 (b) This chapter does not affect:

38 (1) the duty an individual’s attorney owes to the individual;

39 (2) a claim or right of a victim of an offense; or

40 (3) a right or remedy under law other than this chapter available to an individual 41 convicted of an offense.

42 Section 4. IDENTIFICATION, COLLECTION, AND PUBLICATION OF LAWS
43 REGARDING COLLATERAL CONSEQUENCES.

44 (a) The Executive Office of the Trial Court:

45 (1) shall identify or cause to be identified any provision in this state’s

46 Constitution, statutes, and administrative rules which imposes a collateral sanction or authorizes

47 the imposition of a disqualification, and any provision of law that may afford relief from a 48 collateral consequence;

49 (2) shall prepare or compile a collection of citations to, and the text or short
50 descriptions of, the provisions identified under paragraph (1) not later than (insert date);

51 (3) shall update the collection provided under paragraph (2) of this section

55 Institute of Justice described in section 510 of the Court Security Improvement Act of 2007, Pub.
56 L. 110-177.

57 (b) The Executive Office of the Trial Court shall include or cause to be included the 60 (1) This collection has not been enacted into law and does not have the force of 61 law.

62 (2) An error or omission in this collection or in any reference work cited in this 63 collection is not a reason for invalidating a plea, conviction, or sentence or for not imposing a 64 collateral sanction or authorizing a disqualification.

65 (3) The laws of other jurisdictions and municipalities which impose additional 66 collateral sanctions and authorize additional disqualifications are not included in this collection.

67 (4) This collection does not include any law or other provision regarding the 68 imposition of or relief from a collateral sanction or a disqualification enacted or adopted after 69 [insert date the collection was prepared or last updated].

70 (c) The Executive Office of the Trial Court shall publish or cause to be published the 71 collection prepared and updated as required by subsection (a). If available, it shall publish or 76 consequence.

77 (d) The collection described in subsection (c) must be available to the public on the 78 Internet without charge not later than 30 days after it is created or updated.

79 Section 5. NOTICE OF COLLATERAL CONSEQUENCES IN PRETRIAL
80 PROCEEDING AND AT GUILTY PLEA.

81 (a) When an individual receives formal notice that the individual is charged with an 82 offense, Executive Office of the Trial Court shall cause information substantially similar to the 83 following to be communicated to the individual:

84 NOTICE OF ADDITIONAL LEGAL CONSEQUENCES

85 If you plead guilty or are convicted of an offense you may suffer additional legal 86 consequences beyond jail or prison, probation, periods of parole, and fines. These consequences 87 may include:

- 88 (i) being unable to get or keep some licenses, permits, or jobs;
- 89 (ii) being unable to get or keep benefits such as public housing or education;
- 90 (iii) receiving a harsher sentence if you are convicted of another offense in the future;
- 91 (iv) having the government take your property; and
- 92 (v) being unable to vote or possess a firearm.

93 If you are not a United States citizen, a guilty plea or conviction may also result in your 94 deportation, removal, exclusion from admission to the United States, or denial of citizenship.

95 The law may provide ways to obtain some relief from these consequences.

96 Further information about the consequences of conviction is available on the Internet at 97 [insert Internet address of the collection of laws published under section 4(c) and (d)].

98 (b) Before the court accepts a plea of guilty or nolo contendere from an individual, the 99 court shall confirm that the individual received and understands the notice required by subsection 100 (a) and had an opportunity to discuss the notice with counsel.

101 Section 6. NOTICE OF COLLATERAL CONSEQUENCES AT SENTENCING AND 102 UPON RELEASE.

103 (a) An individual convicted of an offense shall be given notice as provided in subsections

104 (b) and (c):

105 (1) that collateral consequences may apply because of the conviction;

106 (2) of the Internet address of the collection of laws published under section 4(c) of 107 this chapter;

108 (3) that there may be ways to obtain relief from collateral consequences;

109 (4) of contact information for government or nonprofit agencies, groups, or 110 organizations, if any, offering assistance to individuals seeking relief from collateral 111 consequences; and

112 (5) of when an individual convicted of an offense may vote under this state's law.

113 (b) The Executive Office of the Trial Court shall provide the notice in subsection (a) as a 114 part of sentencing.

115 (c) If an individual is sentenced to imprisonment or other incarceration, the officer or 116 agency releasing the individual shall provide the notice in subsection (a) not more than 30, and,
117 if practicable, at least 10, days before release.

118 Section 7. AUTHORIZATION REQUIRED FOR COLLATERAL SANCTION;
119 AMBIGUITY.

120 (a) A collateral sanction may be imposed only by statute or ordinance, or by a rule
121 authorized by law and adopted in accordance with Chapter 30A.

122 (b) A law creating a collateral consequence that is ambiguous as to whether it imposes a
123 collateral sanction or authorizes a disqualification must be construed as authorizing a 124 disqualification.

125 Section 8. DECISION TO DISQUALIFY.

126 In deciding whether to impose a disqualification, a decision-maker shall undertake an 127 individualized assessment to determine whether the benefit or opportunity at issue should be 128 denied the individual. In making that decision, the decision-maker may consider, if substantially 129 related to the benefit or opportunity at issue: the particular facts and circumstances involved in 130 the offense, and the essential elements of the offense. A conviction itself may not be considered
131 except as having established the elements of the offense. The decision-maker shall also consider 132 other relevant information, including the effect on third parties of granting the benefit or 133 opportunity and whether the individual has been granted relief such as an order of limited relief 134 or a certificate of restoration of rights.

135 Section 9. EFFECT OF CONVICTION BY ANOTHER STATE OR THE UNITED 136 STATES; RELIEVED OR PARDONED CONVICTION.

137 (a) For purposes of authorizing or imposing a collateral consequence in the 138 Commonwealth, a conviction of an offense in a court of another state or the United States is 139 deemed a conviction of the offense in this state with the same elements. If there is no offense in 140 the Commonwealth with the same elements, the conviction is deemed a conviction of the most 141 serious offense in the Commonwealth which is established by the elements of the offense. A 142 misdemeanor in the jurisdiction of conviction may not be deemed a felony in this state, and an 143 offense lesser than a misdemeanor in the jurisdiction of conviction may not be deemed a 144 conviction of a felony or misdemeanor in the Commonwealth.

145 (b) For purposes of authorizing or imposing a collateral consequence in the 146 Commonwealth, a juvenile adjudication in another state or the United States may not be deemed 147 a conviction of a felony, misdemeanor, or offense lesser than a misdemeanor in the

148 Commonwealth, but may be deemed a juvenile adjudication for the delinquent act in the 149 Commonwealth with the same elements. If there is no delinquent act in the Commonwealth with 150 the same elements, the juvenile adjudication is deemed an adjudication of the most serious
151 delinquent act in the Commonwealth which is established by the elements of the offense.

152 (c) A conviction that is reversed, overturned, or otherwise vacated by a court of 153 competent jurisdiction of the Commonwealth, another state, or the United States on grounds
154 other than rehabilitation or good behavior may not serve as the basis for authorizing or imposing 155 a collateral consequence in the Commonwealth.

156 (d) A pardon issued by another state or the United States has the same effect for purposes
157 of authorizing, imposing, and relieving a collateral consequence in the Commonwealth as it has 158 in the issuing jurisdiction.

159 (f) A charge or prosecution in any jurisdiction which has been finally terminated without 160 a conviction and imposition of sentence based on participation in a deferred adjudication or 161 diversion program may not serve as the basis for authorizing or imposing a collateral
162 consequence in the Commonwealth. This subsection does not affect the validity of any 163 restriction or condition imposed by law as part of participation in the deferred adjudication or 164 diversion program, before or after the termination of the charge or prosecution.

165 Section 10. ORDER OF LIMITED RELIEF.

166 (a) An individual convicted of an offense may petition for an order of limited relief from 167 one or more collateral sanctions related to employment, education, housing, public benefits, or 168 occupational licensing. The petition may be presented to the:

169 (1) sentencing court at or before sentencing; or

170 (2) Probation Department at any time after sentencing.

171 (b) Except as otherwise provided in section 12 of this chapter, the court or the trial court
172 may issue an order of limited relief relieving one or more of the collateral sanctions described in 173 subsection (a) if, after reviewing the petition, the individual's criminal history, any filing by a
174 victim under section 15 of this chapter or a prosecutor, and any other relevant evidence, it finds 175 the individual has established by a preponderance of the evidence that:

176 (1) granting the petition will materially assist the individual in obtaining or maintaining 177 employment, education, housing, public benefits, or occupational licensing;

178 (2) the individual has substantial need for the relief requested in order to live a law-179 abiding life; and

180 (3) granting the petition would not pose an unreasonable risk to the safety or
181 welfare of the public or any individual.

182 (c) the order of limited relief must specify:

183 (1) the collateral sanction from which relief is granted; and 184 (2) any restriction imposed pursuant to section 13(a) of this chapter.

185 (d) An order of limited relief relieves a collateral sanction to the extent provided in the 186 order.

187 (e) If a collateral sanction has been relieved pursuant to this section, a decision-maker
188 may consider the conduct underlying a conviction as provided in section 8 of this chapter.

189 Section 11. CERTIFICATE OF RESTORATION OF RIGHTS.

190 (a) An individual convicted of an offense may petition the trial court for a certificate of 191 restoration of rights relieving collateral sanctions not sooner than 5 years after the individual's 192 most recent conviction of a felony or misdemeanor in any jurisdiction, or not sooner than five 193 years after the individual's release from confinement pursuant to a criminal sentence in any 194 jurisdiction, whichever is later.

195 (b) Except as otherwise provided in section 12 of this chapter, the trial court may issue a 196 certificate of restoration of rights if, after reviewing the petition, the individual's criminal 197 history, any filing by a victim under section 15 of this chapter or a prosecutor, and any other 198 relevant evidence, it finds the individual has established by a preponderance of the evidence that:

199 (1) the individual is engaged in, or seeking to engage in, a lawful occupation or activity,
200 including employment, training, education, or rehabilitative programs, or the individual
201 otherwise has a lawful source of support;

202 (2) the individual is not in violation of the terms of any criminal sentence, or that 203 any failure to comply is justified, excused, involuntary, or insubstantial;

204 (3) a criminal charge is not pending against the individual; and

205 (4) granting the petition would not pose an unreasonable risk to the safety or
206 welfare of the public or any individual.

207 (c) A certificate of restoration of rights must specify any restriction imposed and 208 collateral sanction from which relief has not been granted under section 13(a) of this chapter.

209 (d) A certificate of restoration of rights relieves all collateral sanctions, except those 210 listed in Section 12 and any others specifically excluded in the certificate.

211 (e) If a collateral sanction has been relieved pursuant to this Section, a decision-maker
212 may consider the conduct underlying a conviction as provided in section 8 of this chapter.

213 Section 12. COLLATERAL SANCTIONS NOT SUBJECT TO ORDER OF LIMITED
214 RELIEF OR CERTIFICATE OF RESTORATION OF RIGHTS. An order of limited relief or 215 certificate of restoration of rights may not be issued to relieve the following collateral sanctions:

216 (1) requirements imposed by G.L. c.265 §§178C-178Q (sex offender registration);

217 (2) a motor vehicle license suspension, revocation, limitation, or ineligibility pursuant to 218 Chapter 90 for which restoration or relief is available.

219 (3) ineligibility for employment pursuant to by law enforcement agencies, including the 220 Attorney General's Office, District Attorney's offices, police departments, sheriff's departments,
221 State Police, or department of corrections.

222 Section 13. ISSUANCE, MODIFICATION, AND REVOCATION OF ORDER OF 223 LIMITED RELIEF AND CERTIFICATE OF RESTORATION OF RIGHTS.

224 (a) When a petition is filed under sections 10 or 11 of this chapter, including a petition for 225 enlargement of an existing order of limited relief or certificate of restoration of rights, the court 226 shall notify the office that prosecuted the offense giving rise to the collateral consequence from 227 which relief is sought and, if the conviction was not obtained in a court of the Commonwealth, 228 the Attorney General. The court may issue an order may issue an order or certificate subject to 229 restriction or condition.

230 (b) The court may restrict or revoke an order of limited relief or certificate of restoration
231 of rights it issued or an order of limited relief issued by the court if it finds just cause by a 232 preponderance of the evidence. Just cause includes subsequent conviction of a felony or of an 233 offense in another jurisdiction that is deemed a felony under section 9(a) of this chapter. An 234 order of restriction or revocation may be issued:

235 (1) on motion of the office of the prosecutor that obtained the conviction, or a
236 government agency designated by that prosecutor;

237 (2) after notice to the individual and any prosecutor that has appeared in the 238 matter; and

239 (3) after a hearing under chapter 30A of this chapter if requested by the individual
240 or the prosecutor that made the motion or any prosecutor that has appeared in the matter.

241 (c) The court shall order any test, report, investigation, or disclosure by the individual it
242 reasonably believes necessary to its decision to issue, modify, or revoke an order of limited relief
243 or certificate of restoration of rights. If there are material disputed issues of fact or law, the 244 individual and any prosecutor notified under subsection (a) or another prosecutorial agency 245 designated by a prosecutor notified under subsection (a) may submit evidence and be heard on 246 those issues.

254 Section 14. RELIANCE ON ORDER OR CERTIFICATE AS EVIDENCE OF DUE
255 CARE.

256 In a judicial or administrative proceeding alleging negligence or other fault, an order of 257 limited relief or a certificate of restoration of rights may be introduced as evidence of a person's 258 due care in hiring, retaining, licensing, leasing to, admitting to a school or program, or otherwise 259 transacting business or engaging in activity with the individual to whom the order was issued, if 260 the person knew of the order or certificate at the time of the alleged negligence or other fault.

261 Section 15. VICTIM'S RIGHTS.

262 A victim of an offense may participate in a proceeding for issuance, modification, or
