1 SECTION 1. Section 100K of chapter 276 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is 2 hereby amended by striking the word “or” at the end of paragraph (a)(5).

3 SECTION 2. Section 100K of chapter 276 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is 4 hereby amended by inserting after the sixth paragraph of subsection (a), the following 5 paragraph:-

6 (7) an offense that occurred while the petitioner was a victim of act(s) constituting (i)
7 abuse as defined in section 1 of chapter 209A (ii) human trafficking as defined by section 20M
8 of chapter 233 or a victim of trafficking in persons under 22 U.S.C. 7102 and/or (iii) act(s) that 9 by force, threat or duress causes another to involuntarily engage in sexual relations, and the 10 petitioner participated in the offense as a result of fear, duress, coercion or intimidation by a 11 perpetrator of said act(s) as outlined in sections (i), (ii) and (iii) above.

12 SECTION 3. Section 100K of chapter 276 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is 13 hereby amended by inserting after the first sentence of subsection (b), the following sentences:-

14 Any official documentation from any local, state or federal community-based or 15 governmental agency of the defendant's status as a victim of act(s) constituting abuse as defined
16 in section 1 of chapter 209A, human trafficking as defined by section 20M of chapter 233 or a
17 victim of trafficking in persons under 22 U.S.C. 7102 and/or act(s) that by force, threat or duress
18 causes another to involuntarily engage in sexual relations at the time of the offense shall create a 19 rebuttable presumption that the defendant's participation in the offense was a result of their 20 victimization, but shall not be required for granting a petition. For purposes of this subsection, 21 "official documentation" shall be defined as any document issued by a local, state or federal 22 community-based or government agency in the agency's official capacity, or any criminal justice
23 agency as defined by section 167 of chapter 6. A judge shall consider any credible evidence 24 including testimony of the petitioner in determining eligibility for relief.

31 SECTION 5. Section 100C of chapter 276 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is 32 hereby amended by inserting after the second paragraph, the following paragraphs:-

33           Notwithstanding other provisions in section 100A and 100C, a judge may without a 34 waiting period seal any court appearance or disposition where the offense occurred while the 35 petitioner was victim of act(s) constituting abuse as defined in section 1 of chapter 209A, human 36 trafficking as defined by section 20M of chapter 233 or a victim of trafficking in persons under 37 22 U.S.C. 7102 and/or act(s) that by force, threat or duress causes another to involuntarily 38 engage in sexual relations, and the petitioner can establish a connection between the offense and 39 having been a victim of the aforementioned act(s) and it appears to the court that substantial 40 justice would best be served by the sealing of the record(s).

41           A judge shall consider any credible evidence including testimony of the petitioner in 42 determining eligibility for relief under this section. Any official documentation from any local, 43 state or federal community-based or governmental agency of the defendant's status as a victim of 44 act(s) constituting abuse as defined in section 1 of chapter 209A, human trafficking as defined by

47 the time of the offense shall create a rebuttable presumption that the defendant's participation in 48 the offense was connected to their victimization, but shall not be required for granting a petition.
49 For purposes of this subsection, "official documentation" shall be defined as any document 50 issued by a local, state or federal community-based or government agency in the agency's 51 official capacity, or any criminal justice agency as defined by section 167 of chapter 6.
