HOUSE No. 1015

By Representative Garballey of Arlington, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 1015) of Sean Garballey relative to providing certain health insurance coverage. Financial Services.

[SIMILAR MATTER FILED IN PREVIOUS SESSION SEE HOUSE, NO. 1091 OF 2021-2022.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act providing for certain health insurance coverage.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 17A of chapter 32A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2018
- 2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out the first sentence and inserting in place
- 3 thereof the following 4 sentences:-
- 4 The commission shall provide to any active or retired employee of the commonwealth
- 5 who is insured under the group insurance commission coverage for the cost of enteral formulas
- 6 for home use, whether administered orally or via tube feeding, for which a physician has issued a
- 7 written order. Such written order shall state that the enteral formula is clearly medically
- 8 necessary and has been proven effective as a disease-specific treatment regimen for those
- 9 individuals who are or will become malnourished or suffer from disorders, which if left
- untreated, cause chronic physical or intellectual disability or death. Specific diseases for which enteral formulas have been proven effective shall include, but are not limited to, inherited diseases of amino acid or organic acid metabolism; eosinophilic gastrointestinal disorders; Crohn's Disease; gastroesophageal reflux with failure to thrive; disorders of gastrointestinal motility such as chronic intestinal pseudo-obstruction; and multiple, severe food allergies, which if left untreated will cause malnourishment, chronic physical or intellectual disability or death. Enteral formulas which are medically necessary and taken under written order from a physician for the treatment of specific diseases shall be distinguished from nutritional supplements taken electively.

SECTION 2. Section 47I of chapter 175 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out the first sentence and inserting in place thereof the following 4 sentences:-

Any individual policy of accident and sickness insurance issued pursuant to section 108, and any group blanket policy of accident and sickness insurance issued pursuant to section 110, shall provide coverage for the cost of enteral formulas for home use, whether administered orally or via tube feeding, for which a physician has issued a written order. Such written order shall state that the enteral formula is clearly medically necessary and has been proven effective as a disease-specific treatment regimen for those individuals who are or will become malnourished or suffer from disorders, which if left untreated, cause chronic physical or intellectual disability or death. Specific diseases for which enteral formulas have been proven effective shall include, but are not limited to, inherited diseases of amino acid or organic acid metabolism; eosinophilic gastrointestinal disorders; Crohn's Disease; gastroesophageal reflux with failure to thrive; disorders of gastrointestinal motility such as chronic intestinal pseudo-obstruction; and multiple, severe food allergies, which if left untreated will cause malnourishment, chronic physical or intellectual disability or death. Enteral formulas which are medically necessary and taken under written order from a physician for the treatment of specific diseases shall be distinguished from nutritional supplements taken electively.

Any subscription certificate under an individual or group medical service agreement that shall be delivered, issued or renewed in the commonwealth shall provide, as benefits to all individual subscribers and members within the commonwealth, all group members having a principal place of employment within the commonwealth and all persons included in section 4C, coverage for the cost of enteral formulas for home use, whether administered orally or via tube feeding, for which a physician has issued a written order. Such written order shall state that the enteral formula is clearly medically necessary and has been proven effective as a disease-specific treatment regimen for those individuals who are or will become malnourished or suffer from disorders, which if left untreated, cause chronic physical or intellectual disability or death. Specific diseases for which enteral formulas have been proven effective shall include, but are not limited to, inherited diseases of amino acid or organic acid metabolism; eosinophilic gastrointestinal disorders; Crohn's Disease; gastroesophageal reflux with failure to thrive; disorders of gastrointestinal motility such as chronic intestinal pseudo-obstruction; and multiple, severe food allergies, which if left untreated will cause malnourishment, chronic physical or intellectual disability or death. Enteral formulas which are medically necessary and taken under written order from a physician for the treatment of specific diseases shall be distinguished from nutritional supplements taken electively.

SECTION 5. Section 4D of chapter 176G of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out the first sentence and inserting in place thereof the following 4 sentences:-

A group health maintenance contract shall provide coverage for the cost of enteral formulas for home use, whether administered orally or via tube feeding, for which a physician has issued a written order. Such written order shall state that the enteral formula is clearly medically necessary and has been proven effective as a disease-specific treatment regimen for those individuals who are or will become malnourished or suffer from disorders, which if left untreated, cause chronic physical or intellectual disability or death. Specific diseases for which enteral formulas have been proven effective shall include, but are not limited to, inherited diseases of amino acid or organic acid metabolism; eosinophilic gastrointestinal disorders; Crohn's Disease; gastroesophageal reflux with failure to thrive; disorders of gastrointestinal motility such as chronic intestinal pseudo-obstruction; and multiple, severe food allergies, which if left untreated will cause malnourishment, chronic physical or intellectual disability or death. Enteral formulas which are medically necessary and taken under written order from a physician for the treatment of specific diseases shall be distinguished from nutritional supplements taken electively.
