HOUSE No. 1592

By Representative Jones of North Reading, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 1592) of Bradley H. Jones, Jr. and others relative to establishing a self-defense exception in the interception of wire and oral communications. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act establishing a self-defense exception.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Subsection A of section 99 of chapter 272 of the General Laws, as 2 appearing in the 2020 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out the second sentence in 3 the third paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following:-

4 Therefore, the secret use of such devices by private individuals must be prohibited,
5 unless each of the following is true: (1) the individual is a party to the encounter that they are 6 surveilling; (2) the individual is not employed by a law enforcement entity, nor acting under the 7 auspices of one; and (3) the individual has a reasonable fear that the other party intends to 8 physically harm them, another person, or themselves.
