An Act protecting property of elder or disabled persons.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1: Section 30 of chapter 266, as appearing in the Official 2020 edition of the 2 General Laws, is amended by adding after subsection (6) the following subsection:-

3           (7) Whoever, without consent of the owner, obtains possession or control over the 4 property of another, sixty years of age or older, or of a person with a disability as defined in 5 section thirteen K of chapter two hundred and sixty-five, if the value of such property exceeds 6 one thousand dollars, shall be guilty of unlawful possession of property, and shall be punished by 7 imprisonment in the state prison for not more than five years or in the house of correction for not 8 more than two and one-half years, or by a fine of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars or 9 by both such fine and imprisonment; if the property is an interest in real estate, whoever is guilty 10 of unlawful possession of property shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not

11 more than ten years or in the house of correction for not more than two and one-half years, or by 12 a fine of not more than fifty thousand dollars or by both such fine and imprisonment, and shall 13 restore or forfeit such interest in real estate to the owner. The court may order, regardless of the 14 value of the property, restitution to be paid to the victim commensurate with the value of the 15 property. If there is a caretaker for the person who is the owner, the consent of the owner shall 16 not be deemed voluntary and lawful to convey the property unless witnessed in writing by the 17 caretaker. A caretaker may not witness the consent of the owner if the caretaker intends to 18 receive or does receive any interest in the property conveyed or any other benefit as witness.
19 Lack of knowledge that a person has a caretaker shall not be a defense to prosecution under this 20 section.

21 For the purposes of this section, “caretaker” is defined as a person with 22 responsibility for the care of an elder or person with a disability, which responsibility may arise 23 as the result of a family relationship, by a fiduciary duty imposed by law, or by a voluntary or 24 contractual duty undertaken on behalf of such elder or person with a disability.

25 Where circumstances give rise to a reasonable doubt as to whether the person who 26 is the owner is competent to enter into such a property transfer, the other party to the transfer 27 must make reasonable inquiry as to whether the owner has a caretaker as defined above.
