9 community service, pretrial services programs, reentry services programs, programs designed as 10 an alternative to jail or prison, and any other program or service as the commissioner may so

11 direct; provided, however, that pretrial and reentry services programs shall each be a separate 12 track of programming from intensive supervision with treatment as defined herein.

13 “Community justice plan”, a written proposal submitted to the executive director of the 14 office of community justice programs for approval and funding as a community justice program.

20 § 2. Office of community justice programs; executive director

21 (a) There is hereby established subject to appropriation within the office of the 22 commissioner of probation an office of community justice programs, which shall be used for any 23 criminal justice purpose as determined by the commissioner, and shall establish a continuum of 24 community justice programs statewide.

25 (b) The executive director of the office of community justice programs shall be appointed 26 by the commissioner to establish, oversee and operate a statewide continuum of community 27 justice programs.

54 the sheriff shall provide a written recommendation of such determination to the court, the 55 commissioner, the prosecuting office and the person or the person's attorney, where applicable.
56 The prosecuting office may notify any victim of the sheriff's recommendation upon receipt of 57 such recommendation. If the commissioner or the prosecuting office objects to such 58 recommendation, the commissioner or prosecuting office shall file written objection with the 59 court within 14 days of receipt of such notice. Upon receipt of such objection, the court may set 60 the matter for hearing. After expiration of the time for filing objections and after hearing, if

63 In no event shall the person held on bail be ordered under this paragraph to enter a pretrial

80 chapter, to any person released from incarceration including, but not limited to, any probationer 81 or parolee.
