HOUSE No. 1703

By Representatives Nguyen of Andover and Howard of Lowell, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 1703) of Tram T. Nguyen, Vanna Howard and others for legislation to protect animals from convicted animal abusers. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act to protect animals from convicted animal abusers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 272 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 2 section 77 the following section:-

3 Section 77 ½ : Prohibition on access to animals by convicted animal abusers

4 (a) A person convicted of a violation of sections 77 , 77C , 80 ½ , 94 , or 95 of chapter
5 272 or section 112 of chapter 266 shall not harbor, own, possess, exercise control over, reside 6 with, adopt, or foster an animal or engage in an occupation, whether paid or unpaid, or 7 participate in a volunteer position at any establishment where animals are present for any length 8 of time that the court deems reasonable for the protection of all animals; provided, however, that 9 the length of time shall not be less than 5 years after the person’s date of conviction or release 10 from custody, whichever is later, for a first offense or less than 15 years after the person’s date of 11 conviction or release from custody, whichever is later, for a second or subsequent offense .

12 (b) The court shall notify relevant authorities of the duration of the prohibition within 30
13 days. Such authorities shall include any municipal officer involved with animal control and any 14 municipal official responsible for the issuance of dog licenses in the municipality of the 15 offender's residence or residences, any special state police officer duly appointed by the colonel 16 of the state police at the request of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to 17 Animals or the Animal Rescue League of Boston under section 57 of chapter 22C, and if the 18 offender will serve a probationary sentence, the probation department. Such notice to authorities 19 shall not be a public record under clause twenty-sixth of section 7 of chapter 4 or chapter 66.

20 (c) A person convicted of a violation of sections 77, 77C, 80 ½, 94, or 95 of chapter 272
21 or section 112 of chapter 266, as a first offense, may petition the court to reduce the duration of 22 the prohibition no more than once per year . Such petition shall include: (i) an identification by 23 county and docket number of the proceeding in which the petitioner was convicted; (ii) the date
24 the judgment of conviction entered; (iii) the sentence imposed following conviction; (iv) a 25 statement identifying all previous proceedings for direct and collateral review and the orders or 26 judgments entered; and (v) all grounds for reduction of the duration of the prohibition claimed by 27 the petitioner. The petitioner shall have the burden of establishing by a preponderance of 28 evidence all of the following: (i) the petitioner does not present a danger to animals; (ii) the 29 petitioner has the ability to properly care for any and all animals the petitioner may harbor, own,
30 possess, exercise control over, reside with, adopt, or foster, or with whom the petitioner may 31 engage in an occupation, whether paid or unpaid, or with whom the petitioner may participate in 32 a volunteer position at any establishment; and (iii) the petitioner has successfully completed
33 relevant classes and counseling deemed sufficient by the court. The petitioner shall serve a copy 34 of the petition upon the office of the prosecuting attorney and, if at the time of filing the

35 petitioner is serving a probationary sentence, the probation department. Upon receipt of a 36 petition, the court shall schedule a hearing. The prosecuting attorney shall respond to the 37 petition, specifying whether the petitioner presents a danger to animals and whether the 38 petitioner should have the duration of the prohibition reduced. If the petitioner has met their 39 burden, the court may reduce the prohibition, issuing corresponding notice as established in 40 subsection (b) and may order that the petitioner instead comply with reasonable and 41 unannounced inspections of the petitioner's residence or residences, for a period of time the 42 court deems appropriate, by an animal control officer as defined in section 136A of chapter 140
43 or a police officer or special state police officer appointed under section 57 of chapter 22C.

44 (d) Any person found in violation of an order incorporating the provisions of this section, 45 in addition to any other punishment provided by law, may be fined in an amount not exceeding 46 $1,000 for each animal held in unlawful ownership or possession; shall forfeit custody of any 47 animal involved in a violation of this section to the custody of an entity incorporated under the 48 laws of the commonwealth for the prevention of cruelty to animals or for the care and protection 49 of homeless or suffering animals ; and shall not harbor, own, possess, exercise control over,
50 reside with, adopt, or foster an animal or engage in an occupation, whether paid or unpaid, or 51 participate in a volunteer position at any establishment where animals are present for 5 years for 52 a first offense or 15 years for a second or subsequent offense.

53 SECTION 2. Section 77C (d) of Chapter 272 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 54 2018 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out the second paragraph and inserting in 55 its place thereof the following sections:-

56 A person convicted of a violation of this section shall be subject to the prohibition on 57 access to animals as required by section 77 ½ of chapter 272.

58 SECTION 3. Section 35WW of chapter 10 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2016
59 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the figure “62”, in line 17, the following 60 words:- , fines collected pursuant to section 37 of chapter 129.

61 SECTION 4. Section 37 of said chapter 129, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 62 inserting after the fourth sentence the following sentence:- A fine assessed under this section
63 shall be deposited into the Homeless Animal Prevention and Care Fund established in section 64 35WW of chapter 10.
