The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act to reduce mass incarceration.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 133A of chapter 127 of the General Laws as it appears in the 2014
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking, in the first sentence of the first paragraph, the 3 phrases: “except prisoners confined to the hospital at the Massachusetts Correctional Institution, 4 Bridgewater, except prisoners serving a life sentence for murder in the first degree who had 5 attained the age of 18 years at the time of the murder and except prisoners serving more than 1 6 life sentence arising out of separate and distinct incidents that occurred at different times, where 7 the second offense occurred subsequent to the first conviction,”; and by inserting in the first 8 paragraph after the phrase “of the minimum term fixed by the court under section 24 of chapter 9 279.” the following sentence:- Provided, however, that in the case of a prisoner serving more 10 than 1 life sentence arising out of separate and distinct incidents that occurred at different times,

11 where the second offense occurred subsequent to the first conviction, such prisoner shall be 12 eligible for parole 25 years after the start of the second or most recent sentence.

13 SECTION 2. Amend Section 133C of chapter 127 of the General Laws as it appears in 14 the 2014 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking, in the first paragraph, the phrase:
15 “except prisoners serving a life sentence for murder in the first degree who had attained the age
16 of 18 years at the time of the murder and prisoners confined to the hospital at the Massachusetts
17 Correctional Institution, Bridgewater.”

18 SECTION 3. Subsection (a) of section 2 of chapter 265 of the General Laws as it appears
19 in the 2014 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking the phrase: “not be eligible for parole 20 pursuant to section 133A of Chapter 127.”, and inserting in place thereof the phrase:- shall be 21 eligible for parole after a term of years fixed by the court pursuant to section 24 of chapter 279.

22 SECTION 4. Amend subsection (b) of section 2 of Chapter 265 of the General Laws as it 23 appears in the 2014 Official Edition, by inserting in the fourth line, after the words “term of 24 years” :- but no more than 25 years, as.

25 SECTION 5. Section 24 of chapter 279 of the General Laws as it appears in the 2014
26 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking, in the first paragraph, the phrase: “which shall 27 be not less than 15 years nor more than 25 years,” and insert in place thereof the phrase:- of 15 28 years; and by striking out the second paragraph in its entirety and inserting in place thereof the 29 following paragraph:-

30 In the case of a sentence to life imprisonment for murder in the first degree, the court 31 shall fix a minimum term of 25 years; provided, however, that in the case of a person who 32 committed the murder on or after the person’s fourteenth birthday and before the person’s

33 eighteenth birthday, the court shall fix a minimum term of not less than 15 years nor more than 34 20 years, after consideration of relevant mitigating and exacerbating circumstances; and 35 provided, however, that in the case of a person sentenced to life imprisonment for murder in the 36 first degree adjudicated solely by a verdict of felony murder or joint venture and where the 37 offender is not the actual killer, committed on or after the person's fourteenth birthday and 38 before the person's eighteenth birthday, the court shall fix a minimum term of not less than 10
39 years nor more than 12 years.

40 SECTION 6. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, section 24 of chapter 279 of 41 the General Laws as it appears in the 2014 Official Edition shall apply to any person found guilty 42 of murder pursuant to subsections (a), (b) or (c) of section 2 of chapter 265 prior to or after the 43 effective date of this act.

44 SECTION 7. Subsection (b) of section 25 of chapter 279 of the General Laws as it
45 appears in the 2014 Official Edition is hereby amended by inserting in the first paragraph after 46 the words "for good conduct", the following phrase:- provided, however, that in the case of a 47 person so serving a life sentence, parole eligibility will commence after serving 25 years of said
48 sentence. And by inserting after the last paragraph of subsection (b) of section 25 the following
49 sentence:- Notwithstanding any other provision of law, section 25(b) shall apply to any person
50 convicted as a habitual offender pursuant to subsection (a) or (b) of section 25 of chapter 279
51 prior to or after the effective date of this act.

52 SECTION 8. Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, except as provided by 53 SECTION 1 of this act, no person shall be imprisoned for more than 25 years without a parole
54 hearing at 25 years.

55 SECTION 9. The Department of Corrections shall establish a Restorative Justice program 56 within its prisons that is available to anyone sentenced to more than 25 years in prison in order to 57 develop a plan of reconciliation.

58 (a) The Restorative Justice program will allow the interaction between the prisoner and 59 victims, family of the victims, the parties to a crime, and community members within the prison
60 with the goal to identify and address harms and needs and obligations resulting from an offense
61 in order to understand and reconcile the impact of that offense.

62 (b) Participation in a prison-based restorative justice program shall be voluntary for 63 offenders, victims, and surviving family and community members affected by the crime.

64 (c) Participation in a prison-based restorative justice program shall not be used as 65 evidence or as an admission of guilt, delinquency or civil liability in current or subsequent legal 66 proceedings against any participant. Any statement made by an incarcerated person during the 67 course of an assignment within a prison-based restorative justice program shall be confidential
68 and shall not be subject to disclosure in any judicial or administrative proceeding and no
69 information obtained during the course of such assignment shall be used in any stage of a 70 criminal investigation or prosecution or civil or administrative proceeding; provided, however,
71 that nothing in this section shall preclude any evidence obtained through an independent source 72 or that is inevitably discovered by lawful means from being admitted at such proceeding.

73 (d) The Department of Corrections shall annually, not later than December 31, submit a
74 report to the clerks of the House of Representatives and of the Senate, and the House and Senate
75 chairs of the Joint Committee on the Judiciary and of Public Safety and Homeland Security
76 regarding the implementation and operation of the program, the number of prisoners to which it

77 is available, the number of prisoners that have participated, and any recommendations for change 78 to the program.
