5 (a) In the event of the death of an employee all wages due the deceased employee at the 6 time of death, may, upon proper demand on the employer, be paid, in the absence of actual 7 notice of the pendency of probate proceedings, without requiring letters testamentary or of 8 administration in the following order of preference to decedent's:

14 (v) another person not otherwise identified above who pays the funeral expenses.

15 (b) Payments under subsection (a) of this section shall constitute a full discharge of all 16 obligations of the employer with respect to such wages and shall hold the employer harmless 17 from any liability in any legal action brought after the payment of these wages.

18 (c) Any employer receiving a proper demand for wages under the statute shall retain the 19 demand and any supporting documentation, as well as proof of payment, as part of the 20 employee's personnel record as provided in chapter 149, section 52C.

21 (d) Definitions

22 "Proper demand" shall consist of a written request in the form of an affidavit sworn to
