The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act to establish a commission to study the distribution of unrestricted local aid.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 The General Laws, as appearing in the 2018 Official Edition, are hereby amended by 2 inserting after chapter 40W the following chapter:-

3 Chapter 40X. Commission to study the distribution of general local aid.

4 SECTION 1. There shall be a commission to study the distribution of general local aid in 5 the commonwealth, including unrestricted general government aid, lottery aid as promulgated in 6 section 18C of chapter 58 of the General Laws and additional assistance aid to municipalities.

7 The study shall not include foundation aid as defined in section 2 of chapter 70 of the General
8 Laws.

9 SECTION 2. The commission shall examine the current formula used to distribute 10 unrestricted general government aid to municipalities, evaluate the effectiveness and equity of 11 said formula and make recommendations to establish a more equitable distribution of 12 unrestricted general government aid to municipalities in the commonwealth. The commission 13 shall review all aspects of general local aid including, but not limited to (a) the current allocation 14 of local aid to municipalities; (b) the reflectiveness of municipalities' needs in the proportional 15 distribution of the unrestricted general government aid formula; (c) any equity disparities that 16 exist between municipalities across the commonwealth related to local aid distribution; (d) the 17 ability to account for a municipality's change in population or tax base in a general local aid 18 funding formula; (e) the potential to calculate municipal costs based on a municipality's need for 19 municipal services and a municipality's ability to raise local revenue, less a municipality's local 20 revenues; and (f) any alternative formulas that may create a more equitable distribution of 21 general local aid.

22 SECTION 3. The commission shall consist of: the secretary of administration and 23 finance, or a designee; the commissioner of the department of revenue, or a designee; 1 member 24 appointed by the state treasurer; 2 members of the senate, 1 of whom shall represent a gateway
25 municipality as defined in section 3A of chapter 23A of the General Laws and shall serve as co-
26 chair; 2 members of the house of representatives, 1 of whom shall represent a gateway
27 municipality as defined in said section 3A of said chapter 23A and shall serve as co-chair; 5
28 members appointed by the governor, 1 of whom shall be nominated by the Massachusetts 29 Municipal Association, Inc., 1 of whom shall be nominated by the Federal Reserve Bank of 30 Boston, 1 of whom shall be nominated by the Massachusetts Budget and Policy Center, Inc., 1 of 31 whom shall be nominated by the Massachusetts Taxpayers Foundation, Inc., and 1 of whom shall 32 be nominated by the Edward J. Collins, Jr. Center for Public Management at the University of 33 Massachusetts at Boston.

34 SECTION 4. The commission shall file a report of its findings and recommendations, 35 including any new or revised local aid formulas, with the clerks of the senate and house of 36 representatives, the chairs of the senate and house committees on ways and means, and the 37 senate and house chairs of the joint committee on municipalities and regional government not 38 later than July 1, 2021.
