The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act authorizing the town of Holliston to establish a means-tested senior citizen property tax exemption.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. With respect to each qualifying parcel of real property classified as class 2 one, residential in the Town of Holliston, there shall be an exemption from the property tax in an 3 amount to be set annually by the Select Board as provided in Section 3. The exemption shall be 4 applied to the domicile of the taxpayer only. For the purposes of this act, "parcel" shall mean a 5 unit of real property as defined by the Board of Assessors under the deed for the property and 6 shall include a condominium unit. The exemption provided for in this section shall be in addition 7 to any other exemptions allowed pursuant to the General Laws. 8 SECTION 2. The Board of Assessors of the Town of Holliston may deny an application 9 for exemption if the board finds that the applicant has excessive assets that place the applicant 10 outside of the intended recipients of the senior exemption established pursuant to this act. Real

11 property shall qualify for the exemption pursuant to Section 1 if the following criteria are met:

12	(i) the qualifying real property is owned and occupied by a person whose prior year's
13	income would make the person eligible for the circuit breaker income tax credit pursuant to
14	subsection (k) of Section 6 of Chapter 62 of the General Laws;
15	(ii) the qualifying real property is owned by a single applicant who was age 65 or older at
16	the close of the previous year or jointly by persons who are 60 years of age or older, provided
17	that not less than 1 joint owner was age 65 or older at the close of the previous year;
18	(iii) the qualifying real property is owned and occupied by the applicant or joint
19	applicants as their domicile;
20	(iv) the applicant, or at least 1 of the joint applicants, has been domiciled and owned a
21	home in the Town of Holliston for not less than 10 consecutive years before filing an application
22	for the exemption;
23	(v) the maximum assessed value of the domicile is not greater than the prior year's which the applicant qualified in the previous year. The total amount exempted by this act shall beallocated proportionally within the tax levy on all residential taxpayers.

35 SECTION 4. A person who seeks to qualify for the exemption pursuant to Section 1 36 shall, before the deadline established by the Board of Assessors of the town of Holliston, file an 37 application, on a form adopted by the Board of Assessors, with the supporting documentation of 38 the applicant's income and assets as described in the application. The application shall be filed 39 each year for which the applicant seeks the exemption.

40 SECTION 5. No exemption shall be granted pursuant to this act until the Department of 41 Revenue certifies a residential tax rate for the applicable tax year where the total exemption 42 amount is raised by a burden shift within the residential tax levy.

43 SECTION 6. The exemption provided in this act shall expire 3 years after the effective
44 date of this act; provided, however, that the Town of Holliston may reauthorize the exemption
45 for additional 3-year intervals by a vote of the legislative body of the town.

46 SECTION 7. This act shall take effect upon its passage.
