HOUSE No. 4115

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act to prevent abuse and exploitation.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 12 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2022 Official Edition, 2 is hereby amended by inserting after section 35 the following section: -

3 Section 36. The attorney general, in consultation with the department of elementary and 4 secondary education, the department of youth services and the Massachusetts district attorneys 5 association shall develop and implement a comprehensive educational diversion program. The 6 program shall be designed to provide adolescents with information about: (i) the legal 7 consequences of, and penalties for, possessing or disseminating visual material in violation of 8 section 29D of chapter 272, commonly known as “sexting”, including applicable federal and 9 state law; (ii) the non-legal consequences of sexting or posting sexual images, including, but not 10 limited to, the effect on relationships, loss of educational and employment opportunities, and 11 removal, exclusion or expulsion from school programs and extracurricular activities; (iii) how 12 the unique characteristics of the internet can produce long-term and unforeseen consequences for 13 sexting and posting sexual images online, including the impact on health relationships and risk of 14 trafficking; and (iv) and the connection between bullying and cyber-bullying, sexual assault and 15 dating violence and juveniles sexting or posting sexual images. The attorney general shall 16 consult available research on effective educational diversion programs, including programs on 17 sexting, in designing the curriculum and shall annually review the program design and make 18 updates as needed to improve efficacy. The educational diversion program shall be used as part 19 of any diversion program required pursuant to section 54B of chapter 119 and shall be made 20 available to school districts for use in educational programs on the topic. Law enforcement, 21 district attorneys and clerk magistrates may refer a child, where appropriate, to the educational 22 diversion program.

23 SECTION 2. Chapter 71 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 24 inserting after section 98 the following section: -

25 Section 99. The department shall encourage school districts to implement instruction in 26 media literacy skills at all grade levels, and in any of the core subjects under section 1D of 27 chapter 69, life skills programming or other subjects, to equip students with the knowledge and 28 skills for accessing, analyzing, evaluating and creating all types of media and shall use content 29 from the educational diversion program established pursuant to section 36 of chapter 12 in this 30 instruction.

31 SECTION 3. Chapter 119 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 32 inserting after section 54A the following section: -

33 Section 54B (a) If a child is alleged to be a delinquent child by reason of violating 34 sections 29B, 29C, or 29D of chapter 272 the court shall, prior to arraignment, indefinitely stay 35 arraignment and direct that the child enter and complete the educational diversion program 36 established pursuant to section 36 of chapter 12; provided, however, that the district attorney

37 may object in writing to the stay of arraignment. If the district attorney so objects, the court shall 38 consider the district attorney's objection and make a determination whether to direct a child to 39 enter and complete said education diversion program. If the court finds, on its own motion or at 40 the request of the district attorney, that the child has failed to complete the diversion program, 41 the court shall bring the case forward, arraign the child and restore the delinquency complaint to 42 the docket for further proceedings.

43 (b) If a child is alleged to be a delinquent child by reason of violating sections 29B, 29C, 44 or 29D of chapter 272 and arraignment has already occurred, the court shall place the child on 45 pretrial probation pursuant to section 87 of chapter 276. The conditions of such probation shall 46 include, but not be limited to, completion of the educational diversion program established 47 pursuant to section 36 of chapter 12; provided, however, that the district attorney may object in 48 writing to pretrial probation. If the district attorney so objects, the court shall consider the district 49 attorney's objections in its decision to place the child on pretrial probation. If the court finds, on 50 its own motion or at the request of the district attorney, that the child has failed to comply with 51 the conditions of probation, the court shall restore the delinquency complaint to the docket for 52 trial or further proceedings.

53 SECTION 4. Section 1 of Chapter 209A of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 54 amended by striking out the definition of "abuse" and inserting in place thereof the following 55 definitions: -

56 "Abuse", the occurrence of one or more of the following acts between family or 57 household members:

58 (a) attempting to cause or causing physical harm;

- 59 (b) placing another in fear of imminent serious physical harm;
- 60 (c) causing another to engage involuntarily in sexual relations by force, threat or duress;
- 61 (d) coercive control.

62 “Coercive control”, an act or pattern of behavior committed with the intent to 63 substantially restrict an individual’s safety or autonomy through threat, intimidation, harassment, 64 isolation, control, coercion or compelled compliance, including but not limited to:

65 (i) isolating the family or household member from friends, relatives or other sources of 66 support;

67 (ii) depriving the family or household member of basic needs;

68 (iii) repeatedly humiliating or using degrading language or behavior towards the family 69 or household member;

70 (iv) controlling, regulating or monitoring the family or household member’s activities, 71 communications, movements, finances, economic resources, or access to services, including 72 through technological means;

73 (v) compelling a family or household member to abstain from or engage in a specific 74 behavior or activity, including engaging in criminal activity;

75 (vi) harming or threatening to harm a child or relative of the family or household 76 member;

77 (vii) committing or threatening to commit cruelty or abuse to animals connected to the 78 family or household member;

79 (viii) damaging property belonging to the family or household member;

80 (ix) threatening to publish sensitive personal information relating to the family or 81 household member, including explicit images;

82 (x) threatening to make false reports to law enforcement or other government officials or 83 agencies; or

84 (xi) using repeated court actions not warranted by existing law or good faith argument.

85 SECTION 5. Section 43A of chapter 265 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 86 amended by striking out, in line 7, the figure “$1,000” and inserting in place thereof the 87 following figure: - $5,000.

88 SECTION 6. Said section 43A of said chapter 265, as so appearing, is hereby further 89 amended by striking out subsection (b) and inserting in place thereof the following subsections: -

90 (b)(1) As used in this subsection the following words shall have the following meanings 91 unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

92 “Distribute”, give, sell, transfer, disseminate, publish, upload, circulate, broadcast, or 93 engage in any other form of transmission, electronic or otherwise.

94 “Identifiable”, identifiable from the visual material itself or information offered in 95 connection with the visual material.

96 “Partially nude”, the exposure of fully uncovered buttocks, or all or part of the human 97 genitals or the female nipple-areolar complex.

98 “Publish”, (i) disseminate with the intent that an image or images be made available by 99 any means to any person or other legal entity; (ii) disseminate with the intent that an image or 100 images be sold by another person or legal entity; (iii) post, present, display, exhibit, circulate, 101 advertise or allow access by any means, so as to make an image or images available to the 102 public; or (iv) disseminate with the intent that an image or images be posted, presented, 103 displayed, exhibited, circulated, advertised or made accessible by any means, and to make such 104 images available to the public.

105 “Visual material”, any photograph, film, video, or digital image or recording, whether 106 produced by electronic, mechanical or other means or any part, representation or reproduction 107 thereof.

108 (2) Whoever knowingly distributes visual material depicting another person, either 109 identifiable in the visual material or identified by the distributing person, who is nude, partially 110 nude or engaged in sexual conduct, when the distribution causes physical or economic injury to 111 the person depicted in the visual material or causes the person depicted in the visual material to 112 suffer substantial emotional distress, and does so with the intent to harm, harass, intimidate, 113 threaten, coerce or cause substantial emotional distress, or does so with reckless disregard for the 114 depicted person’s lack of consent to the distribution of the visual material and reasonable 115 expectation that the visual material would remain private, shall be guilty of the crime of criminal 116 harassment and shall be punished by imprisonment in a house of correction for not more than 2½ 117 years, by a fine of not more than $10,000, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

118 (3) For purposes of this subsection, consent to the creation of visual material shall not 119 constitute consent to the distribution of the visual material.

120 (4) This subsection shall not preclude other remedies available at law or in equity, 121 including, but not limited to, the issuance by a court with proper jurisdiction of appropriate 122 orders to restrain or prevent the distribution of visual material in violation of this subsection.

123 (5) Visual material that is part of any court record arising from a prosecution under this 124 subsection shall not be open to public inspection and, unless otherwise ordered in writing by the 125 court, shall only be made available for inspection by court personnel to a prosecuting attorney, a 126 defendant's attorney, a defendant or a victim connected to such prosecution; provided, however, 127 that this paragraph shall not prohibit disclosure, inspection or other use of the visual material in 128 the underlying prosecution or any related court proceeding in accordance with applicable 129 evidentiary and procedural rules or court order.

130 (6) This subsection shall not apply to: (i) visual material involving nudity, partial nudity 131 or sexual conduct that is voluntary or consensual and occurring: (A) in a commercial setting, or 132 (B) in a place where a person does not have a reasonable expectation of privacy; (ii) distribution 133 made in the public interest, including the reporting of unlawful conduct; (iii) lawful and common 134 practices of law enforcement, criminal reporting, corrections, legal proceedings or medical 135 treatment, including telemedicine; (iv) distribution of visual material that constitutes a matter of 136 public concern; (v) interactive computer services, as defined in 47 U.S.C. 230(f)(2), for content 137 solely provided by another person; or (vi) information services or telecommunications services, 138 as defined in 47 U.S.C. 153, for content solely provided by another person.

139 (c) Whoever, after having been convicted of an offense under this section, commits a 140 second or subsequent offense, or whoever commits an offense under this section having 141 previously been convicted of a violation of section 43, shall be punished by imprisonment in a

142 house of correction for not more than 2½ years or in a state prison for not more than 10 years, by 143 a fine of not more than $15,000, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

144 SECTION 7. Chapter 272 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 145 inserting after section 29C the following section: -

146 Section 29D. (a) Whoever, while under the age of criminal majority: (i) possesses, 147 purchases or disseminates to another person any visual material in violation of section 29B or 148 section 29C of this chapter, or (ii) whoever, while under the age of criminal majority, uploads 149 visual material of another person in violation of this section to an internet website, may be 150 punished by a commitment to the department of youth services.

151 (b) Knowingly disseminating visual material by reporting the matter to a law enforcement 152 agency, parent, foster parent, guardian, teacher, principal, or other relevant school personnel, or 153 by affording a law enforcement agency, parent, foster parent, guardian, teacher, principal or 154 other relevant school personnel access to the visual material shall not constitute dissemination in 155 violation of this section.

156 (c) A person who has been adjudicated under this section shall not be required to register 157 with the sex offender registry board and no data relating to such adjudication shall be transmitted 158 to the board pursuant to section 178E of chapter 6.

159 (d) The juvenile court department shall have exclusive jurisdiction of proceedings under 160 this section.

161 (e) It shall be an affirmative defense for any crime alleged under sections 29A, 29B, 29C 162 or 29D of this chapter that: (i) the visual material portrays no person other than the juvenile; or

163 (ii) the juvenile was under the age of criminal majority, the visual material portrays only an 164 individual age 16 or older and was knowingly and voluntarily created and provided to the 165 juvenile by the individual in the image, and the juvenile has not provided or made available the 166 material to another person except the individual depicted who originally sent the material to the 167 juvenile.

168 (f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a prosecution for disorderly 169 conduct, public indecency, child pornography, or any other applicable provision of law.

170 SECTION 8. Section 63 of chapter 277 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 171 amended by striking, in line 13, the word “sections” and inserting in place thereof the following 172 words: - subsection (b)(iii) of 13A, sections 13M,.
