HOUSE No. 4199

By Representative Hamilton of Methuen, a petition (subject to Joint Rule 12) of Ryan M. Hamilton, Carmine Lawrence Gentile and Sally P. Kerans relative to personal financial literacy in schools. Education.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court
(2023-2024)

An Act relative to personal financial literacy.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 29 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 2 section 2AAAAAA the following section:-

3 Section 2BBBBBB. (a) There shall be established and set up on the books of the 4 commonwealth a separate fund to be known as the Financial Literacy Trust Fund. The fund shall 5 be administered by the commissioner of elementary and secondary education. The fund shall be 6 credited with: (i) revenue from appropriations or other money authorized by the general court 7 and specifically designated to be credited to the fund; (ii) interest earned on such revenues; and 8 (iii) funds from public and private sources such as gifts, grants and donations to further personal 9 financial literacy education and professional development. Amounts credited to the fund shall 10 not be subject to further appropriation and any money remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal 11 year shall not revert to the General Fund.

12 (b) Amounts credited to the fund may focus on underserved communities across the 13 commonwealth, including those school districts with high concentrations of economically 14 disadvantaged students and may be expended, without further appropriation, by the 15 commissioner for the following purposes: (i) to assist with the implementation of section 100 of 16 chapter 71, including professional development training; (ii) for the development and 17 improvement of standards pursuant to section 1R of chapter 69; (iii) for the procurement,
18 development and distribution of personal financial literacy educational resources and materials;
19 (iv) for the collaboration with institutions of higher education and other stakeholder 20 organizations; (v) in consultation with the board and commissioner of higher education, to fund
21 scholarships or other financial supports for students; and (vi) in partnership with the state
22 treasurer and receiver general to establish experiential personal financial literacy learning 23 opportunities for students.

24 (c) Amounts received from private sources shall be approved by the commissioner of 25 elementary and secondary education and subject to review before being deposited in the fund to 26 ensure that pledged funds are not accompanied by conditions, explicit or implicit, on the 27 implementation of personal financial literacy education programming that may be detrimental to 28 the neutral and rigorous teaching of personal financial literacy or unduly influence the direction
29 of personal financial literacy education policy. The review shall be made publicly available.

30 (d) Annually, not later than October 1, the commissioner shall report to the clerks of the 31 house of representatives and senate, the joint committee on education and the house and senate
32 committees on ways and means on the fund's activity. The report shall include, but not be limited 33 to: (i) the source and amount of funds received; (ii) the amounts distributed and the purpose of 34 expenditures from the fund, including but not limited to, funds expended to assist school districts

35 in meeting the requirements in section 100 of chapter 71; (iii) any grants provided to institutions 36 of higher education and other stakeholder organizations; and (iv) anticipated revenue and 37 expenditure projections for the next year.

38 SECTION 2. The third paragraph of section 1D of chapter 69 of the General Laws, as 39 appearing in the 2022 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the fourth sentence
40 the following sentence:-

41 The standards shall, for grades 9 through 12, provide for instruction on personal financial 42 literacy including, but not limited to, the topics outlined in subsection (a) of section 1R.

43 SECTION 3 . Said section 1D of said chapter 69, as so appearing, is hereby further 44 amended by striking out, in line 38, the following words: - financial literacy and.

45 SECTION 4. Section 1R of said chapter 69, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 46 striking out subsection (a) and inserting in place thereof the following subsection:-

47 (a) Personal financial literacy standards established pursuant to section 1D shall promote 48 an understanding of personal finances including, but not limited to: (i) earning and spending
49 income, local, state and federal taxes, charitable giving, methods of payment, consumer 50 protection, balancing ledgers and checkbooks and budgeting; (ii) long-term saving, the role of 51 banks and financial institutions, interest both simple and compound, financial regulation and 52 planning for the future; (iii) using credit and making investments, risks of various financial 53 instruments and basic diversification of assets; (iv) protecting and insuring assets, preventing 54 identity theft and avoiding online scams; (v) emerging technologies in the financial industry, a 55 basic understanding of crypto currencies, online commerce and computer stock-trading, how to 56 evaluate media content, including digital content relating to personal finance matters and how to

57 evaluate risk; and (vi) rights and responsibilities of renting or buying a home or making other 58 large purchases or investments.

59 SECTION 5. Subsection (b) of said section 1R of said chapter 69, as so appearing, is 60 hereby amended by adding the following sentence:-

61 This provision shall not apply to or otherwise alter the requirement of the completion of 62 standalone personal finance coursework by a high school student in order to be eligible to 63 graduate, as defined in section 100 of chapter 71.

64 SECTION 6. Chapter 71 of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the following 65 section:-

66 Section 100. (a) Personal financial literacy shall be taught as a required subject in every 67 school district, charter school, approved private day or residential school or collaborative school 68 serving students in grades 9 through 12 and shall be aligned with the standards promulgated by 69 the board of elementary and secondary education, pursuant to sections 1D and 1R of chapter 69.

70 (b) Every high school student, prior to graduation, shall be required to take at least 1
71 standalone personal financial literacy course, not to last less in duration than one-half of 1 72 semester or take part in an equivalent amount of coursework by measurement of credit as 73 determined by the district. Instruction shall include, but not be limited to: (i) earning and 74 spending income, local, state and federal taxes, charitable giving, methods of payment, consumer

83 investments.

84 (c) The department of elementary and secondary education shall provide professional 85 development opportunities for educators on the personal financial literacy framework and subject
86 to sufficient resources in the Financial Literacy Trust Fund established under section 2BBBBBB
87 of chapter 29, create tools aligned with the framework to support districts in the implementation
88 process. Additional support and outreach from the department may include statewide and 89 regional trainings, meetings or conferences, including opportunities for districts and stakeholders
90 to assess and share evidence-based best practices in support of personal financial literacy
91 education and provide feedback and recommendations to the department.

92 (d) Each public school serving students in grades 9 through 12 shall provide not less than 93 1 experiential personal financial literacy learning opportunity for each student; provided,
94 however, that each such experience shall be consistent with personal financial literacy standards
95 established and adopted by the board pursuant to sections 1D and 1R of chapter 69 and with 96 structured learning time requirements as required under regulations promulgated by the board of 97 elementary and secondary education. Experiential personal financial literacy learning 98 opportunities may be individual, small group or class-wide and designed to promote a student's 99 ability to: (i) reason, make logical arguments and support claims using valid evidence; and (ii)
100 demonstrate an understanding of the importance of personal financial literacy, including best 101 practices for financial security, empowerment and the management of financial risk.

102 SECTION 7. The department of elementary and secondary education may apply for 103 federal, state or other funding to implement the provisions of this act.
