By striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting in place thereof the following:–

1            “The building utilized for lifeguard and related operations at the Salisbury beach state
2 reservation shall be known as the Robert “Boots” Chouinard Lifeguard Facility in recognition of
3 Robert Chouinard’s years of dedicated service to the department of conservation and recreation
4 and its predecessor agencies and his service in the United States Army; provided, that not later
5 than 90 days following the passage of this act, said department shall design and install
6 interpretive signage portraying such service and legacy at the facility and in one or more
7 additional prominent places at the reservation; and provided further, that said signage shall be
8 designed in consultation with the Salisbury board of selectmen and the family of Robert “Boots”
9 Chouinard.”;

10            and by striking out the title and inserting in place thereof the following title:

11            “An Act relative to naming a lifeguard building at the Salisbury beach state reservation.”.
