HOUSE No. 675

By Representative Day of Stoneham (by request), a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 675) of Vincent L. Dixon relative to the disclosure of the political party offices' campaign contributions. Election Laws.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act relative to the disclosure of the political party offices campaign contributions.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The Massachusetts General Laws are hereby amended by inserting the 2 following new chapter:

3 An important part of the political institutions, of our society, and our Commonwealth, are 4 enabled by the creation of political parties, and designations, to provide a vehicle for citizens to 5 engage in organized political actions, to facilitate the recruitment, and candidacy of individuals
6 for office; and to provide mechanisms for developing organized political positions, and 7 platforms.

8 Under the Massachusetts Constitution, the Massachusetts General Laws, and appropriate 9 regulations, flowing from these legal authorities, political parties, are described, and can be 10 established, to enjoy, and access certain legal mechanisms, providing choices to all eligible, and 11 registered voters of The Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

12 While political parties, and designations, have elements of private, and/or semi-private 13 organizations, they also have public, and semi-public elements, and aspects, and so are in 14 important ways, hybrid organizations.

15 Although it is true, that political parties, have elements that have conventionally been 16 regarded as semi-private, they perform in a public arena, and have elements of direct influence, 17 in terms of government, and public policy that influence the residents of various electoral 18 districts, and The Commonwealth of Massachusetts, as a whole.

19 SECTION 2. – It is in the public interest, and has long been established, that an Office of 20 Campaign and Political Finance (OCPF) shall exist, to collect, to report, and to make available,
21 the various sources of contributions, the expenditure of gathered resources; and to monitor, 22 develop, and enforce appropriate legal requirements regarding such matters; in regards to 23 candidates for elections.

24 The evolution of these standards, has been in the direction of efficiency, effectiveness,
25 and public knowledge, which assist broad public purposes of transparency, and understanding.

26 Therefore, this statute defines certain political party offices, such as candidates for state
27 committee members; town committees, ward committees, and city committees, at elections, 28 which are printed on the public ballot, at regular intervals, to be offices, for which such 29 candidates, are required to report all contributions, and all expenditures, relating to campaigns
30 for these offices, according to the reasonable regulations that are established, and may be 31 additionally established, by the Office of Campaign and Political Finance (OCPF).
