By Representative Diggs of Barnstable, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 3786) of Kip A. Diggs and Paul R. Feeney for legislation to protect victims and the public from sexual assault and other violent crimes. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act to protect victims and the public from sexual assault and other violent crimes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 26 of chapter 218 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2020
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the figure 274, in line 28, the following 3 words:- , section 13F of chapter 268.

4 SECTION 2. Chapter 268 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 5 inserting after section 13E the following section:-

6 Section 13F. (a) Whoever unlawfully removes, destroys, damages or interferes with the 7 proper functioning of a geolocation monitoring device, breath-testing instrument or other 8 mechanism intended to facilitate recognizance or compliance with conditions of pretrial release,
9 probation or parole shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for no more than 10
10 years or imprisonment in a house of correction for no more than 2½ years.

11 (b) In any proceeding under sections 57 to 58B, inclusive, of chapter 276, the fact of a 12 person’s prior conviction pursuant to subsection (a) shall be prima facie evidence that there is no

13 financial condition or other condition of release that will reasonably assure the presence of the 14 person so convicted.

15 SECTION 3. Section 57 of chapter 276 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 16 amended by striking out the fourth paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following 17 paragraph:-

18 In a case involving a dangerous crime as defined in subsection (1) of section 58A with an
19 identified victim, no person shall be released, pursuant to section 57 to 58B, inclusive, before the 20 alleged victim is notified of the defendant's imminent release; provided, however, that the 21 defendant shall not be held more than 6 hours in order to permit prior notice to the alleged
22 victim. When a defendant is to be released from the custody of a police department, such notice
23 shall be provided by the police department. When a defendant is to be released from a
24 courthouse, such notice shall be provided by the district attorney's office. When a defendant is to 25 be released from a jail or correctional facility, such notice shall be provided by the 26 superintendent. The person or agency responsible for providing notice shall undertake to provide 27 notice promptly.

28 SECTION 4. Section 58 of said chapter 276, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 29 striking out the fourth paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-

30 In a case involving a dangerous crime as defined in subsection (1) of section 58A with an 31 identified victim, no person shall be released, pursuant to section 57 to 58B, inclusive, before the 32 alleged victim is notified of the defendant's imminent release; provided, however, that the 33 defendant shall not be held more than 6 hours in order to permit prior notice to the alleged
34 victim. When a defendant is to be released from the custody of a police department, such notice

35 shall be provided by the police department. When a defendant is to be released from a
36 courthouse, such notice shall be provided by the district attorney's office. When a defendant is to 37 be released from a jail or correctional facility, such notice shall be provided by the 38 superintendent. The person or agency responsible for providing notice shall undertake to 39 provide notice promptly.

40 SECTION 5. Section 58A of said chapter 276, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 41 striking out subsection (1) and inserting in place thereof the following subsection:-

42 (1) For the purposes of this section the following term shall, unless the context clearly 43 requires otherwise, have the following meaning:

44 "Dangerous crime", any of the following:

45 (a) a felony that has as an element of the crime: the use, attempted use or threatened use 46 of physical force against the person of another;

47 (b) a violation of an order pursuant to section 18, 34B or 34C of chapter 208; section 32
48 of chapter 209; section 3 to 5, inclusive, of chapter 209A; or section 15 or 20 of chapter 209C;

49 (c) a misdemeanor or felony involving abuse as defined in section 1 of said chapter
50 209A;

51 (d) a sex offense involving a child as defined in section 178C of chapter 6;

52 (e) a violation of section 13B to 13 B ³/₄, inclusive, 13F, 22 to 24, inclusive, 26B, 26C, 50
53 or 51 of chapter 265 or a violation of section 13D of said chapter 265 in which the public
54 employee is a police officer;

- 55 (f) a violation of section 4A, 4B or 29A to 29C, inclusive, of chapter 272;
- 56 (g) a violation of section of section 24 of chapter 90 or section 8 of chapter 90B;
- 57 (h) threats to kill, rape or cause serious bodily injury; and
- 58 (i) conspiracy or solicitation to commit any of the above enumerated crimes.

59 SECTION 6. Subsection (3) of said section 58A of said chapter 276, as so appearing, is 60 hereby amended by striking out the second sentence and inserting in place thereof the following 61 sentence:- A person detained under this subsection shall be detained until the disposition of the 62 case and shall be brought to trial as soon as reasonably possible as defined in Massachusetts

63 Rules of Criminal Procedure Rule 36(b).

64 SECTION 7. Subsection (4) of said section 58A of said chapter 276, as so appearing, is 65 hereby amended by striking out the first paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following 2
66 paragraphs:-

67 When a person is held under arrest for an offense listed in subsection (1), a hearing shall 68 take place no later than the next day that the superior, district, Boston municipal or juvenile court

69 in the place of jurisdiction is in session, provided the case involves a crime of abuse. In 70 the case involving a crime of abuse: (i) the commonwealth shall be the only party permitted to 71 move for arraignment within 3 hours of a complaint being signed by a magistrate or a 72 magistrate's designee; and (2) a defendant arrested, who has attained the age of 18 years, shall 73 not be released sooner than 6 hours after arrest, except by a judge in open court.

74 In any pending case where the defendant has been first arraigned in the district, Boston 75 municipal or juvenile court and is subsequently arraigned in superior court for the same or 76 related crimes arising out of the same incident, the superior court may conduct a new hearing
77 upon motion of the commonwealth provided that any order of the district, Boston municipal or 78 juvenile court concerning the defendant shall remain in effect until such time as the superior
79 court issues a new order. In any such new hearing in the superior court, the judge shall consider 80 the defendant's compliance with any previously ordered conditions of release.

81 SECTION 8. Said subsection (4) of said section 58A of said chapter 276, as so appearing,
82 is hereby further amended by inserting after the seventh sentence the following sentence:- At the 83 hearing, the judge shall have immediate access to all pending and prior criminal offender record
84 information, board of probation records, out of state criminal records and police and incident 85 reports related to the defendant over the previous 5 years, upon oral, telephonic, facsimile or 86 electronic mail request, to the extent practicable.

87 SECTION 9. Said subsection (4) of said section 58A of said chapter 276, as so appearing,
88 is hereby further amended by striking out the tenth sentence and inserting in place thereof the 89 following sentence:- A person detained under this subsection shall be detained until the 90 disposition of the case and shall brought to trial as soon as reasonably possible as defined in 91 Massachusetts Rules of Criminal Procedure Rule 36(b).

92 SECTION 10. Said subsection (4) of said section 58A of said chapter 276, as so 93 appearing, is hereby further amended by striking out the eleventh sentence and inserting in place
94 thereof the following 2 sentences:- Any hearing may be reopened by the judge or upon motion of 95 the commonwealth or the defendant, provided that the judge determines by a preponderance of

96 the evidence that: (1) information exists that was not known to the movant at the time of the 97 hearing or there has been a material change in circumstances; and (2) such information or change
98 in circumstances has a substantial bearing on the issue of whether the defendant's detention, 99 defendant's release on conditions, or conditions imposed on the defendant are necessary and 100 sufficient to reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant and the safety of any other person
101 and the community. In any such reopened hearing, the judge shall consider the defendant's 102 compliance with any previously ordered conditions of release.
