An Act establishing a foreclosure review division.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The General Laws are hereby amended by inserting after chapter 212 the 2 following chapter:-

3 CHAPTER 212A

4 FORECLOSURE REVIEW DIVISION

5 Section 1. There shall be a special division of the superior court department, known as 6 the foreclosure review division.

7 Section 2. The foreclosure review division shall have a presiding justice and such other 8 justices as the chief justice of the trial court, in consultation with the chief justice of the superior
9 court department, shall assign from among those justices of the various departments of the trial
10 court with an interest in relevant areas of law.

11           Section 3. The chief justice of the trial court shall designate one of the judges of the 12 foreclosure review division as the presiding justice of that division.

13           Section 4. (a) The foreclosure review division shall be divided into not fewer than four 14 and not more than six sessions statewide, as determined by the chief justice of the trial court in 15 consultation with the chief justice of the superior court department and the presiding justice of 16 the division, based on factors including projected caseloads and on the convenience of litigants.

17           (b) Each session may hold its sittings in more than one location, as appropriate.

18           (c) The foreclosure review division shall provide online and other materials to assist self-19 represented litigants and shall offer alternative dispute resolution services, which may include 20 referral to a pre-foreclosure mediation program if one is established by statute.

21           Section 5. There shall be selected, as determined by the chief justice of the trial court in 22 consultation with the chief justice of the superior court department and the presiding justice of 23 the foreclosure review division, a court administrator, deputy court administrators if appropriate, 24 court clerks, clerks for the justices, facilitators for self-represented litigants, certified neutral as 25 mediators, title examiners, information technology personnel and any other personnel essential to 26 the expeditious establishment and efficient functioning of the foreclosure review division.

27           Section 6. (a) Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the foreclosure
28 review division shall have jurisdiction, concurrently with the other divisions of the superior court
29 department and with the land court department, the housing court department and the district 30 court department, over all actions involving the foreclosure or purported foreclosure of 31 mortgages on residential property whether by action, by sale, by entry or otherwise, including, 32 but not limited to: actions that concern the validity of a foreclosure or purported foreclosure. Any

33 action where title has been brought in question in relation to foreclosure shall be transferred to 34 the foreclosure review division including but not limited to: summary process actions to evict;
35 actions to try title, to quiet title, including sections 12 and 13 of Chapter 244 and to remove cloud
36 on title; petitions brought under Chapter 185 regarding registered title to such property; actions
37 that concern the intent to foreclose or otherwise to exercise a power of sale; actions that concern 38 modification of a mortgage loan; and criminal jurisdiction in matters arising out of or pertaining 39 to foreclosure or attempted foreclosure.

40 (b) The foreclosure review division shall promptly transmit for recordation or 41 registration, to the registry of deeds of the county or district in which the land lies, a copy of any 42 final determination affecting title to land. Fee for such recordation or registration shall be waived
43 for the losing party to the extent allowable under the Indigent Court Costs Laws.

44 (c) Any party to a civil action within the jurisdiction of the foreclosure review division
45 that is pending in another court department or another division of the superior court department,
46 or a judge of the court department or division in which the action is pending, acting sua sponte,
47 may remove or transfer that action to the foreclosure review division. No additional filing fee
48 shall be charged to remove or transfer such a case. An action transferred to the foreclosure
49 review division shall thereafter proceed in that division as though originally entered there.

50 (d) In a civil action in which another court has dismissed a claim for lack of jurisdiction 51 or denied a claim that is within the jurisdiction of the foreclosure review division, a party shall 52 have thirty (30) days after the date of receipt of the notice of dismissal or, in the case of an 53 appeal from the dismissal, thirty (30) days after the date of receipt of the notice of the decision,
54 to file remove the case in to the foreclosure review division, regardless of whether the time

55 permitted under the applicable statute of limitations would have expired at any time from the 56 original commencement of that action to the end of this thirty (30) day period.

57 (e) Any document informing a litigant or his or her attorney of such a dismissal or denial
58 shall include complete information about the right to file remove the case in the foreclosure
59 review division, together with instructions for doing so.

60 Section 7. The chief justice of the trial court, in consultation with the chief justice of the 61 superior court department and the presiding justice of the foreclosure review division, may from 62 time to time make alternative or supplemental rules, standing orders and forms of procedure to 63 govern proceedings in that division.

64 Section 8. (a) There shall be an advisory board to assist the presiding justice and the 65 justices of the foreclosure review division and the division's court administrator.

66 (b) The advisory board shall consist of the Attorney General or a designee; the executive 67 director of the Massachusetts office of victim assistance; and the following additional members
68 appointed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court: one person who has significant 69 experience in each of the following areas: court or business administration; information
70 technology, in particular, in designing systems to assist members of the public to use information 71 technology effectively; promoting judicial economy by assisting self represented litigants in 72 presenting their cases effectively; mediation programs on complex topics, particularly those 73 involving cases in which self represented and sophisticated parties have adverse interests; real 74 estate title examination in the commonwealth; and at least four lawyers with significant 75 experience in various relevant areas of law and litigation, including, access to justice (including 76 for indigent party and English as a second language speakers) and banking, bankruptcy, civil

77 rights, the Americans with Disabilities Act, consumer rights, criminal law, landlord-tenant, real 78 property, secured transactions and securities and securitized trust law. At least two of the four 79 lawyers will have primarily represented homeowners in preserving their homes from foreclosure
80 or will have represented consumers.

81 (c) The advisory board shall choose its chair. The appointed members of that board shall 82 each serve for a term of three years or for the remainder of the term of the foreclosure review
83 division, whichever is less.

84 (d) The board shall advise the presiding justice and the justices of the foreclosure review 85 division and the division's court administrator on matters of judicial and administrative concern
86 including, but not limited to, developments in relevant legal issues, real estate title examination, 87 mediation, assisting self-represented litigants, access to justice, the impacts of structural 88 discrimination and the allocation of resources based on the caseload of each of the division's 89 courts.

90 Section 9. This chapter shall be in force for a period of five years commencing 91 immediately upon enactment and shall apply to all cases within the jurisdiction of the foreclosure 92 review division, whether pending in one or more departments of the trial court as of the date of 93 enactment or commenced after that date.

94 SECTION 2. Chapter 212A of the General Laws shall renew for an additional five year
95 term on January 1st of the fifth year after the effective date of this Act and every five years
96 thereafter unless the legislature repeals this law prior to its next renewal date.

97 SECTION 3. Any cases pending in the foreclosure review division at the conclusion of 98 its final term shall be transferred to the appropriate court.

99           SECTION 4. Section 3 shall take effect upon January 1st of the year after the year in 100   which the legislature votes not to renew the foreclosure court division as authorized by section 1
101   of chapter 212A of the General Laws.
