24 participant in an entertainment event; or an agent of any such person.

25 “Ticket Platform” means a marketplace that enables consumers to purchase and sell 26 tickets.

27 SECTION 4. Section 185A of chapter 140 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is 28 hereby amended by deleting the second paragraph of this section.

29 SECTION 5. Chapter 140 of the General Laws, is hereby amended by striking out section 30 185D, as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

31 Section 185D. Consumer protection standards relative to the purchase, sale, and resale of 32 tickets:

33 (a) Any person who resells a ticket shall:

34 (1) Maintain a toll-free telephone number, e-mail address, or other means of contact for 35 complaints and inquiries regarding the resale of event tickets;

36 (2) Implement and reasonably publicize a standard refund policy that meets the minimum 37 standards established in subsection (c); and

38 (3) Take responsible measures to safeguard against the resale of counterfeit tickets.

39 (b) Any person who resells a ticket can meet the requirements of subsection (a) by using 40 a ticket platform that meets the requirements of subsection (a).

41 (c) The standard refund policy in subsection (a)(2):

42 (1) Shall provide a consumer who purchases an event ticket a full refund if: (i) the event 43 ticket does not provide access to the event or venue of the event, provided the date and time of 44 the event are correct on the event ticket; (ii) the event ticket has been cancelled by the ticket
45 issuer for non-payment by the original purchaser, or for any reason other than an act or omission 46 of the consumer; (iii) the event ticket materially and to the detriment of the consumer fails to 47 conform to the description provided to the consumer; or (iv) the event ticket was not delivered to 48 the consumer prior to the occurrence of the event, unless such failure of delivery was due to any 49 act or omission of the consumer;

50 (2) Shall include the full order value paid by the consumer for the event ticket, together
51 with any fees charged in connection with that purchase, including but not limited to convenience 52 fees, processing fees, at-home printing charges, and

53 (3) May condition entitlement to a refund upon timely return of the ticket purchased, and 54 may include reasonable safeguards against abuse of the policy.

55 (d) Provision of a replacement ticket to the same event that is in a comparable location, at 56 no additional charge to the consumer, shall be considered providing a full refund for the purposes 57 of subsection (c).

58 (e) If an event is canceled and not rescheduled, consumers are entitled to a full refund as 59 provided in subsection (c)(2) from the person, ticket issuer, or ticket platform they directly 60 purchased the ticket from.

61 (f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit any person, entity or association, 62 or an agent of any such person, entity or association subject to this section from implementing 63 consumer protection policies that exceed the minimum standard set forth in this section, and that 64 are otherwise compliant with this act.

65 (g) A person may not knowingly use or sell software to circumvent a security measure, 66 access control system, or other control or measure used by a ticket issuer or ticket platform to 67 enforce event ticket purchasing limits or to maintain the integrity of online ticket purchasing 68 order rules.

69 (h) Notwithstanding any contrary terms or conditions, a) a ticket issuer may employ a 70 non-transferable ticketing system only if the consumer is offered an option at the time of initial

71 sale to purchase the same ticket in a transferable form that allows tickets to be given away or 72 resold independent of and without requiring the consumer to log into the ticket issuer's preferred 73 ticket platform, without penalty or discrimination, and b) a ticket buyer or seller shall not be 74 penalized, discriminated against, or denied access to an event solely on the grounds that, or the 75 ticket platform through which, the ticket or tickets were resold.

76 SECTION 6. Said chapter 140, as so appearing, is hereby amended by adding after 77 section 185H following new section:-

78 Section 185I. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a ticket issuer or venue 79 operator may:

80 a) Maintain and enforce policies with respect to conduct, behavior, public health and 81 safety, or age at the venue or entertainment event;

82 b) Establish limits on the quantity of tickets that may be purchased;

83 c) Elect not to offer tickets in a transferable form as required by the provisions of section 84 one hundred and eight-five D if those tickets are sold or given to individuals or groups as part of 85 a private event, or a targeted promotion at a discounted price offered because of the individuals
86 or groups status or affiliation with religious or charitable institutions, societies or organizations 87 or civic leagues or organizations not organized for profit but operated exclusively for the 88 promotion of social welfare, associations of veterans of any wars of the

89 United States, students, or groups or individuals characterized by a disability or economic 90 hardship. Tickets issued through a non-transferable ticketing system pursuant to the exemption in

- 91 this subsection shall not be offered promotionally to the general public and must be clearly
- 92 marked as a ticket restricted to the specified individual or group.
