[SIMILAR MATTER FILED IN PREVIOUS SESSION SEE SENATE, NO. 1622 OF 2021-2022.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act relative to sheriffs.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 6 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2020 Official Edition, is

2 hereby amended by inserting after section 220 the following section:-

3	Section 221. There shall be a corrections advisory board, hereinafter called the board, to
4	provide independent advice to the commonwealth's corrections providers, including the sheriffs,
5	to: (i) improve coordination efforts between and among the sheriffs, the department of
6	correction, the courts and community corrections programs; and (ii) identify and establish best
7	practices in all aspects of corrections operations, including, but not limited to, accounting, human
8	resources, care and custody of inmates, special inmate populations, civil process, community
9	corrections, health and mental health care management, inmate rehabilitation and re-entry,
10	capital, master and strategic planning, inmate tracking and transportation and procurement.

11 The board shall include the following members: the secretary of public safety and 12 security, the chair of the parole board, the commissioner of correction, the commissioner of 13 probation, the secretary of administration and finance, the president of the Massachusetts 14 Sheriffs Association, Inc., or their designees, each of whom shall serve ex-officio; 9 persons to 15 be appointed by the governor for a term of 3 years, 1 of whom shall have experience in the areas 16 of workforce development and ex-offender rehabilitation, 1 of whom shall have experience in the 17 area of reintegration and rehabilitation of female ex-offenders, 1 of whom shall have experience 18 in treating people with mental illness and substance use, 1 of whom shall have experience in 19 government accounting practices, 1 of whom shall have experience in human resources 20 management, 1 of whom shall have experience in independent auditing and 1 of whom shall be a 21 representative of organized labor; 2 persons to be appointed by the president of the 22 Massachusetts Sheriffs Association, Inc.; and 2 persons to be appointed by the chief justice of 23 the supreme judicial court. Upon the expiration of the term of an appointed member, the 24 member's successor shall be appointed in a like manner for a term of 3 years. Irregular vacancies 25 shall be filled by appointment to an unexpired term. Ten members shall constitute a quorum and 26 all appointees and ex-officio members shall be voting members. The board shall annually elect a 27 chair from among its members and shall be supported by the executive office for administration 28 and finance. Chapter 268A shall apply to all board members.

The chair shall hold meetings at least quarterly, 1 of which shall be an annual meeting, and shall notify all board members and sheriffs of the time and place of all meetings. Special meetings may be called at any time by a majority of the board members and shall be called by the chair upon written application of 8 or more members. Members of the board shall receive no compensation, but shall receive their expenses actually and necessarily incurred in the dischargeof their duties.

35 The sheriffs and any other interested parties shall have the opportunity to address the 36 board during its meetings and to provide written information to the board for its consideration. 37 The board shall make a report, at least 60 days before July 31 of every even-numbered 38 year and file a copy thereof with the governor, the clerks of the house and senate, the senate and 39 house committees on ways and means, the joint committee on public safety and homeland 40 security, the joint committee on the judiciary and the joint committee on state administration and 41 regulatory oversight. 42 SECTION 2. Section 3B of chapter 7 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 43 amended by inserting after the words "employees thereof", in line 12, the following words:-; 44 provided, however, that the cost of meals for employees of the sheriff's departments shall be 45 subject to collective bargaining agreements. 46 SECTION 3. Section 3 of chapter 32 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting after the word "prisoners", in line 275, the following words:-47 48 and any deputy engaged in civil process enforcement activities that involve the acts of 49 arrest, eviction or seizure of property, who is regularly assigned to such enforcement duties for 50 more than 20 hours per week, and who is defined by section 3A of chapter 37 as a full-time 51 employee of the Sheriff.

52 SECTION 4. Section 2 of chapter 32A of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 53 amended by inserting after the word "county", in line 18, the following words:-, the offices of 54 the sheriffs.

SECTION 5. Chapter 37 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 3 the following 2 sections:-

57 Section 3A. (a) Each sheriff shall establish a civil process office within the sheriff's 58 department and shall assign deputies appointed pursuant to section 3 who, along with the sheriff, 59 shall serve and execute within their counties, including within the political boundaries of the 60 previously abolished county governments, and where the commonwealth is a party or interested, 61 all precepts lawfully issued to them and all other process required by law to be served by an 62 officer pursuant to section 11 of chapter 37. The civil process office established within the 63 sheriff's department shall be the exclusive entity performing sheriff's civil process duties under 64 section 11 of chapter 37. A deputy assigned to serve process may do so in cases in which a 65 county, city, town, parish, religious society, fire or other district is a party or interested, although 66 the deputy is an inhabitant or member thereof. The sheriff may also appoint employees to work 67 in the sheriff's civil process office. All deputies and employees of the process office shall serve 68 at the will and the pleasure of the sheriff. A deputy who ceases to be assigned to or to perform 69 civil process duties, either as an employee or as a contracted deputized process server, shall be 70 decommissioned as a deputy as provided by law and shall immediately return all equipment and 71 property issued to that person by the sheriffs' department.

(b) Deputies and other employees of the process office, who are salaried or hourly employees and who devote 20 hours or more per week to assigned duties, shall be state employees under chapters 32, 32A, 150E, 152, 258, 268A and 268B and shall be compensated in accordance with this subsection and subsection (c).

76 (c) Subject to the following limitations, the sheriff shall have power and authority as 77 employer in all matters related to civil process deputies and employees including, but not limited 78 to, hiring, firing, promotion, discipline, work-related injuries and internal organization of the 79 department. No sheriff, deputy or employee shall serve process for anyone except the sheriff. 80 The sheriff or an assigned deputy or contracted deputized process server may serve process 81 outside regular business hours. Sheriffs and non-commission full-time deputies and employees 82 may receive only a salary or hourly wage and shall not receive a commission or any portion of 83 any fee for service of process, no matter when the service is performed. Except for appointed or 84 sworn deputy sheriffs contracted to serve civil process, sheriffs, deputy sheriffs and employees 85 who are part-time shall not be paid a commission or any portion of any fee for service of process 86 performed during hours for which the sheriff, deputy or employee is being compensated by 87 federal, state, county or municipal funds. The annual salary, cumulative hourly wage, 88 commissions or the cumulative portion of any fees for service of process of any individual 89 deputy, employee or contracted deputized process server shall not exceed the annual salary of the 90 sheriff.

91 (d) In addition to any other training and certification required by law, a deputy sheriff 92 who performs civil process duties, including, but not limited to, enforcement duties, shall be 93 sworn and shall complete a civil process officers certification program pursuant to a policy and 94 curriculum that shall be adopted and approved by the Massachusetts Sheriffs Association, Inc.
95 and the Massachusetts Deputy Sheriffs' Association. The civil process officers certification 96 program shall include training and orientation on all requirements of lawful service of process and shall be conducted jointly by the Massachusetts Sheriffs Association, Inc. and the Massachusetts Deputy Sheriffs' Association. Deputy sheriffs shall begin the civil process officers certification program within 30 days after receiving appointment or being assigned civil process duties and shall be re-certified annually after completing the program.

(e) All full-time deputy sheriffs and employees of the sheriff's civil process office, including those deputy sheriffs and employees of the sheriff's civil process office who have been transferred to the commonwealth, and who completed a 1 year probationary period of full time employment, shall be granted under this subsection, without impairment, full benefits for vacation and sick time earned from their original commencement of employment in the sheriff's civil process office not to exceed those of other state employees.

107 Section 3B. No sheriff, deputy or employee, nor any other individual or entity shall have 108 or acquire any legal right to the tangible or intangible property of the civil process office, nor any 109 revenue derived from fees collected from the service of process or any proceeds from the sale of 110 the property within the process office, other than compensation as determined pursuant to this 111 chapter.

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, all fees derived from service of process shall be used solely for the operation of the sheriff's civil process office. All tangible and intangible property shall belong to the state and shall be under the sole possession and control of the sheriff.

SECTION 6. Said chapter 37 of the General Laws is hereby further amended by striking out section 11 and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

118 Section 11. (a) The Massachusetts Sheriffs Association, Inc. shall establish a system by 119 which all process fees are reported and recorded and shall develop and adopt policies and 120 procedures to be approved by the comptroller and the secretary of administration and finance 121 which shall be referenced in an internal control plan kept by each sheriff's office. Information 122 about each request for process to be served that is received by the sheriff's civil process office 123 shall be reported and recorded in the system within 30 days of when the information becomes 124 available and shall include, but not be limited to, the following information for each piece of 125 process to be served: (i) the title of the action, including court name and docket number; (ii) the 126 date the process was issued or required to be served; (iii) the type of process; (iv) the name and 127 address of the person requesting that process be served; (v) the name and address of the person 128 or location upon which service is to be made; (vi) the fee charged; (vii) the date of billing to 129 collect the fee; (viii) the date of fee collected; (ix) the date service was made; (x) the manner of 130 service; (xi) the amount of commission paid, if any; and (xii) the name of the person performing 131 service and, if different, the name of the person or entity to whom the commission was paid.

(b) A summary of the information contained in subsection (a) shall be compiled and reported in writing to the comptroller and the secretary of administration and finance by the sheriff annually not later than September 30.

(c) Administrative costs associated with the recording of information prescribed under subsection (a) and prepared under subsection (b), including expenditures for personnel or the purchase of equipment required to perform the recording of information, may be paid from the civil process account or any other account established for the operation of the sheriff's office.

139	(d) In addition to the requirements in subsection (a), annual reports filed pursuant to
140	subsection (b) shall include, but not be limited to, completed, itemized schedules of the
141	following information: (i) assets, including cash, deposits, accounts receivable and the value of
142	the property and equipment; (ii) liabilities, including accounts payable, client escrow deposits,
143	capital lease obligations and all other debts; (iii) income derived from the service of process and
144	otherwise; (iv) expenses paid, including payroll, commissions and all other expenses; and (v) any
145	surplus from the sheriff's civil process account that has been transferred to an account as
146	authorized by law.
147	SECTION 7. Section 14 of said chapter 37, as so appearing, is hereby amended by
148	striking out the words "They may execute precepts in their hands at the time of their removal
149	from office; and, upon" and inserting in place thereof the following word:- Upon.
150	SECTION 8. Said chapter 37 is hereby further amended by inserting after section 14 the
151	following section:-
152	Section 14A. Upon the removal of a deputy sheriff by the sheriff, the removed deputy
153	shall immediately return to the sheriff's civil process office all process and other documents
154	received or in the deputy sheriff's possession, along with any fees collected. If a deputy or
155	former deputy fails to comply with this section, the sheriff shall institute legal proceedings to
156	enforce this section or any other section in this chapter.
157	SECTION 9. Said Chapter 37 is hereby further amended by striking out section 22 and
158	inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 22. Each sheriff shall keep an account of all fees and money received from any source by virtue of the sheriff's office on the state's accounting system as prescribed by the comptroller.

162 SECTION 10. Said Chapter 37 is hereby further amended by inserting after section 22163 the following section:-

164 Section 22A. (a) Notwithstanding section 22 of chapter 35, all fees and other revenues 165 collected by the process office shall be revenue of the commonwealth as defined by chapter 29. 166 All fees and revenues shall be deposited in bank accounts and accounted for on the books and 167 records of the commonwealth in accordance with policies and procedures of the state treasurer 168 and comptroller. The civil process accounts shall be kept separate from other accounts, shall 169 continue without further appropriation and shall be used only for the operation of the process 170 office or for activities that the sheriffs are statutorily authorized to perform. Expenditures shall 171 be authorized by the sheriff in accordance with state guidelines without further appropriation. 172 Any balance in the account at the close of the fiscal year shall be retained in the account and 173 made available in the subsequent fiscal year.

(b) Payroll and all other bills of the civil process office shall be paid from the process account; provided, however, that after all civil process revenue has been expended for payroll and other bills of the civil process office, a sheriff may use funding from a fiscal year budgetary appropriation to pay payroll and all other civil process expenses.

(c) Notwithstanding subsection (a), contributions from paychecks issued to deputy sheriffs and employees of the sheriff's civil process office who are members in service of the state retirement system, shall be deducted and forwarded to the state treasurer. The amounts deducted shall be determined in accordance with chapter 32 and any other rules and regulationspromulgated thereunder.

(d) Notwithstanding subsection (a), premiums from paychecks of deputy sheriffs and employees of the sheriff's civil process office who are insured under chapter 32A shall be deducted and forwarded to the state treasurer. The amounts deducted shall be determined in accordance with chapter 32A and any other rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

(e) Annually, not later than 75 days after the close of the fiscal year, the sheriff shall render a sworn statement of account to the state treasurer, the secretary of administration and finance and the house and senate committees on ways and means.

(f) Notwithstanding subsection (a), no funds held in a civil process account shall be used for payment of liability expenses incurred by the sheriff's civil process office pursuant to chapter 258 or for payments to employees pursuant to chapter 152. Any judgment, settlement or attorney's fees incurred as a result of litigation concerning the process office shall be paid in accordance with chapter 258 in the same manner as any other claim, judgment, settlement or attorney's fees paid by the sheriff's office.

(g) In the event revenues collected from civil process fees are deemed insufficient to cover the costs of operating of the process office, the sheriff shall notify the house and senate committees on ways and means and the secretary of administration and finance in writing of the projected deficiency and the reasons for such deficiency not later than 30 days in advance of the projected deficiency.

SECTION 11. Chapter 126 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 18A the following section:-

Section 18B. Injuries to Deputy Sheriffs and Employees of Sheriff's Civil Process Office.

203

204 Whenever a deputy sheriff or other employee of a sheriff's civil process office who, due 205 to no fault of his own, while in the performance of duty, receives bodily injury from an act of 206 violence by a person connected with the proceeding for which service of process was attempted 207 or served, and who is incapacitated for duty because of the injury sustained, shall be paid, in 208 addition to benefits paid under chapter 152, the difference between the weekly cash benefits to 209 which he is entitled under chapter 152 and his regular salary. Any absence from work due to the 210 injury shall not be charged against the employee's available sick leave credits, even if the 211 absence is for less than 8 calendar days. This section does not apply to injuries sustained during 212 work for which a deputy or employee is being paid commission.

213 All amounts payable under this section shall be paid at the same times and in the same 214 manner as, and for all purposes shall be deemed to be the deputy or employee's regular 215 compensation. If a person or entity is liable for monetary damages for an injury of a deputy 216 sheriff or other employee of a sheriff's civil process for which he is compensated under this 217 section, the deputy, employee, or sheriff's department that is paying compensation under this 218 section, may proceed to enforce the liability of such person or entity in any court of competent 219 jurisdiction. Any sum recovered shall be for the benefit of the sheriff's department that is paying 220 such compensation, unless the sum is greater than the compensation paid to the injured person, in 221 which case the excess shall be retained by or paid to the injured person. For the purposes of this 222 section, "excess" shall mean the amount by which the total sum received as damages for the 223 injury, exclusive of interest and costs, exceeds the amount paid under this section as 224 compensation to the injured person. The party bringing the action shall be entitled to any costs 225 recovered by him. Any interest received in the action shall be apportioned between the sheriff's department and the injured person in proportion to the amounts received by them respectively, inclusive of interest and costs. The expense of any attorney's fees shall be divided between the sheriff's department and the injured person in proportion to the amounts received by them respectively.

Any person or entity, who injures a deputy sheriff or other employee of a sheriff's civil process office who is compensated under this section for the injury, shall be liable in tort to the sheriff's department that is paying the injured person, for all costs, in excess of the amount of compensation paid, that are incurred by the sheriff's department to replace the injured person.

SECTION 12. Chapter 262 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 8A and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 8A. Each constable shall annually, not later than April 15, file with the municipal treasurer an account signed under the pains and penalties of perjury of all fees and money received by the constable under section 8 for the service of civil process. If 2 or more constables share such fees and money, such constables may file a joint account; provided, however, that each constable signs the account under the pains and penalties of perjury.

Each deputy sheriff shall annually, not later than 30 days after the close of the fiscal year, file with the sheriff and the state treasurer an account signed under the pains and penalties of perjury of all fees and money received by the deputy sheriff under section 8 for the service of civil process. If 2 or more deputy sheriffs share such fees and money, such deputy sheriffs may file a joint account; provided, however, that each deputy sheriff shall sign the account under the pains and penalties of perjury.

On a schedule determined by the sheriff, but at least quarterly, each deputy sheriff who serves process shall file a written report to the sheriff, made under the pains and penalties of perjury and in a form prescribed by the sheriff, detailing information relative to the service of civil process in their respective jurisdictions pursuant to section 11 of chapter 37.

251 SECTION 13. Subject to appropriation, the human resources division shall conduct, in 252 consultation with the sheriffs and Massachusetts Sheriffs Association, Inc., a comprehensive 253 assessment that will lead to statewide standards for classification, recruitment, promotion, 254 compensation and professional standards for all sheriffs' offices. The assessment shall include, 255 but is not limited to, standardizing job titles and classification, job postings, minimum testing 256 requirements and other employment practices. The human resources division shall issue a report 257 of its assessment by April 30, 2025 and require that implementation of the standards shall begin 258 not later than September 1, 2025. A copy of the human resources division's assessment report 259 shall be sent to the chairs of the joint committee on state administration and regulatory oversight, 260 the chairs of house and senate ways and means, the clerks of the house and senate, the chairs of 261 the joint committee on public safety and homeland security, the secretary of administration and 262 finance and the secretary of public safety and security.
