as part of a series of transfers, was made for the primary purpose of evading the fee established pursuant to this section.

(i) Transfers for less than $1,000,000 or such higher threshold amount as set by the municipality or regional affordable housing commission adopting a transfer fee pursuant to this legislation except to the extent that the median single family sale price for the county in which the municipality resides is less than $750,000 may adopt a threshold no lower than 100 per cent of the median single family home sales price for that county. (xiii) Transfers to a mortgagee in foreclosure of the mortgage held by such mortgagee, and transfers of the property subject to a mortgage to the mortgagee in consideration of the forbearance of the mortgagee from foreclosing said mortgage;

(xiv) Transfers consisting of the division of marital assets under the provisions of section 34 of chapter 208 or other provisions of law; and

(xv) Transfers of a real property interest that include 1 or more residential units governed by affordable housing restrictions; provided, however, that the fee imposed under the provisions of this section shall be proportionately reduced based on the assessed value of residential units subject to affordable housing restrictions as compared to the total assessed value of the property, or the percentage of residential units subject to affordable housing restrictions, as compared to the total number of units located on that property, or such other method as may be required by the bylaw, ordinance, warrant article or other local law establishing a transfer fee pursuant to this section or, with respect to member cities and towns of a regional affordable housing omission, a regulation adopted by the regional affordable housing commission.

With respect to a regional affordable housing commission, the regional affordable housing commission's treasurer or such other person as may be designated in the law establishing the regional affordable housing commission, shall keep a full and accurate account stating when, from or to whom, and on what account money has been paid or received relating to the regional affordable housing commission fund.

(e) (i) The adoption of any non-mandatory exemptions shall be determined by a majority vote by the city or town's legislative body or, with respect to a regional affordable housing commission, by the terms of or in accordance with the procedures established by the general or special law creating such commission.

(ii) A city or town that establishes a transfer fee pursuant to this section, or a regional affordable housing commission that receives funds hereunder may provide for the collection and lien of any outstanding transfer fee.
