The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act for a literacy tax credit.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The Massachusetts General Laws are hereby amended by inserting the

2 following new chapter:

- 3 Chapter 78B Literacy Tax Credit
- 4 Section 1. An Act to create a Literacy Tax Credit (LTC), under the Laws of

5 Massachusetts, providing for a Tax Credit, to certain qualified individuals, for specific assistance

6 in helping individuals to gain literacy; and/or full literacy.

7 Section 2. The quality of literacy, learning, and education, being the specific, and proper

8 concern of the Great and General Court since the 1630s, and 1640s, therefore, this Act is created

9 and established, in order that the literacy, and productive economy of the people as a whole, and 10 the many individuals of The Commonwealth, may be further improved.

11	Section 3. Many individuals, have some level of marginal literacy, but are otherwise
12	definable, as being functionally illiterate, lacking a full, comprehensive literacy. It is intended by 13	this legislation, to address, and reduce both complete illiteracy, and functional illiteracy, to the
14	benefit of such individuals, and our Commonwealth.
15	Section 4. Each person wishing to become literate, and/or fully literate, should be tested
16	for their level of literacy and competence, by reasonable standards to be established. Each
17	existing literate person, who wishes to participate in helping to improve literacy, can register
18	their willingness to do so, through various recognized educational organizations; including
19	properly accredited schools, and other appropriate organizations. Such organizations, may be
20	qualified, and designated through appropriate regulations by the Massachusetts Department of 21	Education.
