For the committee,
Nick Collins

SENATE No. 2821

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act establishing a jail and prison construction moratorium.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 7C of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the 2 following section:-

3 Section 73. (a) For the purposes of this section, the term “correctional facility” shall have 4 the same meaning as provided in section 1 of chapter 125.

5 (b) Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, a state agency or public
6 agency shall not:

7 (i) study, plan, design, acquire, lease, search for sites, or construct new correctional 8 facilities or detention centers;

9 (ii) expand the capacity of an existing correctional facility or detention center beyond its 10 current design or rated capacity;

11 (iii) convert any part of an existing or dormant correctional facility or detention center for 12 the purpose of detention or incarceration, including to change or expand the populations
13 incarcerated in that facility or center;

14 (iv) renovate an existing or dormant correctional facility or detention center beyond 15 performing routine maintenance and improvements limited only to ensuring compliance with 16 federal and state law including building, health, and fire codes; installing plumbing fixtures such 17 as toilets, showers, sinks, doors, or locks; improving food service or health services or medical 18 service units; removing restrictive housing units or other security infrastructure; improving
19 spaces for programming and education; provided that such improvements shall not increase a 20 facility's bed capacity and must result in improved living conditions for incarcerated people;

21 (v) repair an existing or dormant correctional facility or detention center for the purposes
22 of expanding the facility or center, or increasing its bed capacity.

23 SECTION 2. (a) For purposes of this section, the term "county jail and regional lockup
24 facility" shall mean a facility operated by a county sheriff that, as of the effective date of this act,
25 is used for all of the following: (i) the detention of convicted offenders; (ii) as a jail, as that term
26 is described in section 4 of chapter 126 of the General Laws; and (iii) as a regional lockup
27 facility utilized by more than 1 municipal law enforcement agency for the detention of arrestees.

28 (b) Notwithstanding clause (iii) of subsection (b) of section 73 of chapter 7C of the 29 General Laws, in the event that a county jail and regional lockup facility is closed due to the 30 closure of a county jail, the county sheriff may transfer no more than 30 beds from the closed
31 facility to an existing county correctional facility, as that term is defined in section 1 of chapter
32 125 of the General Laws, within the same county.

- 33 SECTION 3. Section 73 of chapter 7C of the General Laws is hereby repealed.
- 34 SECTION 4. Section 2 of this act is hereby repealed.
- 35 SECTION 5. Sections 3 and 4 shall take effect 5 years after the effective date of this act.
