An Act relative to student financial literacy.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 1Q of Chapter 69 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 2 amended by striking paragraph (b) and replacing it with the following:-

3 (b) A school district, charter school, approved private day or residential school or 4 collaborative school shall incorporate the financial literacy standards established pursuant to 5 section 1D and subsection (a) into existing curriculum including, but not limited to, mathematics, 6 history and social sciences, technology or business.

7 SECTION 2. Chapter 71 of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the following 8 new section:-

9 Section 98. (a) In all public schools, financial literacy shall be taught as required subjects
10 to promote an understanding of personal finances and financial stability. Instruction shall include

11 (i) loans; (ii) interest and interest accrual; (iii) credit card debt; (iv) online commerce; (v) rights 12 and responsibilities of renting or buying a home; (vi) saving, investing and planning for 13 retirement; (vii) the role of banking and financial services; (viii) balancing a checkbook; (ix)
14 state and federal taxes; (x) charitable giving; (xi) evaluating media content, including online 15 content, that relates to personal finance matters; and (xii) saving, investing and planning for 16 higher education or professional training.

17 SECTION 3. The department may apply for federal, state or other funding, including 18 funding available through the Economic Empowerment Trust Fund established pursuant to 19 section 35QQ of chapter 10 to implement the provisions of this section.
