In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act directing the administration to amend the frail elder home and community-based waiver to permit eligible older adults to choose to reside in certified assisted living residences.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the executive office shall
2 report to the house and senate committees on ways and means, not later than 90 days after the
3 effective date of this act, on the availability of a waiver and, if applicable, the estimated net state
4 cost of a waiver that would allow individuals qualifying for Medicaid and at risk of entering a
5 nursing home to reside in a certified assisted living residence. The executive office of health and
6 human services may request a waiver from the federal Centers for Medicare and Medicaid
7 Services to allow individuals qualifying for Medicaid and at risk of entering a nursing home to 8 reside in a certified assisted living residence.
