The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act to maintain stable housing for families with pets in an economic crisis and beyond.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Notwithstanding chapter 186 or 239 of the General Laws, as so appearing in 2 the 2022 Official Edition, or any general or special law, rule, regulation or order to the contrary,
3 no landlord shall initiate action to evict any person from a residential dwelling unit who has a pet 4 without written permission based solely on the presence of the pet until one year after a state of 5 emergency, unless the presence of pets is causing harm to the safety of other residents.

6 SECTION 2. No hotel, as defined in section 14 of chapter 140 shall unreasonably refuse 7 to allow pets, unless the pet has caused a demonstrated noise or safety threat, during a state of 8 emergency.

9 SECTION 3. Section 12 of Chapter 183A of the General Laws, as so appearing in the 10 2022 official edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the words “master deed”, in 11 subsection (d), the following words:- However, no provision in the declaration, bylaws or rules 12 and regulations of the organization of unit owners shall prohibit the keeping of certain types of 13 dogs based on breed, size, weight or appearance.

14 SECTION 4. Section 3 of Chapter 23B of the General Laws, as so appearing in the 2022
15 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the second use of the word “elderly” under 16 part “(u)” the following words:- , provided that no regulation, rule or policy shall prohibit the 17 keeping of dogs based on the dog’s breed, size, weight or appearance.

18 SECTION 5. Section 3 of Chapter 23B is hereby further amended by inserting the 19 following new subsection:-

20 (w) establish, conduct and maintain a program of pet ownership by residents of state-21 aided public housing, provided that no regulation, rule or policy shall prohibit the keeping of 22 dogs based on the dog’s breed, size, weight or appearance.

23 SECTION 6. Chapter 175 of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the 24 following section:

25 Section 231. An insurance company offering homeowners insurance coverage or renters
26 insurance coverage that issues a policy or contract insuring against liability for injury to a person 27 or injury to or destruction of property arising out of the ownership or lease of residential property 28 shall not refuse to issue, renew, cancel, or charge or impose an increased premium or rate of such 29 a policy or contract based in whole or in part upon the harboring of a specific breed of the dog 30 upon the property.

31 An insurance company may not ask or inquire about the breed or mixture of breeds of a 32 dog that is harbored or owner on an applicable property except to ask if the dog is known to be 33 dangerous or has been designated a dangerous dog pursuant to law.

34 Nothing in this section shall prohibit an insurer from refusing to issue or renew or from 35 canceling a contract or policy or from imposing an increased premium or rate for a policy or 36 contract if any dog being harbored on the property has been designated as a dangerous dog 37 pursuant to law.

38 SECTION 7. Section 32 of Chapter 121B of the General Laws, as so appearing in the 39 2022 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting the following new paragraph after 40 subsection (i):- In determining whether an applicant is eligible for tenancy in a property or if a 41 current tenant can remain in a property, no property owned, managed or operated by an authority 42 may make such a determination based on the breed, size, weight or appearance of a dog owned 43 or cared for by the applicant or household member.
